WEDNESDAY -- JUNE 3

EUGENE'S OPPORTUNITY.

Twenty-three pounds of gold, about $4500, from a fifteen days run of the Lucky Boy quartz mill should convince the most skeptical that the men who are developing mines in the Blue River district have good foundation for their hopes. Blue River is bound to develop into an important mining center.

Does Eugene desire to take advantage of the opportunity that her location affords? If so a united effort should be made for the improvement of the McKenzie wagon-road. There are a few miles of the road, in the aggregate, that is sadly in need of repairs, or rather rebuilding. Material is convenient, and the cost of making the road would represent a very small part of the benefit that would accrue to Lane county. Along the upper portions of the road mountains of shale almost against the road can be used for repairs at a minimum cost. It is Nature's crushed rock.

Now is the time to act. Let every business man in Eugene appoint himself a committee of one to interview the members of the newly elected commissioners' court and ask the aid that should be readily granted. Let that Hendricks' Ferry bridge await another season. Five thousand dollars, one-fourth of the probable cost of the bridge, will place the road in splendid condition. The bridge will cover but a few hundred feet over which a free ferry now takes travel with little, or no delay. From there to Blue River there are thirty-eight miles of road along which some very bad places exist. That thirty-eight miles of road is generally good, but those few miles of dug out mudholes give the road a bad name for across-the-mountain travel, and render the hauling of supplies and machinery more costly than it should be.

Repair the road. Have it done at once. It is for the great financial benefit of Eugene and Lane county.

WAS IT EXPECTED?

"Impressions" in Register June 6.

"A commendable feature of Salem Field Day was the gentlemanly way in which the Eugene collegians took the victory. There was not the least drunkenness or rowdyism in the whole University delegation."

The modern war is an expensive enterprise to the people who bear the burden of it. The Franco-German war cost $2,533,400,000; the Crimean war, $1,700,000,000; the Russo-Turkish war, $1,290,000,000; the Boer British war, $750,000,000; the Hispano-American war, $600,000; the Austro-Prussian war, $330,000,000; Turkish-Italian, $250,000,000. These are the seven great wars of recent times. These figures furnish a great plea for universal peace.

The vote on constitutional amendments will be very small with the probable exception of the woman suffrage amendment. That carried its explanation on the ticket while the others left the voter, who had not previously posted himself, in the dark. The legislature should provide for the mailing of copies of amendments to be voted upon to electors a few weeks previous to the election.

The practical working of the registration election law in Portland and other towns clearly demonstrated that it is better than a prohibition enactment for election day. Eugene was free from any abuse of the liquor habit, while in Portland only one arrest for drunkenness was noted. Under the old regime the Portland city jail usually was not half large enough.

One of the Prohibition candidates for representative, Stuart B Hanna, came out of the Eugene precincts with flying colors. While the other two candidates on his ticket received thirty-two and thirty-seven votes, respectively, Mr Hanna rolled up sixty-seven.

Pretoria has been occupied by the British, and the prisoners released. President Kruger is a fugitive without a capital or a country.

The Portland vote was almost twenty per cent short of registration. One man out of every five neglected to vote.

Discouraged

Men, who have suffered the tortures of dyspepsia, will find encouragement in the following letter. It points the way to certain cure, and almost certain cure. In ninety-nine cases out of every one hundred in which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is used the result is a perfect cure. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition, strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, and nourishes the nerves. It has cured hundreds of cases after all other medicines have utterly failed to give relief.

There is no alcohol contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics. "Your Golden Medical Discovery" has performed a wonderful cure," writes Mr. M. H. House, of Charleston, Franklin Co., Ark. "I had the worst case of dyspepsia, the doctors say, that they ever saw. After trying every doctor, I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and now I am cured."

Chronic dyspepsia may consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. Correspondence private. Address Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y. Free. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send at least one stamp for paper-covered book, or at stamps for cloth bound volume. Address as above.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved, and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by W. L. DeLano, druggist.

MUTILATED MONEY.

SAVE THE FRAGMENTS AND UNCLE SAM WILL REDEEM THEM.

Even the Ashes of Burned Bills Are Successfully Handled by His Experts—Skillful Work in the Treasury Redemption Bureau.

One of the most interesting departments in the United States treasury is that devoted to the redemption of mutilated currency. To it are sent all varieties of bills in every conceivable stage of mutilation. It is seldom that the experts cannot decipher the burned, crumpled or piece together the myriad fragments. The collection is a curious one, changing every day with kaleidoscopic rapidity.

