An Epidemic of Whooping Cough.

The protracted meeting begun here last Sunday under the auspices of the Christian church is daily growing in interest. The school house has been filled with people each night.

Robin Wisdom.

A GUARD editor witnessed a bit of bird wisdom yesterday that was out of the ordinary, and showed reasoning capacity in the feathered songster. A long piece of heavy twine had been left on a piece of spaded ground, and the robin wanted it for a nestling.

The bird first tried to fly away with the string as it lay, but it was too long for it to handle.

Then the robin commenced at one end of the twine and picked it up with its bill in loops as even as you ever saw a human loop a lariat rope. Then it flew away with the treasure. It looked more like reason than instinct.

Thirty Rangers.

Salem Journal: Capt. B. B. Ormsby, of Forest Reserve, had received the confirmation of his list of the 30 rangers appointed. Pay begins as soon as he can take the oath of office.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. Lynch, Dorr, Va. This remedy is sold by W. L. DeLano.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends. E. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by W. L. DeLano.
