COMPARISONS OF JOHNSON'S AND WITHERS' SHERIFF TERMS.

The comparison of Sheriff Withers' twenty-two months service in the sheriff's office with the two preceding years of ex-Sheriff Johnson's term brings some pertinent facts to public notice.

Sheriff Withers has done the criminal work of the county that his predecessor let fall to the constables because there was no money in it for the sheriff. He was on salary, and got just as much from the county whether or not he served criminal warrants. Withers has arrested forty men during his twenty-two month's holding of the office. During the preceding two years Mr. Johnson turned that class of work over to the constables, who charged up fees against the county. During the last two years of his term the arrests by the sheriff's office did not exceed a half dozen.

Withers has attended to that class of work so faithfully and promptly that the Eugene constable resigned the other day. It did not pay him to bother with it.

During the four years Mr. Johnson held the office twelve men were sent to the penitentiary from Lane county. During the past twenty-two months Sheriff Withers hung one man and took sixteen to the penitentiary. Ex-sheriffs will inform you that the service of criminal process is very expensive. In pursuit of criminals the officer cannot stand on expense. He must take any means of travel, or assistance, however expensive. Then he is often compelled to employ aid when away from his regular deputies, and this must be paid for.

Ex-Sheriff Johnson went out of office leaving a considerable amount of delinquent taxes uncollected. Sheriff Withers had the expenses involved in making levies and sale where his predecessor took office with a cleaned up roll.

No trip has been too hard, no service too arduous to deter Sheriff Withers in the performance of his duty. He has done much of the work that former sheriffs found it convenient to place on deputy shoulders.

A REPUBLICAN LAND DEAL.

In 1899 congress passed a bill to set aside certain lands in the State of Washington as a public park known as the Mt. Ranier National Park and provided that the Northern Pacific railroad company might relinquish the land granted to it within the public park to the government, and select in place of same, any non-mineral public lands in any state into which said railroad ran.

In accordance therewith, the Northern Pacific R. R. Co. relinquished thousands of acres of land within said park which was utterly worthless and without value, and not worth the taxes paid on them, and are now in this state gobbling up all the best timber lands we have. Nearly 200,000 acres have already been taken up by these "land grabbers" in the Oregon City and Roseburg districts, and the end is not in sight.

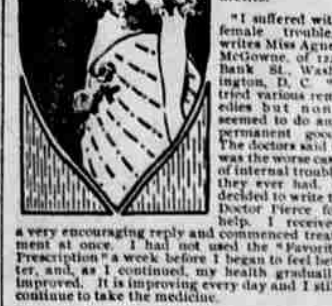

The N. P. R. Co. has less than 50 miles of road in Oregon. It has no interest whatever in building up the state, and yet it has been permitted by a Republican congress to come to our state and rob the people and home-seekers who would settle upon these lands and build up homes for themselves.

In a short time all the lands in this country will be in the hands of railroad corporations. The lands owned by them within the public parks are said to be without value and could not be sold by the company at any price, but by this act they are permitted acquire lands worth from $5 to $10 per acre. The railroad grants were bad in the beginning, but this last piece of Republican legislation is vicious in the extreme.

And to show the extremes to which these Republican legislators have gone in this bill, the company can select and get patents at once for these timber lands, whether surveyed or unsurveyed, a right which is denied a settler who is seeking to make a home for himself, and the further fact that no proof of these lands being non-mineral in character is required from the company.

A poor settler must establish the non-mineral character of his home by proof. The rich corporations can acquire land without any proof whatever. How long are the people of Oregon going to stand this treatment? Thomas H. Tongue and M. A. Mody are parties to this fraud. Will the people of Oregon sanction this? We think not.
