RUBBER BANDS.

"Rubber bands have supplanted twine to a great extent in the last few years," observed a salesman in a drug store as he slipped a band around a package. "Up to ten years ago rubber bands were seldom seen outside of a court house or a lawyer's office, and their use was confined almost exclusively to the filing of court documents and papers. Now you find them everywhere. Bands are used on all small packages in drug stores, and they have become an important factor in the grocery business. They answer the same purpose as twine, and are adjusted much easier. And then a more symmetrical package may be put up with the bands, and that is the pride of a good salesman. Yes, the rubber band has come to stay."

The correspondent of Harper's Weekly in the Philippines writes his paper that the reports have greatly exaggerated the number of insurgents killed. He gives it as his opinion that 1000 is a full and fair estimate of the fighting natives that have been killed. The deaths of the American soldiers from fighting and disease number 600. The Filipinos do not kill as many of our soldiers as the soldiers kill of Filipinos, but the effects of disease upon the Americans largely make up the difference. The Filipino is fighting on his own ground. That is almost everything in a battle.

Versatility in public men is to be admired, but Portland's mayor has too much of the article. Recently he responded to an invitation to deliver an address before a WCTU meeting, and now it is announced that he will talk to the Liquor Dealers Association. The man that can cover all the ground between the extremes of these organizations is indeed an all around citizen.

A Pacific Mail steamer recently in port at San Francisco from Australia is short $25,000 taken by unknown parties from the treasure vault. What makes the robbery more mysterious is that the room was locked when the steamer left Sydney apparently had not been tampered with when opened at San Francisco. Yet the money was gone, else had never been placed aboard.

A girl baby in Kansas has been named Edmonie. When that baby grows up to years of understanding, she should be charitable enough to try to remember that the blame really ought not to be laid on General Funston.

Attorney General Blackburn is of the opinion that ex-state school superintendent Irwin got several thousand dollars from the state funds for fees to which he was not entitled. The ex-Supt should put back the wrongfully gotten fees.

Mark Twain is still in the joking business. His book about people he has met will not be published until a century after his death. By that time it may be necessary for somebody to write a book telling who Mark Twain was.

It is reported that the Sultan of the Sulu archipelago, the southern extremity of the Philippines, will resist Uncle Sam. There will be one Sultan less before many months roll around.

Admiral Dewey sailed from Hong Kong on the Olympia today homeward bound. He refused the courtesies of a public reception and dinner before leaving, on account of his need of rest.

The fact that Hon William Peffer receives $10 a week for editing a newspaper is another incontrovertible proof that he is a hard man to keep down.

Oregon's regiment will leave Manila for home this week. The home-coming of the boys will bring joy to many anxious hearts.

Portland mouths are watering over the Hood river strawberries just coming into market.

Those Frenchmen are still agitating. It is their normal condition.

The Giant Despair.
 One of the most horrible things about the things which women are peculiarly subject to is the sense of overwhelming despair which they bring upon the mind. A woman's mental condition is directly and powerfully affected by any ailment of the delicate, special organs of her sex. Such a difficulty not only racks her body with pain and suffering but burdens her with mental anguish which words can hardly describe. Thousands of women have had a similar experience to that of Mrs. Sarah A. Williams, of Westport, Oldham Co., Ky., in which the use of Dr. Pierce's wonderful "Favorite Prescription" by imparting health and strength to the feminine organism, has not only restored complete vigor and capacity to the bodily powers but has also given renewed brightness and buoyancy of spirit.
 "I suffered for over a year," says Mrs. Williams, "with indigestion and nervous prostration. I was unable to eat or sleep. I tried several physicians, but they only helped me for a short time. A friend advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellagra' I commenced taking the medicine last May. Took three bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' three of the 'Medical Discovery' and three vials of the 'Pellagra' and am now feeling better than I have for two years. Have a good appetite, sleep well, and do not suffer from indigestion or nervousness. I have gained seven and a half pounds since taking these medicines. I have recommended Dr. Pierce's medicine to several ladies, one of whom is now taking it and is being greatly benefited."

Ashland seems to be getting hit hard lately in railroad matters. The closing of the big eating house there is now followed by loss of the nine express messengers who formerly made headquarters in that city, but have now been moved to Dunsmuir, California.