The burning of a note usually brings out its design in a sort of metallic relief upon its surface, and by means of a glass and other implements and also a full and complete knowledge of the intricate designs, no two denominations being alike, on every note issued their face value is learned with incredible dexterity.

Some arrive in fairly good condition, some shrunken and water soaked, others scorched black and twisted out of shape; many are merely thin, tiny black flakes, and in one case now under consideration the evidence consists of a small handful of black powder, which the affiant swears was $35, accidentally blown into the fire.

Often the mischief has been done by mice, handfuls of the tiniest of pieces attesting the evil ways of the rodent. Babies are another source of trouble, maniacs, victims of drunken frenzy, plowshares, sawmills—in fact, the strangest and most unheard of accidents are occurring all the time. But in a great majority of cases the money has been burned, for a common practice among people who are their own bankers seems to be the keeping of their funds in unused stoves. A cold day comes, the fire is lighted by some unsuspecting person who "didn't know it was loaded," and the owner suddenly finds that he had money to burn in spite of himself.

In one instance a man having $7,000 in government bonds, besides notes and gold, kept them in a tomato can which he placed in the elbow of his parlor stove. While he was plowing his fields company arrived, his wife had a fire kindled, and shortly he made the unpleasant discovery that his riches had taken wings. Had he sent the money just as it came from the stove, wrapped in cotton, it might have been saved, but in endeavoring to separate it it became so charred and ground up that the department was able to identify only about $2,000 for him.

An old woman who had accumulated about $600 was one night at her devotions, when the candle in some mysterious manner was overturned in the midst of the money. Now, history does not relate why it was there or whether she was returning thanks or paying a bit of homage to Mammon, but at any rate it was destroyed, and as she threw the ashes away and at the instigation of her friends picked them out again there was only enough left to return about $100 to her.

But much more fortunate were an old couple in the west. The man had been a soldier, and by the long accumulation of years they had saved a little sum, when one day the wife in going to look at it found that the mice had left only a pile of carefully sawed fragments. Almost distracted, she took it to the bank, reporting that the last time she had counted it the sum had been $275, mostly in tens and twenties. It was sent here, the tiny bits sorted and arranged as only experts can arrange them, and the necessary three-fifths of every note was found. But the best of all was that instead of $275 it was discovered that the old people's savings amounted to $350, which amount was finally sent to them, much to their joy.

Of course the greatest precaution is necessary, and the affidavits must leave no doubt as to the utter and entire destruction of the missing parts of the notes. In one case of this kind a farmer sent from Kansas some greenbacks amounting to $50, only half of each note being intact. The rest, he declared in a strong affidavit, had been destroyed and also stated in what manner, but on consulting the books it was found that one-half the sum had already been paid to another person who had sent the other halves of the notes from another part of the country. Consequently but $25 was returned to him. Thereupon the cashier who had transacted the business for the farmer wrote such an indignant letter, saying the government had impugned the honesty of the claimant and that he would prove him in the right, that the affair was put into the hands of the secret service, the proofs exhibited and the imprudent farmer fined $1,000 for false swearing.—New York Tribune.

Christening Florida.

As to why Ponce de Leon gave the name Florida to the territory now known by that name, the Florida Farmer and Fruit Grower quotes from an old book published in 1703: "Gave it the name of Florida because it was first seen in Easter, because Pasqua de flores in the language of his country, or as Herrera alleges, because it was covered with flowers and the most beautiful blossoms." And The Farmer adds: "Those who have seen the Easter season in Florida and the wealth of flowers which still commemorate and adorn its return can well believe that both these reasons influenced the giving of its name."

Putting It Mildly.

Judge—Here, officer, this man says he was arrested for merely taking cold. Is that correct?

Officer—It is, your honor. He was stealing ice when I nabbed him.—Chicago News.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor said I had rheumatism. I continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends. F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by W. L. DeLano.

Which Way?

Are the children growing nicely? A little stronger each month? A trifle heavier? That's good. Or is one of them growing the other way? Growing weaker, growing thinner, growing paler?

If so, you should try Scott's Emulsion at once. 'Tis both a food and a medicine to all delicate children. It makes them grow in the right way—taller, stronger, healthier.

RUNNING UP A BIG BILL

For doctor's fees wouldn't be necessary, when you are attacked with colds at this season of the year, if you would keep a bottle of our pure and high grade Cough Syrup. Noble Whiskey in your home, and then take it in the form of a toddy, or as your favorite flavor, at bedtime or any other old time. There is nothing like it for colds, La Grippe or kindred ailments.
