YOUNGEST OREGON VOLUNTEER.
Claim Put in for Loris M. Johnson,
Son of Late President Johnson.
Eugene, Or., April 20.—(The Editor Oregonian)—In the Oregonian, it has been stated that Willis D. Sloan was the youngest enlisted man of the Second Oregon Volunteers. I think, however, that Loris M. Johnson, son of the late President J. Johnson, of the University of Oregon, can lay claim to that honor, as he is seven months younger, having been born August 16, 1882.

Need of Advertising.
The constant calls being made upon citizens, real estate men and newspapers for detailed and specific information regarding Lane county, its resources, its climate, its educational advantages, its lumber, its mines, its farms, and all else, brings forth the patent fact that we are sadly deficient in any up-to-date literature which will intelligently give all this information.

PLAYED OUT.
Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidence of impure blood. No matter how it became so, it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure Scrofulous or Syphilitic poisons, or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. For sale by W L DeLano.

EUGENE NEEDS ONE.—Albany Democrat: An effort just started to organize a social club in the city somewhat after that of the Illibbe Club, of Salem, is meeting with a good deal of encouragement and it is thought one will be started with a membership of at least seventy-five, at $20 initiation fee. No arrangements have yet been made for a place, but it will need a suite of rooms extensive enough for bowling alley, billiard table, etc. But no card room will be permitted, nor liquor. It is intended to make it of a high moral order. Some of the best men of the city have signed their names for it.

PORTLAND UNIVERSITY.—Portland Telegram, April 19: News has been received here that the New England Methodist Conference has appointed Rev. George Whitaker, D. D., President of the Portland University the past year, to the pastorate of Trinity church, of Cambridge, Mass. Dr. Whitaker will accept the tender and return to his former charge, which he left to come to Oregon. The University will close on May 31.

A Plain Answer.
EUGENE, Oregon, April 21, 1903.
HON. W. H. SPAULD, Heceta, Oregon.
DEAR SIR: Your esteemed favor of the 15th, inst., is before me and contents noted. I am very much obliged to you for the high terms in which you speak of me as a man and a citizen. Prater, such as you bestow upon me makes one feel, indeed like it was worth while for a man to live an honorable and upright life. To have the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens is an honor any man feels proud to possess.

Cold Steel or Death.
"There is but one small chance to save your life, and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs I B Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis, by her doctor, after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price, 50c, at DeLano's drug store.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.
KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va.
About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS. For sale by W. L. DeLano.

The Best in the World.
We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by W. L. DeLano.
