DR. WELCH'S OPINION.

Disease Prevalent in Many States, but Not Violent.

In a dozen or more states a disease has for many months been epidemic, called by some smallpox, and by many chicken-pox. Cases have appeared in almost every town on the coast.

CITY COUNCIL.

He takes the ground that the present disease now going the rounds of many of the Northern states has its source in the very mild epidemic of smallpox that prevailed in the South two or three years ago.

He takes the ground that the present disease now going the rounds of many of the Northern states has its source in the very mild epidemic of smallpox that prevailed in the South two or three years ago.

The disease followed much the same course in the Northern states, physicians often falling into the error of diagnosing it as chicken-pox, and considering the unprecented mildness of the disease, Dr. Welch says he is not at all surprised at the disagreements in diagnosis.

After a study of 29 years in hospital work covering 5,500 cases, he says he has never seen cases of uniformly so mild a type, nor can he find a similar epidemic in this or any other country.

Previous to November 1 of last year he had 128 cases, without a single death. In the smallpox epidemic of 1894, in Philadelphia, the mortality was .18 in the unvaccinated and there was an average of 58 per cent in all other epidemics in the city back to 1870.

The average death rate during the eighteenth century was about 40 per cent. The mortality from the present epidemic he declares is practically nil. Why the disease should present itself in such an unprecedented mild form is a question that he will not undertake to answer, but there can be no doubt of its being genuine smallpox, Dr. Welch avers.

Dr. Welch is accounted most eminent among the medical profession and his views carry great weight.

Pictures of Electricity.

The photography of lightning is science's latest achievement. These are called "electrographs," and are considered of great value in the future knowledge of electricity.

It is well known that a person struck by lightning bears an impression resembling a tree. The electrograph has proved that this is because lightning itself has a tree-like shape which always leaves a vivid impression wherever it strikes.

In this respect it is similar to the famous medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which also leaves its impression—that of health—upon every one who uses it. This great specific is for the stomach ills, such as dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, malaria, kidney trouble, and all ailments which arise from impaired digestion. It will not offend the weakest stomach.

St. Valentine's Day.

The Portland Telegram calls attention to the gradual change that has taken place for the past few years in the manner of St. Valentine's day remembrances. It says:

"Wednesday is St. Valentine's day. Many stores have windows full of cards and monstrosities which are politely called 'comics.' The practice of sending valentines is rapidly ceasing, at least so far as sending cards is concerned. Boxes of candy are considered more appropriate, and the donor usually places his name on the package in order that the recipient will not give the credit to some one else. So much trouble has been caused by the so-called comics that they are gradually being tabooed.

The Oregon Weekly.

Students of the U O have started a new paper called The Oregon Weekly, devoted to the interests of the school.

It will in no way conflict with the U O Monthly, which is a purely literary publication. The Weekly will give these matters of importance occurring around the school, and will be in every sense a newspaper.

The students having active control of the new paper are: Editor-in-chief, C. N. McArthur, '01; Associate Editors E. N. Blythe, '03; Grace I. Wold, '01. Managing Editor, L. E. Hooker, '03. Associate Managing Editors, C. E. Sanders, '02; Susie Bannard, '01. Special reporters; Lella Straub, '01; W. L. Whittlesey, '01; Cole E. Stanton, '01; John J. Handsaker, '01; M. M. Scarbrough, '03. Executive Committee, M. L. Applegate, '00; Sybil E. Kaykendall, '03, and Clarence M. Bishop, '02.

In his salutatory Editor McArthur says: The University of Oregon is moving; it is moving in the right direction. Under the new regime the institution has taken a new lease of life, and its students, faculty, alumni and friends are now striving to make Oregon's State University what it should be. The Oregon Weekly is one of the new student enterprises that has come to stay, and we sincerely hope that it will do its part toward the advancement of the University's interests.

Through these columns we shall endeavor to keep the students informed as to what is happening around them and to point out every possible avenue of advancement. We hope to bring the alumni and former students into close touch with all college affairs and to inform the friends and patrons of the University concerning its workings and the influences that are surrounding their sons and daughters who are in attendance here.

Who is a Citizen.

EUGENE, Feb. 13, 1900. TO THE EDITOR:—In your issue of yesterday you say, in effect, that two young women were being mentioned in connection with the republican nomination for superintendent of schools for Lane county, but owing to a recent decision of the Oregon supreme court (State ex. rel. vs. Stevens) a woman cannot hold an office " " " the court holding that a woman is not a citizen.

It is true that the court did hold, under Art. 6 sec. 8 and Art. 2 sec. 2 of the constitution of Oregon that women are ineligible to the office of superintendent of schools, for the reason that that office at the time of the adoption of the constitution was a constitutional office and that under article 2 section 2 supra. only male citizens are eligible to county offices.

To have held that a woman was not a citizen would have been utterly absurd and made the court ridiculous in the eyes of the whole world. No court in this country ever pronounced any such judgment, no text writer ever suggested a proposition so contrary to all sense of reason.

A citizen is defined to be, "any native-born or naturalized person of either sex, who is entitled to full protection in the exercise and enjoyment of the so-called private rights." 3 Am and Eng Ency of Law, 242

Respectfully, E. R. SKIPWORTH.
