WHO HE IS?—The editor of the Pomeroy, Wash., Independent asserts that he was well acquainted with General Jan Joubert during our late war. He says the Boer general of today was then colonel of Louisiana regiment under Stonewall Jackson, and he got acquainted with him in Virginia. "Joubert went with General Loring and others to Egypt and fought in the army of the khedive, and then went to South Africa, Jackson often assigned him to a brigade when only a colonel, such was his confidence in him."

Can't Stand Cold

Many children can't stand cold weather. The sharp winds pierce them, and the keen air hurts them. They have cold after cold, lose flesh, and spring-time finds them thin and delicate.

Scott's Emulsion

THE THORNE CASE

Details of Affairs and Correction of Errors.

SOME STATEMENTS CLEARED UP.

The Roseburg Review, of Jan 12, gives the following details of the alleged assault on Miss Minnie Thorne, correcting some errors which seem to have been given generally:

"Miss Thorne says she was on her way to Latham from a temperance lecture at Cottage Grove, Sunday, the southbound freight train was just this side of Latham taking wood. Just before the train started two men caught and put her on a flat car, she not knowing what transpired till the train got nearly to Comstock, when she realized that she was in a box car and that a man, supposed to be U. Patterson, a brakeman, was with her. Later on, after he left her, another brakeman came into the car and gave her an overcoat, telling her that he could not take her into the caboose, because the conductor would 'get on to it.' When the train reached Roseburg late at night a brakeman put her into the caboose, telling her he would go and find a room for her, after which he went away, locking the door, and did not return. The girl does not accuse four men of assaulting her, and the rumors that Conductor Bicket and Brakeman Brown were implicated in any way are without a shadow of foundation, and whatever of a criminal nature occurred they had no knowledge of at all. As to Miss Thorne's character at Cottage Grove and Latham a thorough inquiry established it to have been without reproach or stain. The officers look with distrust only upon her statement that she was drugged."

OTHER DETAILS.
"On Monday forenoon about 11 o'clock, Car Inspector Thomas Patterson and another employe of the company went into the yards to repair a broken window in the caboose wherein Miss Thorne was confined as a prisoner. There they found the lonely, deserted girl, shivering with cold and fright, with her eyes swollen and red from crying. She would not tell her story, so Mr. Patterson told her she wished to get a place to work she might go and inquire at Mrs. Currie's boarding house. This she consented to do, but apparently misunderstood his directions, and asked at other houses for work in order to buy a ticket to Cottage Grove. Finally she came to the house of G. W. Kruse, at the corner of Jackson and Lane streets, and was given dinner there. She talked little of her circumstances, but finally told them that John Wiles, who lives near the Soldiers' Home, was her uncle. She was told how to go there, and walked most of the way. Mr. Wiles had never seen her, but received her kindly, but realizing she was in trouble and would not talk regarding it, brought her back to town. He also purchased her a ticket to Cottage Grove, telling her to go home and confide in her parents, and made arrangements at the Roseburg hotel to have her looked after and placed upon the train. The next heard about the case was the published reports emanating from Cottage Grove. Miss Thorne is about 15 years old."

DISTRICT ATTORNEY BROWN
Thoroughly investigated the case yesterday, and one result of his inquiries will be the arrest of Brakeman U. Patterson, if he can be located. Probably getting wind of coming trouble, he disappeared at Hudson Wednesday night, and the trainmen reported him left while off the train flagging, but as he failed to report either to the Roseburg or Portland railroad offices, his getting left was probably intentional. The following morning (Thursday) Constable Veatch, of Cottage Grove, went north along the road on the same train, hoping Patterson would rejoin his crew, but was disappointed. Officers kept the telephone and telegraph wires hot all day yesterday, but nothing was learned of his whereabouts. Patterson is 24 years old and resides in Albany."

Read This, Consumptives

"From the way my wife coughed for six months, I knew she had consumption. She showed it in her face, too, and her body wasted away to a mere skeleton. After she got down in bed the doctors couldn't do any good. I called in a physician, but they had nothing that would reach the trouble in her lungs. My wife's father came to see her one day, when she got very low. He lives in Cedar Lake, Wis., while we live in Rice Lake, Wis. He said he knew what was needed, and made me get a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. I went to Schmidt's, our local druggist, and got a bottle, and it helped her right away. She took eight boxes, and they put her back on her feet and made her as sound and well as any woman in town. She has taken on flesh again, she doesn't cough, and if any one who doesn't know the facts was to be told she was so near death with consumption, he wouldn't believe it. My wife does all her housework, and at night sleeps as soundly as you please. Her stomach no longer gives her any trouble at all. Maybe you doubt what I am telling. If so, I advise you to see J. N. Schmidt, the druggist who sold me Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. He'll tell you the same thing. He says Acker's English Remedy is wonderful in all throat and lung troubles; that it is sold on a guarantee to cure, or money returned, and he never yet had a bottle come back to his store, although he has sold hundreds of them. My name is Luther Bedell, Rice Lake, Wis."

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure, see, etc. and a bottle in United States and Canada. In England, see, etc. and a bottle in.
