TAYLOR'S BUSINESS QUALIFICATIONS.

The Register comes to the defense of J. L. Taylor, Republican candidate for county commissioner.

It says:

J. L. Taylor, republican nominee for county commissioner, was the united choice of the western end of the county when the delegates from that portion came up to the convention, and his splendid qualification for the position made him the harmonious choice of the republican party of the county. He is a man of splendid judgment and excellent business qualities and as a firm believer in practical economy in county affairs is just the man to place in that responsible position. He will have the united support of his party, which should be equivalent to election.

The Register fails to mention what Mr. Taylor's "splendid qualification for the position" consist of. Most people believe that county commissioners should be selected from practical farmers who have made a success of their own affairs.

The Lane county tax rolls show that Mr. Taylor pays only thirty-six cents tax, and that is a special tax of one cent a head on thirty-six sheep. Of the $60,000, or thereabouts, that the taxpayers will contribute this year for county purposes Mr. Taylor will not contribute one cent. He will not pay one cent of tax of the twenty-three and one half mills levy which must be met by the taxpayers of Lane county to the extent of $149,011.41 for school, state and county purposes this year.

And yet the Register advocates the election of such a man to take a very responsible part in the disbursement of the $250,000 that will be required to defray county expenses during the next four years! J. R. Hill, Citizen's candidate for COUNTY COMMISSIONER, pays $113 tax.

THE STREET CORNER ORATOR

The man who stands on the street corner and abuses a newspaper because it has different opinions from his own reaches an audience of possibly a score of people. The newspaper goes into hundreds of homes and finds readers throughout the field in which it circulates. And the man that stands on the street corner and pours out his venom can say anything, however unjust, without fear of being called to a lawful accounting. With the newspaper it is different. A strict libel law has a place in our statutes, and the newspaper proprietor is not only liable for financial damage, but for criminal prosecution when he wrings a fellow man by untruthful and malicious statement.

When you hear the street corner orator prate remember the responsibility that attaches to his utterances and those of the newspaper he calls in question. Eugene has some impetuous orators of this class to whom the GUARD may feel compelled to devote special attention.

A chair bore the last message of Dr. Ricardo Ruiz, murdered by Spaniards in a Cuban prison, to his loved ones. The chair is in possession of the state department, and will be forwarded to the widow. The message was written in blood on the back of the chair by Dr. Ruiz with his finger nail. He wounded himself to secure the blood with which to write. Here is the pathetic message:

Mercedes, mine, Evangelina, Ricardo, goodbye. My children of my life, I give you my blessing. Be obedient to your mother. Good bye, Rita of my soul.

The passing of the once famous Columbia river sturgeon is brought to realization by a Portland paper making special report of the catch of one that was five feet long and weighed 51 pounds. It was not many years ago that Columbia river sturgeon were caught eight and ten feet long and weighing as high as 600 pounds.

The Prineville city marshal believes in and practices brevity. On the important dog tax question he simply announces: "I want your dog tax or your dog; and if you don't pay I will take your dog."

The Pen In the Hand is worth two in the Mind.

If you have "a good mind to write to Dr. Pierce" take pen in hand and begin. Then you'll avoid the experience of Mrs. M. P. Davis, of Honaker, Russell Co., Va. She writes:

"For seven years I was confined to bed most of the time. I had ulceration of internal organs and female weakness. I had four doctors and they said I could not be cured. After the doctors said I could not be cured I wrote to Doctor Pierce for advice. I followed the advice he gave. I feel better than I ever did. My friends say I do not look like the same woman. I am sorry I did not take Dr. Pierce's medicine when I first began to have poor health. I could have saved what I paid to humbugs."

No one ever regretted writing to Dr. Pierce for advice. Many have regretted not writing sooner.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free, and so obtain the opinion and advice of a specialist in diseases peculiar to women. All correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep their health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation and kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good looking charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

Chance for Bargains.

Mrs. Drew Griffin offers her household and kitchen furnishings for sale at bargain rates. Call and inspect the same at once at residence in money cottage, Jefferson street, between Sixth and Seventh. Mrs. Griffin will leave next week to join her husband at Sumpter, and she prefers selling low to shipping.

Volcanic Eruptions.

Are grand, but skin eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Arnica Salve cures them, also old, running and fever sores, ulcers, boils, feline, corns, warts, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, chapped hands, chilblains. Best place on earth. Drives out pains and aches. Only 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by W. L. DeLano, drugist.

Prune Trees for Sale

One hundred first-class selected Italian yielding prune trees for sale equivalent GUARD office.

No Cure, No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Groves Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills, Malaria and Biliousness. It is as pleasant to take as Lemon Syrup. 50 cents.

Experience is the best teacher. Use Ayer's English Remedy in any case of coughs, colds or croup. It should be used to give immediate relief money refunded, 25 cents and 50 cents. For sale by W. L. DeLano.

Mrs. Harriet Evans, Hinesdale, Ill., writes, "I never fail to relieve my children from croup at once by using One Minute Cough Cure. I would not feel safe without it." Quickly cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung diseases. Vincent & Co., Corner Drug Store.

Old Children

Many children look too old for their years. They go about with thin faces and sober manners not in keeping with robust childhood. If it's your boy or girl, give

Scott's Emulsion

'Twill fill out the hollow places, increase the weight, and bring a healthy color to the cheeks. The improvement continues long after they cease using the Emulsion. Get Scott's.

See and know all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Running Up a Big Dill

For doctor's fees wouldn't be necessary, when you are attacked with colds at this season of the year, if you would keep a bottle of our pure and high grade Cyrus Noble Whiskey in your home, and then take it in the form of toddy, or as your taste dictates, at bedtime or any other old time. There is nothing like it for colds, La Grippe or kindred ailments.
