High School Athletics

LORIS M JOHNSON.

Nothing has been said of high school athletics as yet. Soon after the opening of school this year a call for all students interested in athletics was made. At a mass meeting held in response to this call a committee was appointed by Temporary Chairman C. A. Pengra for the purpose of drawing up a constitution and by-laws. A few days later this committee reported, and upon the adoption of their report about 35 names were signed. Officers were then elected as follows:

General manager, Claud A. Pengra.
Assistant manager, Loris M. Johnson.
Secretary, Winnifred D. Smith.
Treasurer, Orva Gilstrap.

The matter of raising necessary funds was then taken up, and after a somewhat prolonged and trying discussion a committee was appointed to have complete control of the question. This committee met and decided that the club should conduct a cake fair. The GUARD courteously advertised free of charge. The Bourne Mercantile Company volunteered the use of their place of business, and thus saved the club more expense. The sale of cakes proceeded and the activity of three or four club members caused it to be a success. The net proceeds of the affair was found to be $20.25. A football game played soon after furnished $3.25 additional.

We will take advantage of this opportunity to inform the public as to that much lamented game. Many people upon that day seemed to think that the public schools had defeated the high school. Not so!

The high school first team was organized early in the season, and games were asked from the Portland high school, Albany College, Ashland schools and U. of O. second team. Financial doubts assailed the general manager in a manner so remorseless as to cause him to pale at the thought of assuming the uncertain expenses of games to be played in Eugene. The team enjoyed a short and troubled existence. It died a slow death by the slow stages of regard, enthusiasm, interest, indifference, expired hopes and disfavor. Internal difficulties perhaps had an important part in its death.

A second team was organized among entirely different material for the purpose of playing a few games with the public schools. An agreement was made that provided for a game between a team of picked players from both of the Eugene public schools and the high school second team. The public school team supposed of course they could swear in any of their friends or acquaintances outside of the public school, and so they did. The game was played. The high school kept their opponent's goal in danger until the last two minutes of the last half, when the public school saw a large hole in the opposing line, and those of them who were not engaged in pulling high school hair, or stamping upon some fallen player, rushed through to a touch-down. The game ended immediately after this casualty, with the score:

High school, second team..... 0
Public schools, friends, relatives, etc. 5

A new player remarked with a pensive expression, "Them was hard times." The Athletic Club was inactive for several weeks following, on account of not being able to rent a hall for gymnasium purposes. During the Christmas holidays Lane's hall, Eighth street, was rented, and since then handball, basket-ball, high-kicking, high jumping, broad jumping, pole vaulting, boxing, etc., have been installed.

One evening a party of high school students who desired to learn to play basket-ball, went to the University gymnasium upon invitation, and Professor Burden kindly instructed them in the objects and rules of the game. On the next evening at 8 o'clock a temporary team met the U. of O. freshmen team in a friendly practice game and was defeated by a score of 22 to 2. Both of the city dailies stated that this was the "regular yearly contest of the two clubs, and the score was that of last year reversed." This was the first basket-ball meet ever held between them and was not an official contest.

Arrangements are being planned and made for an interesting all-round athletic meet, embracing a basket-ball contest, a handball contest, and an indoor athletic tournament. The high school is hopeful of showing a different score in the next basket-ball meet. There is some good material in the club, and this year seems to offer better opportunity for its development than any preceding year has done.

At a recent meeting of the club it was decided to make Wednesdays and Saturdays of each week "girls' days" in the gymnasium. The girls have developed a good degree of skill at basket ball, and in the running high jump they have made a record that is quite remarkable.

Two of them hold a joint record high above the others. We herein thank the Bourne Mercantile Company, E. Schwarzschild and the DAILY GUARD for many favors extended about the time of our cake sale.

Preparations are being made for presenting a play to the public. Watch for announcements in the Eugene papers. The two objects of this play are to please the refined and fun-loving public, and to replenish the treasury. As yet all money has been earned by the club, save a contribution (unsolicited) from Deputy Sheriff Fred Fisk. Any donations will be gratefully received through C. A. Pengra or A. Orville Waller.

Loyalty to His Employer.

That young man who had a vein opened and a portion of his blood let out, so that it might save the life of his employer, set a remarkable example of heroism. The incident shows what power there is in good blood. As soon as the broken down system received the pure blood of this young fellow, the patient regained his strength. "The blood is the life." There is only one way to get good blood, and that is from the stomach. If it needs assistance, bring Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to the rescue This wonderful medicine aids it in its digestion of food, and furnishes the system with rich red blood. When this is done, health naturally follows.

Parties crossing there report the water not so high as it has been and the current not so swift, but still it is a dangerous ford.

"The Mill Cannot Grind with Water That's Past."

A fagged out, tearful little woman said this in telling her cares and weaknesses. Her friend encouraged by telling of a relative who was cured of just such troubles by Hood's Sarsaparilla. The little woman now has tears of joy, for she took Hood's, which put her blood in prime order, and she lives on the strength of the present instead of worrying about that of the past.

Told Her Friend—"After having goitre on my neck 42 years Hood's Sarsaparilla completely cured me. I was so glad I told friends about it and a lady in Wisconsin who read of my cure told me she also took Hood's for the same trouble and was cured. She thanked me." Weekly Guard Circulation.

At no time in the history of the WEEKLY GUARD has it shown such a steady and rapid increase of the subscription list as at present. While checking up today for corrections of our mailing list we made a count of new subscriptions added since Nov. 9, 1899, that date being selected because a new memorandum book of "starts" and "stops" of weekly subscriptions was commenced at that time.

During those sixty-two days 97 new names were added to the WEEKLY GUARD subscription list, and 44 names were discontinued, a net gain of 53 subscriptions. Apart from the Oregonian we do not believe any weekly paper published in Oregon can show so healthy a subscription business.

In this connection we may state that the GUARD promptly stops subscriptions at the date of expiration when so ordered.
