HE "TOOK THE PAPER."

The case of the Westbrook, N Y, Globe-Star against Walter Graffam was decided in favor of the publishers, and Mr Graffam paid $9.00 judgment and costs for a bill for two years' subscription.

The publishers admitted that Graffam never ordered the paper. The facts were not disputed that when the Westbrook Globe bought in the Westbrook Star Graffam's name was on the Star list, but without his orders. The new management finding that the Star list contained names that had never subscribed, wrote to all the Star subscribers who had not paid, offering to stop the papers of all who did not expect to pay. Graffam did not answer this notice, but kept on taking the paper and then refused to pay on the ground that he never subscribed.

The plaintiffs argued that the general rule of law, that a man must pay for what he receives and uses, applies to newspapers as well as other things, and the courts sustained that view.

The Dalles Times-Mountaineer says editorially: "One has but to read the editorial columns of the Oregonian to discover that H W Scott has returned from his eastern trip. During his absence the editor pro tem filled the columns with all sorts of nonsensical rot, but they did not contain the bitter vituperation common to Scott—the inclination to pounce upon every man after he dies who does not exactly come up to the editor's ideal of virtue. Richard P Bland has died, and because he, advocated the free coinage of silver Scott calls him a demagogue and a charlatan, a cheap lawyer and a fraud. The bitterness that is shown in the eulogy upon Bland is characteristic of the writer, and might be very appropriate for use when he shall die."

India holds vast wealth in the precious metals in the shape of ornaments for personal adornment. Ear rings are very common and no inconsiderable amount of wealth is carried in the ears. But there are drawbacks to that style of adornment. News comes that rioters in Southern India would not take time to unfasten the ornaments, but cut off the ears of the wearers to obtain them more expeditiously.

The increase in the price of iron brought about by trusts and consolidations is causing the government trouble. Plans have been prepared for the building of six additional cruisers on the basis of former cost of iron. The trusts have advanced prices about twenty five per cent, and Uncle Sam will have to wait until his congress can meet the raise.

Great Britain is dealing very tenderly with the Boer question, partly from policy. The Boers are born guerilla fighters, and the vast stretches of uninhabited jungle covered country, lacking water and scorched by a fierce sun, make warfare with the acclimated natives a difficult problem. Under such conditions the burghers are likely to gain their contentions.

Labor unions are treating women very unfairly in Nebraska. They secured the passage of a law regulating the treatment of employes which bears onerously on female help and will discourage their employment.

The drummers are realizing perhaps more than any one else what the trusts mean to business. They will mean that a good many thousand of them will have to go out of business and seek other fields.

By the recent action of the imperial diet and the emperor all press law restrictions limiting the publishing, printing and editing of newspapers to Japanese subjects have been removed.

Brother Abner McKinley is said to be much sought after by persons hunting government contracts. "Ab" is one of the biggest contracts the administration has on its hands.

Roseburg Review: "Richard P Bland was a sufficiently good and great man to be abused after his death by the Oregonian.

A man must reap as he sows. If he sows ill-health he will reap ill-health. If he neglects his health the weeds of disease will grow up and choke it.

It is a daily and hourly marvel that men will recklessly neglect their health, when a moment's thought should tell them that they are courting death. It lies in most every man's power to live to a green old age. If a man would only take the same care of himself that he does of his horse, or cow, or dog, he would enjoy good health. When a man owns a hundred-dollar horse, and it gets sick, he does not waste any time about doctoring him up. When his garden gets full of weeds, he doesn't delay about rooting them out, for he knows they will choke out his vegetables. When he is out of sorts, sick, nervous, headachey, has no appetite and is restless and sleepless at night, he pays little attention to it. The result is consumption, nervous prostration or some serious blood or skin disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best of all medicines for hard working men. It gives edge to the appetite, facilitates the flow of digestive juices, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections, weak lungs, bleeding from lungs and kindred affections. Do not wait until the lungs are too far wasted to admit of being cured.

"As you know, five years ago the doctors had given me up to die with consumption," writes Mr. R. G. McKinney, of Deepwater, Fayette Co., W. Va. "I took treatment from Dr. R. V. Pierce, and am entirely well now. I had taken steadily, as directed, his 'Golden Medical Discovery.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a dose.
