THURSDAY - JULY 15

THE PRISONER OF THE VATICAN

Viewed from the human standpoint, nothing can be more joyous than the daily life of the Roman Pontiff at the present day. The era of magnificence, of piety for the Roman Court, has forever passed away.

—From an article on "Popo-Makers and Pope-Making" in Self Culture for July.

Roseburg Review: The trusts are putting up the price of their products day by day, to pay dividends upon their enormous stock, one-half of which is "watered," and does not represent a cent of actual investment.

Northwest-Pacific Farmer: It is said that "reliable growers" can now contract their hops, if they want to, at 12 cents a pound and better.

It may be sometime before the muster out takes place, as there must be an accounting of property and a settling of accounts with each company. Paymasters are very particular in the final settlements, as any mistake would mean a loss to them.

President McKinley recently gave Ambassador Cambon a beautiful loving cup for his friendly services in acting as go-between for the United States and Spain in winding up their late difficulties.

The cheerful news comes down the coast that there is "good fishing in the Frazer river," British Columbia.

It is a remarkable fact that, so far as reported, with all the fire-crackers, bombs, toy cannons, powder, etc., burned on the 4th of July not a single boy in all the United States paid the penalty with his life.

Not a single Alaska town decided for prohibition at the recent elections. The vote at Skagway taken on June 14th stood 460 for and 68 against.

"I saw Daisy Bright promenading with that horribly dissipated Paul Spitz the other evening. She made me think of Maude Muller."

—In life he was a hawk, A greedy bird of prey, A marble dove Is perched above His costly tomb today.

The Oregon boys were received with distinguished honors by our California brethren, with hardly less enthusiasm than our own people will welcome them home.

Two steamers arrived at Seattle from Alaska Wednesday with 250 returning miners. They were reported to have brought $850,000 in gold dust.

The little Dutch boy who stayed the leak in the dike with his finger saved his country from overwhelming destruction.

Equally insignificant is the entrance of disease into the human system. The beginnings of the most terrible ailments are so small they can be easily stopped at the start.
