BIG FIRE

Standard Oil Company Portland Plant

Loss $150,000, Not Insured

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 23.—The ware, house of the Standard Oil Company is now in flames. The fire started at noon. It is now under control. The loss is about $150,000, not covered by insurance. At noon while workmen were eating in a small building near the warehouse smoke was seen rolling out. Before the location of the fire could be ascertained the building was full of smoke. The origin is unknown but a representative of the company intimates incendiary. Nearly every fire engine in the city is at the scene. Firemen are showing great bravery for it is like standing on a powder magazine.

The warehouse was full of oils, candles and other products of petroleum The building and stock is valued at $150,000 approximately and is a total loss. There is 1,500,000 gallons of oil stored at the plant, but most of this was in tanks. Every effort was made to prevent the tanks from exploding, but these would have proved ineffective had it not been for the wind.

At one time the wind blowed directly at the tanks and for a while it looked as if nothing would save them. Should the tanks explode there will still be danger that the burning oil will rush down to the river, endangering the shipping, although the fire is practically under control, a stiff breeze from the north or east will result in terrible loss. The loss may run up to half a million. Thousands are viewing the scene. The S. P. train from the south was late and run through the flames.

The Tar room in Wolff & Zwickers caught fire this morning, threatening plane; slight damage.

Oregonian: "A. C. Woodcock, of Eugene, has strong following, and his friends are urging him to enter the lists as Lane county's candidate for congress."

Ed Helm, of Jacksonville, who has had trouble with a broken leg for several months, necessitating the attention of a surgeon several times, is now improving nicely, and in a letter to Eugene friends, states he expects to lay aside his crutches in a short time.

The heavy wind storm which prevailed last night about 6 o'clock did some damage in blowing down fences, although we heard of no person being moved over into the next township, as is frequently the case in Kansas windstorms. But, then, that is one of the many beauties of living in Oregon—one always knows where home is.

BRYAN IN NEW YORK

Talked on Silver, Trusts and Imperialism.

A REPRESENTATIVE GATHERING.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—William J. Bryan arrived in Jersey City from Washington early today. He was met by James Oliver, of the democratic committee. Later Bryan went to the Hoffman house, where were gathered State Senator McCarren, John B. Sanchfield and Chairman Campbell, of the state democratic committee. These and others, making 350 in all, will help O. H P. Belmont entertain Bryan at a dinner at Belmont's home tonight.

In speaking of the Belmont dinner tonight, Mr. Bryan said:

"I understand that it is merely an informal dinner, and I do not intend to speak there."

Mr. Bryan was asked, in view of the contradictory statements recently in regard to his policy, where he stood. He replied:

"I stand on the same lines. I am not abandoning any platform or any principle. I shall talk on silver, the trusts and imperialism."

"You place the silver first?" was suggested.

"I make no special order. Any one of them is enough to kill the republican party."

Mr. Bryan was asked what the prospects for democratic success are. He said: "I think they are good. The right is bound to win in the end.'

State Poultry Show.

Special to the GUARD.

ALBANY, Oregon, Jan. 23.—The state poultry show has opened with a good attendance and over three hundred more entries than last year. Great interest is being taken in it both by Albany people and outsiders. Mr. Hitchcock, of Denver, Colorado, is judging the birds with general satisfaction.

Special Legislative Session.

Special to the GUARD.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 23.—Gov. Gage has made a statement to the press today that he will soon issue a call for a special session of the legislature to consider various matters of importance to the state.

FOR A MINING EXCHANGE—Today's Portland Oregonian: "A number of mining men now in Portland from Baker City, Sumpter, Bohemia and Southern Oregon have concluded that the way to start a mining exchange in Portland is to start it, and the preliminaries now being arranged will crystallize into something tangible within the next three days, according to P. J. Jennings, a well-known mine operator of Lane county. Mr. Jennings says the exchange will have 15 practical mine operators at its back as a starter, and as these men all stand well with the mining community, there is no question as to its speedy success."

TONIGHT.

Fifty popular performers, minstrel, vaudeville, comic opera and farce comedy make up the roster of Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels that will appear at The Parker opera house Tuesday, Jan. 23.

The press pronounce this one of the largest and best companies in this favorite line of amusement. The acts are all strong and the programme is varied and mighty attractive, no surfeit of any one feature. While retaining all the old-time minstrel pleasures of the good old days "Foh De Wah," it has added bright up-to-date novelty acts that include a troupe of wonderful tumbling and acrobatic Arabs, trick bicyclists, comedians, singers, dancers, wire walkers, and the Alabama Quartette, and numerous other big features. The street parade at 2:30 p. m. will include two big military bands.

