Is She a Fraud?

A gentleman of this city who is responsible contributes the following:

"A few weeks ago it was stated in the columns of the DAILY GUARD that a man and his wife, who lived in the vicinity of East Fourteenth street, appeared to make a living by soliciting articles from the merchants of our town, also anything they could beg from citizens generally, claiming that the articles thus donated would be given to those in need. It is said a large amount of clothing and provisions have been obtained in this manner, but it is said they are not disposed of except for cash, and at prices less than they can be bought in the stores."

"The man is said to be gone to Eastern Oregon, but the woman is said to carry a basketful home nearly every day. On yesterday she was seen on her way home almost loaded down with packages and bundles, which, judging from appearance, was very heavy."

"These people have no visible means of support, other than what is stated above, and have been doing this for years. Is there no law to abate the nuisance?"

Shoes! Shoes!!

Some genuine good bargains in fine shoes can be had by calling at Yoran's shoe store during their clearance sale.

UNIQUE RAZOR.—Marshall Stiles arrested some hobos today, one of whom carried a razor made from the blade of a caseknife, with a clumsy wooden handle. The hobo claimed to be able to do fairly good work with the razor in removing superfluous facial bursate adornment.

A Perfect Life Preserver.

After thousands of lives have been sacrificed, an apparatus is brought forward, and which, after having been tested, is pronounced perfect. It is impossible to sink it, it weighs only four pounds and contains food and water for five days. It resulted from a horrible shipwreck experienced by its inventor. No discovery of great benefit to humanity seems possible without great loss of life. Take Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as another instance.

Before its advent, 50 years ago, people died from dyspepsia. Weak stomachs and liver disease were terrors until Hostetter's Stomach Bitters proved its power to cure them. If your stomach bothers you, try it, and see that a private revenue stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

The New Year edition of the Salem Statesman is a credit to the publishers and that city. The statistical information is well arranged, concise and accurate, the large number of engravings from photographs excellent, and Salem and Marion county are well advertised in this creditable issue.

W R P L NOTICE.

A Merry Christmas.

Sumpter, Or, News: "It is estimated that the thirteen saloons of Sumpter took in $8,000 cash for drinks on Xmas day and night."

The town has 1500 inhabitants.

ARTISTIC CANE.—A fine piece of workmanship is on exhibition at Andy Taylor's barber shop. It contains a remarkable likeness of several famous naval officers and figures pertaining to the navy. It is quite beautiful.

NOTICE.—The members of the W. R. P. L. are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. D. B. Murray on Wednesday evening, Jan 3rd, at 7 o'clock. Business of importance to be discussed.

Nashville Students.

The Original Nashville Students will appear at The Parker, Jan 4, and their performance will undoubtedly be well attended. This famous company was organized in 1880, and has seen 18 years of continual success. The reason of this is that their manner of performance is original. They present the negro as he appears in church, camp meeting, and also the songs of the cabin home and of the plantation. The music is so weird, melodious and striking that it holds the audience spellbound to such an extent that it is generally difficult for the singers to leave the stage on account of the demand for repetition. The entire company will appear in a program complete with all the jubilee melodies, plantation, river and cabin songs. Secure seats at once at Corner Drug store.

W C T U Lectures.

Mrs. L. E. Bailey, of Prohibition Park, Staten Island, New York, will speak on the 'Home or Saloon, Which?' at the Christian church, Eugene, Friday and Saturday evenings, January 5 and 6.

Mrs. Bailey is an interesting speaker, presenting her subject in a most logical and interesting manner, thereby commanding large and attentive audiences wherever she goes. Come and hear her.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

A NEW RULE.—Beginning January 1st, the S. P. Co., put in force a rule that no passengers can be carried upon a freight train under any circumstances whatever, except those traveling on mileage tickets. This exception is made because these tickets contain a provision exonerating the company from all liability in case of accidents if the holder is riding upon a freight.

The company explains this new rule on the ground that they have been sued so frequently for injuries sustained while traveling upon freights that they cannot longer afford it.

SOME COMMENT.—Oregonian: At Eugene, a recently married man of 69 is suing his wife for restitution of property alleged to have been secured by fraud. He "had known her 25 years ago," and was "innocently entrapped" he says. The man who lacks but a year of three-score-and-ten, presents a solemnly ludicrous spectacle when he pleads his verandage and gullibility in the verbiage of legal redundancy.

AN ACCIDENT.—I. W. Young, a well known farmer who resides north of Eugene, just across the river, was horseback today leading a colt when it jerked and in some way caused Mr. Young to catch the little finger of his right hand in the saddle and cut it completely off just below the second joint. Dr. Brown dressed the wound this afternoon.

STILL AGROUND.—R. O. Brady, this morning at 9 o'clock, received the following telegram from Salem regarding the steamer City of Eugene: "Water will have to raise three feet before the boat will float."
