"An Unconditional Surrender" will be produced for the first time in Eugene, Friday evening, Sept 23, under the direction of Catherine Celeste Coggswell. It is a high class comedy, and is sure to bring roars of laughter. Miss Coggswell will play the leading role, and will be supported by a number of Eugene's talented young amateurs.

The palate is almost tickled with Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver oil. The stomach knows nothing about it, it does not trouble you there. You feel it first in the strength it brings; it shows in the color of cheek and smoothing out of wrinkles.

It was a beautiful thing to do, to cover the odious taste of Cod-liver oil, evade the tax on the stomach, and take health by surprise. It warms, soothes, strengthens and invigorates.

JURY LIST

Men Who Will Try the Cases at the Next Term of Circuit Court.

TERM BEGINS OCTOBER 9.

The following is a list of the jurors drawn yesterday afternoon by County Clerk Lee and Sheriff Withers, F Wheeler, a citizen, being present, to serve as jurors at the term of circuit court to commence in Eugene, Monday, October 9th:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Occupation. Includes Charles Humphrey, farmer; J W Stone, farmer; E L Howe, farmer; R D Hawley, farmer; N P Chrisman, farmer; F T Campbell, farmer; J J Thomas, farmer; Thomas Gray, farmer; J H Inwall, farmer; J T Whitmore, farmer; M F Stafford, farmer; J Burnett, farmer; J B Young, farmer; J B Lewis, merchant; Wm Hemenway, merchant; R French, farmer; F E Hyland, farmer; G B Powell, farmer; R M Trout, farmer; A T Bonnett, farmer; J A Mahan, farmer; Ithos Barbe, farmer; James Farvin, farmer; David Link, merchant; O Green, laborer; William Mathers, farmer; J H Graham, farmer; James Firth, farmer; W D Wood, farmer; B F Moore, farmer; Volney Hemenway, farmer.

Still More Counterfeiting.

The Secret Service has unearthed another band of counterfeiters and secured a large quantity of bogus bills, which are so cleverly executed that the average person would never suspect them of being spurious. Things of great value are always selected by counterfeiters for imitation, notably the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which has many imitators but no equals for indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness and general debility. The Bitters sets things right in the stomach, and when the stomach is in good order it makes good blood and plenty of it. In this manner the Bitters get at the seat of strength and vitality, and restore vigor to the weak and debilitated. Beware of counterfeiters when buying.

AT HOME.—After five years of campaigning in the regular army Creed C Hammond is at home to enjoy a period of civilian life. Five years ago Mr Hammond enlisted in the regular army. When his discharge came, in San Francisco, the boys in his command wanted him to return with them, but he preferred the Pacific Coast, the land of his nativity. To show their esteem they presented him with a valuable gold watch, handsomely engraved. Creed was all through the Philippines campaign taking part in seventeen engagements.

IN A WELL.—A cow belonging to Geo Potter, at Wallerville, fell into an old well the other day, and the entire neighborhood was required to extricate her, which was done after considerable difficulty.

W. R. P. L.—The meeting Saturday afternoon will be held at the residence of Mrs A Yerington instead of with Mrs Scarborough as previously announced.

HARVEST-THANKSGIVING

Celebration by the Salvation Army.

The bugle call has sounded in the busy camps of the Salvationists, and lively preparations are being made in the army's 700 corps, stretching from coast to coast of the United States, to make the coming harvest celebration an unprecedented success. That time-honored custom, as old as Bible history itself, to assemble together at harvest time in order to give praise for the year of plenty, will be taken advantage of, and the Salvationists will strive to make it more a thanksgiving in practice than in sentiment. As the Israelites in the days of old in joyous procession brought their tithes into the storehouse, so everybody, rich and poor alike, will be asked to bring their gifts to the altar of praise, and thus, according to the dictates of their conscience offer thanksgiving to the Lord of the harvest. There is something in this idea that appeals to everybody, and as the Salvation Army, with characteristic up-to-dateness, has not confined its appeals to the products of the field only, but is open to receive any kind of contribution, everybody will have a chance to participate. The multifarious philanthropic enterprises of the Army make it possible for them to dispose of or utilize any imaginable class of goods, from musical instruments or live stock to articles of furniture or bank notes.

It is almost incredible what amounts have been raised in this way by the Army for benevolent purposes. The secret is no doubt the willingness of its workers, who give their services almost day and night gratuitously, as well as their splendid organization, which insures the maximum of profit with the minimum of cost. The enormous amount of good that has been accomplished during the past years by these toilers of the sea of misery entitles them to the most hearty support. The celebrations at the local corps will take place from September 30th to October 3rd, 1899, in the Salvation Army hall, corner 8th and Olive street, Eugene, Or.
