Funeral of Robert Clow.

The funeral of the late Robert Clow, of Junction will be held Sunday Jan 7 upon the arrival of the 2:08 daylight overland from the Eugene S. P. depot to the Masonic cemetery. It will be under the auspices of the grand lodge A. F. & A. M. of Oregon, the deceased being a past grand master. Following are the grand lodge officers:

J. M. Hodson, grand master; Henry B. Thibault, deputy grand master; Wm. E. Grace, senior grand warden; S. M. Yoran, junior warden; F. H. Alliston, grand treasurer; Jas. R. Robinson, grand secretary; J. R. N. Bell, grand chaplain; Thos. Gray, grand senior deacon; W. H. Flanagan, grand junior deacon; J. S. Morin, grand marshal; C. B. Winn, grand orator; P. O. Borg, grand steward; E. E. Hammack, grand treasurer; Peter Hume, grand standard bearer; Darwin Bristow, grand sword bearer; Gustav Wilson, grand tyler.

ADDITIONAL BIOGRAPHY.

In our hasty biography of the late Hon. Robert Clow, of Junction City, the following facts were unintentionally omitted:

"Mr. Clow was elected and served as grand master of the Oregon Masonic grand lodge during the years 1877-78. "At the time of his death he was a member of Eugene lodge, No. 357, B. P. O. Elks.

"He was a member of Dallas lodge, A. O. U. W.

"He was the Lane county member of the democratic state central committee."

THE MESSRS. HAMMOND SURPRISED.

Mrs. F. A. Rankin very successfully inaugurated a surprise party last evening in honor of her two sons, Creed and J. Gilmore Hammond. The evening was replete with amusements of various kinds, from the blindfolded contest in which F. A. Rankin scored first prize and Prof. Snapp the booby prize, to recitations and music. The luncheon was thoroughly enjoyed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Craig, Misses Emma Saltzman, Karoline Thompson, Ethel Kinsey, Jessie Livermore, Ione Zelgler, Rena Applegate, Ada Matthews, Messrs. Fred Fisk, R. L. Willoughby, Clive Cheshire, Prof. L. P. Snapp, H. A. Vincent, Otto Roberts.

LECTURE ON TEMPERANCE.

At the First Christian church last evening Mrs. L. E. Bailey, of Prohibition Park, New York, delivered an address on "The Home or Saloon, Which?" Mrs. Bailey is conceded to be one of the most entertaining lecturers in the temperance field today, and by reason of her long experience in this work is able to accurately state conditions. A large audience was in attendance and are enthusiastic over the address, and the prospects for the one to be delivered tonight, on "The Remedy." Mrs. J. H. McClung acted as chairman of the meeting and Revs. M. L. Rose and G. S. O. Humbert assisted in the services.

UNION VETERANS UNION.

The Union Veterans Union of this city installed officers last night as follows: Colonel, Frank Reinsner; Lieutenant-colonel, W. F. Martini; major, John Ingham; quartermaster, A. Verlington; officer of the day, J. A. Burlingame; chaplain, E. F. Chapman.

UPPER SIALAW LOGGING.—Williams and Creppin's logging camp at Mound, on the upper Sialaw, Frank Wallace foreman, are prepared to put in 250,000 feet of logs a month. They have a chute of a quarter of a mile in length which carries the logs to the end in ten seconds. Two good sawyers are at work at this camp.

COMFORTS.

Visible Free Gold.

Cottage Grove, Jan 5.—J. R. Jennings just returned from Bohemia, reports a very rich strike in the White Bear mine. Free gold can be seen in the rock quite easily by the unaided eye.

WILL EXPAND.—E. H. Ingham intends expanding his quarters becoming too small for his increasing trade. A contract was let today to F. B. Bellman by the owner, W. Sanders, whereby it is to be extended on the rear 20 feet. The present wall on the south will be torn away. This will give considerably more floor room. The work will be done at once.

REPUBLICAN CLUB.—A republican club was organized at Cottage Grove Thursday night and elected the following officers: President, C. J. Howard; vice-president, C. H. Burkholder; secretary, James Hemenway; treasurer, Darwin Bristow.

G. W. Griffin returned this afternoon from Cottage Grove.

HELP WANTED.—Experienced woman to do general housework. Inquire of F. L. Washburn.
