WEATHER BUREAU.

(Daily Report.)

PORTLAND, OREGON, March 21, 1900—9:30 a m.

Weather forecast for Eugene, Oregon:

Tonight and Wednesday: Fair; Thursday: Fair and warmer.

WEDNESDAY - - MARCH 21

Do not forget that before you can cast a vote at the coming state and presidential elections your name must be on the register. The time is now on to have your name put there. If not registered before May 15 you cannot vote. You can register before any notary public or justice of the peace free of cost, or at the courthouse in the county clerk's office. Do not neglect to register.

THE INCOME TAX.

Hon. W. J. Bryan in his Baton Rouge speech defended the income tax and declared it to be the most just of all taxes. He advocated an amendment to the constitution specifically authorizing an income tax, saying at present the government can draft a citizen, but cannot draft the pocketbook.

In the hour of peril the government can take the son from the mother, the husband from the wife and the father from the child. It can stand them up before the enemy's guns, but in the hour of danger it cannot lay its hand upon accumulated wealth and make that wealth bear its share of the expense of government.

SOME SENATORIAL OPINIONS ABOUT SILVER.

Senator Wm. E. Chandler, Republican, of New Hampshire, in debate on the currency bill:

Why not, then, now renew efforts in the name of the United States for bimetallism? Why undertake by the first ten lines of this bill to strike one more blow at remonetization and falsify all the pledges which the Republican party and its leaders have been making in all these past years. If these ten lines, without adequate qualification, become the law of the land, senators will be sufficiently reminded of their pledges before the next presidential canvass closes.

Senator Turner, Populist, Washington:

With the immediate past behind them, and its lessons graven on their minds, with the prospective future before them, and its consequences so clearly pointed out, to assume that the silver question is dead so long as the masses of our people have votes to give, is to say that they do not deserve to be free, and they ought to be slaves.

Occasionally a newspaper has the opportunity of correcting a mistake in the same issue in which it is made. The Salem Journal has an instance. A "want" ad appeared on the third page of that paper requesting that "when having your spring shirts made you go to Madam Von Tobel." Luckily the mistake was discovered in time for the editor to apologize for the same on the first page, which went to press later, else a mad woman might have caused unpleasantness about that office. "Spring skirts" are the articles Madam Von Tobel deals in.

The editor of the Salem Journal should have been a good football player in the days of his youth when they kicked football instead of carrying it about in arms. He is a good kicker, even with added weight of years upon him. Witness:

The process of substituting football for a knowledge of English literature in our colleges goes bravely forward. Ra-ra-ra, ya-ya-ya!

German capital is largely interested in the Johannesburg gold mines and Boer threats of wrecking the mines if compelled to evacuate Johannesburg naturally cause no little uneasiness among German stockholders. The German government is much concerned and will probably ask the United States to join intercession to prevent such wanton destruction of immensely valuable property.

The people of Lane county who voted together for Bryan in 1896 will vote together this year for their choice of officials from president to constable. There is a genuine sympathetic union of the silver anti-trust forces that bodes no good for gold standard-trust McKinleyism.

An Editor's Life Saved By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state.—R. An Opinion About Florence.

Florence West, March 16.

Harry Andression, of Portland, who has spent about three weeks on the Siuslaw, during which he superintended the work of taking the steamer Maggie off the beach, is much pleased with Florence and its prospects, and thinks the place is certain to make rapid advancement.

He desires to thank the Umpqua life saving crew for the efficient assistance they gave him in this work. He also speaks very highly of the courteous treatment he has received from the people of Florence and of their willingness to render him assistance. He leaves for Portland on the Robarts to get material to repair the Maggie.