Seats now selling at Corner Drug store.

ELKS SOCIAL.

Tonight, Tuesday Jan 23rd a social by the Elks and their friends will be held in their hall from 9 o'clock to 12 o'clock p m. All Elks sojourning in the city invited to be present. Richards & Pringles minstrels will be there after the show. Come out and have a pleasant evening. Refreshments.

The "Squaring of the Circle."

For over 2000 years competent and incompetent minds have striven to solve the problem known as "squaring the circle." So many incorrect answers were presented that in the year 1775 a resolution was adopted by a prominent board not to accept any more. There is another problem as difficult, and for which people have been seeking the answer since the beginning of life, and this is the problem of health—how to get it and how to keep it. If you have lost yours through neglect or abuse of the stomach get Hostetter's Stomach Bitters instantly. It will restore health, and keep you healthy. For 50 years it has cured constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, fever and ague, malaria, inactive liver and weak kidneys.

THE MOHAWK CASE

Lewis Was Not Dangerously Wounded.

ARNEL ARRESTED.

Dr. W. L. Cheshire arrived home this afternoon from Mohawk, where he was called to attend Alec Lewis, who was stabbed yesterday by Marcellus Arnel, in a fight resulting from some past trouble. Dr. Cheshire reports Mr. Arnel's condition quite bad, but the wounds are not considered dangerous. On the right shoulder is a cut six inches long, on the left arm across the elbow is a cut four inches long, and in the back, on the left side, is a stab between two ribs which fortunately failed to reach any vital part. Mr. Lewis is now resting easily and will get along all right.

Sheriff Withers arrived yesterday with Mr. Arnel and the examination will be held before Justice Wintermeier. The advance stories about the trouble differ somewhat, Arnel claiming he did the cutting in self defense and Lewis claiming that he was attacked by Arnel and his father. As only the three were present, the examination may not result in much satisfaction in clearing the matter up. The fight evidently resulted from trouble over a beef contract held by Arnel with the Boot—Kelly Co.

EXAMINATION POSTPONED.

By consent of both sides of the case, the examination of M. J. Arnel, charged with assault upon Alex Lewis, has been postponed until February 20. Arnel filed a bond for his appearance in the sum of $500 with Joel Ware and John Gray as sureties.

REVOLTING CHARGE.

J. H. Martin Is Arrested Charged With Indecent Exposure.

J. H. Martin was placed under arrest today charged with the crime of indecent exposure, committed in this city about three months ago. The crime is alleged to have been committed on Eleventh street in the presence of some little girls, and while the officers were notified at the time, this is the first time they have been able to find the man. Martin says he is working on the Mohawk railroad, and claims to be able to prove an alibi. His preliminary examination will be held before Justice Wintermeier.

TESTIMONIALS.

MRS. MEEKE Reading at the Presbyterian Church Tomorrow (Tuesday) Evening.

Mrs. Meeke held the enthusiastic attention of her audience to the very close of a long program. Her entertainment, in my opinion, was one of the most satisfactory and profitable ever given before the Seattle High School. EDWIN TWITMYER, Principal Seattle High School.

I believe Mrs. Meeke to be the best artist in her line I have heard on the coast. R. W KING, Pastor Baptist Church, McMinnville, Oregon.

The entertainment was in good taste, and Mrs. Keeke showed unusual talent and culture. REV. RANDALL, Pastor First M. E. Church, Seattle.

ARTICLES LOCATED.—The [illegible] found back of Hall & Son's store morning after the attempted burglary of F. E. Dunn's store, by the two captured by Nightwatch Crosthwaite about to find an owner. Chief Police J S. Stiles has received a letter from the police officers of Medford stating that guns of that description had been stolen from a second hand store in that city. In due time they will be identified, and if this proves to be the case, they will be returned to the owner.

POULTRY SHOW.—The State Poultry Show is on in Albany, with 700 exhibitions. Lane county has exhibits by George Fisher of Eugene; Cushman & Keeney, Goshen; Wheeler Bros, Pleasant Hill; Amos Wilkins, Coburg.

TWO NEW COTTAGES.—W Sanders has determined upon building two cottages on the old Lynch property in this city, on corner of Olive and Tenth streets early in the spring, for rental purposes.
