EUROPEAN TRIP.

Dean Sanderson Leaves this Week for an Extended Visit.

Dean Sanderson leaves this week for an extended tour, leave of absence having been granted him by the Divinity School Regents for that purpose. He expects to visit England, Scotland, France, Switzerland, Italy, Egypt and the Holy Land. He will visit the educational centers of these lands, the Paris Exposition, the World's Christian Endeavor Convention and many well known points of interest. He goes for the purpose of better fitting himself for his work as a teacher and his course is highly to be commended. The five successful years work of the Divinity School gives promise of greater good than has yet been dreamed of, except by the most sanguine. The dean expects to return in time for the opening of school in the fall.

Log Cabin on Fire.

were present and assisted in putting the fire out, otherwise it is very probable the hotel would now be in ruins. George is very glad we had an election this year.
