WEATHER BUREAU.
 (Daily Report.)
 PORTLAND, OREGON, March 30 1900-2:30 a.m.
 Weather forecast for Eugene, Oregon:
 Tonight and Saturday: Occasional rain.

FRIDAY - - MARCH 30

Do not forget that before you can cast a vote at the coming state and presidential elections your name must be on the register. The time is now on to have your name put there. If not registered before May 15 you cannot vote. You can register before any notary public or justice of the peace free of cost, or at the courthouse in the county clerk's office. Do not neglect to register.

PUBLISHERS OBJECT TO A TRUST ROBBERY.

The American Newspaper Publisher's Association held a meeting in New York, recently, and resolved against the paper trust. On one question, at least, the publishers of the country are united. They object to being robbed by a tariff protected, organized trust.

After stating that "the price of printing paper used by newspapers in the United States has been arbitrarily increased in price from 60 to 100 per cent, without reason or warrant to be found in the conditions of the industry itself, and that it is the common belief that this increase is due to the workings of a trust," the Association, "representing not only its own members but 22,000 newspapers of the United States," petitions congress to make inquiry into trust methods in view that adequate legislation may be provided to meet the new conditions. The publishers give this exact statement as to the position in which they are caught by the "prosperity" trust:

The newspaper, it is fair to state, unlike most other forms of industry, sells at a fixed price, and has no means of putting the increased cost on to the consumer. In many instances it means the complete confiscation of profits, and in many others creates actual loss.

A CHEERFUL LIAR.

Portland Telegram, March 28: Comparatively slight interest is reported in Bryan's projected visits to towns of this state and Washington.

The very day the above item was published in the Telegram, under the head of "brief dispatches," Bryan spoke at Albany. Here is the report of the Albany Democrat in regard to the crowd:

An immense crowd was present to greet him, people coming from all parts of the county regardless of the muddy roads, and as well from the adjoining towns on the lines of the different roads, a big train load coming from Lebanon, quite a number last night from the front, and a packed train this forenoon from the Bay.

At 10 o'clock, headed by the band, Mr. Bryan was taken to a platform on the west side of the courthouse with a long procession of people in charge of Col. Montague as marshal of the day, where he spoke to an audience of at least seven thousand people. The half block and adjoining streets were covered. A gentleman familiar with large crowds puts the number at between seven and ten thousand people.

The Albany Herald, Republican, devoted half a column to a very fair report of the speech, but made no figures on the crowd, neither did it call those made by its evening contemporary, published beforehand, in question.

HOIST BY ITS OWN PETARD.

Eugene Register: Coos county, a populist county if we are rightly informed, has a 28 mill levy, or 44 mills higher levy than Lane.

Roseburg Review: Coos has had a republican administration for two years past.

The Register may be pleased with the reflection that poor little Curry county, away off in the Coast mountains, with expensive roads and bridges, and little taxable property, has a thirty-seven mill tax to meet. But we fail to see how that fact eases the taxpayers of this prosperous and wealthy county in their enforced payment of twenty-three and one-half mills, with the prospect of high taxation for several years on account of a considerable debt.

Sunday will be April Fool's Day, and the small boy, in particular, will be in his element with the same old jokes, tricks and gags that were even when David did execution among the Philistines.

The Golf Girl

Is the type of the modern woman at her healthiest and best. She walks with an easy grace. She is a picture of perfect womanhood in the springtime of life. But generally the golf club is laid aside with marriage. A physical languor oppresses the once athletic girl. Exercise makes her back ache. She tires easily. Usually she accepts this condition as a natural thing, but it is unnatural. Marriage should add to woman's happiness, rather than subtract from it. If women understood how intimately the general health is related to the local health of the womanly organs, they would appreciate the fact that there is no need to suffer from weakness and backache. The use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong, sick women well. It regulates the periods, heals inflammation and ulceration, cures female weakness, and puts the body in a condition of sound health.

Mrs. A. A. Hubbard, of Auburn, Me., writes: "After five months of great suffering with female weakness I write for the benefit of other sufferers from the same affliction. I doctored with our family physician without any good results, so my husband urged me to try Dr. Pierce's medicine—which I did, with wonderful results. I am completely cured. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of his 'Pleasant Pellets,' and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pills.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its consequences.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences.
