SOCIAL.

DANCING PARTY.

The last dance of the series given by
E. R. Davis will be held at Armory Hall Friday evening, March 30, and the invitations are being issued. Mr.
Davis has been uniformly successful in the conduct of his school during the past two years, and this party promises to be one of the pleasant affairs of the season. Geo. H. Yerington's new orchestra will furnish the music, being heard in public for the first time at this event. Its personnel is as follows:
G. H. Yerington, director, clarinet; Andrew Svarverud, 1st violin; Will Gross, 2nd violin; Frank McAllister, cornet; W. W. Brown, flute; Earl Church, cello; Alf Dillard, trombone, Daisy Dillard, piano; Kenneth Miller, bass viol; Paul Costel, trap drums.

To the Bicyclist.

A good bicycle $10. Fine Ku-Klux bicycles, finer Barker bicycles. One Imperial bicycle $6.50. All kinds of bicycle sundries at low prices, also all kinds of bicycle repairing. Don't pay list prices for bicycles, as everybody is cutting the prices from $5 to $10. We will meet the cut and then we will do better than anyone. Before you buy call on us. We will save you money.
Remember the place.

JUNCTION BULLETIN: W. N. Gibbs and J. Beninger, of Lake Creek, who were drawn as jurors, came in Sunday and took the train for Eugene. They ought to make good jurors because they informed us that they had not seen a paper for some time, and did not know what was going on.

MACRUM AFFAIR.

House Committee on Foreign Affairs Will Investigate.

AFRICAN NEWS AT A DISCOUNT.

MACRUM'S CHARGES.

Special to the Guard.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The house committee on foreign affairs will investigate the charges made by Hon.
Charles E. Macrum, late consul at Pretoria, that the British officials at Durban opened his official mail. The rebuffs of the administration received by Macrum will not down the matter, and it may assume proportions of sufficient importance to be turned over to the diplomatic corps for adjustment.

ANTI-McBRIDE SLATE WINS

Special to the Guard.

SALEM, March 24.—The anti-Mc-Bride slate in the city republican primaries won today with practically no opposition.

DEWEY IMPROVING.

Special to the Guard.

SAVANNAH, March 21.—Admiral here for a few days, and is indisposed, is reported today as improving.

BOERS HOLD THE NORTH.

Special to the Guard.

LONDON, March 21.—Lord Roberts informs the war department that the Boers concentrated at Allwal and a few points north continue to hold their position, which is made tenable by reason of no advance by the British.

OSMAN PASHA.

Special to the Guard.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 21.—Osman Pasha, the hero of Plevna, noted as the famous Turkish fighting general, is dead.

(During the Russian campaign of 1877 Osman Pasha, who finally surrendered Dec. 10, in 142 days caused the Russians to lose 40,000 men while he suffered a loss of 30,000 himself.
Osman contested against 75,000 infantry and 60,000 cavalry, and displayed the greatest bravery and gener-alism.)

Municipal Election.

BRYAN MEETING.

Committees Appointed to Raise Funds and Make Ar- rangements.

ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING.

A goodly number of citizens met in the county court room last evening pursuant to call.

On motion Judge Walton was elected chairman and L L Campbell secretary.
Judge Walton stated the object of the meeting was to procure the presence of Wm. J. Bryan on April 5 to address the people of Lane county. He stated that Mr. Bryan was the foremost American citizen today.

I. L. Campbell read letters from Chairman Sheridan, Judge O'Day and Hon. M. A. Miller, saying that Mr.
Bryan would speak in Eugene on April 5 at 11 a m, provided a special train was procured to bring him from Portland to Eugene. It had also been learned that the train would cost $193.80. Additional expenses of the occasion would require $25 to $50 more.

On motion of Hon. L. Bilyeu it was unanimously voted to make all necessary arrangements to procure the speaker on that date.

On motion a committee of six on finance was appointed, consisting of L. Bilyeu, I. E. Stevens, I. L. Campbell, L. L. Stevens, F. M. Wilkins and Fred Fisk.

On motion the following reception and arrangements committee was appointed: E. R. Skipworth, F. M.
Wilkins, J. C. Richardson, George B.
Dorris, J. J. Walton, Thomas Brown and L. H. Patterson.

It was moved that the above committees have power to appoint all subcommittees necessary.

The meeting was an enthusiastic one and we predict that Eugene will witness the largest crowd in her history on April 5th.

CONTUMPTIBLE REPORT.

Today's Register contains a contemptible report of the meeting, written by the senior editor himself.
A newspaper should give a fair report of such a gathering, even of the opposition. The Register editor, who supported Mr. Bryan for the presidency, should be above such work.

NOTICE.

All persons desiring to make donations can leave the same or send it to the GUARD, and the money will be acknowledged and turned over to the proper committee.
