Died.

George Sovarna, one of Oregon's early pioneers passed away at his home in this city yesterday. He was a true man and the people acquainted with him mourn his sudden death. Mr.
Sovarna had been ailing a little for a week, but was down town Saturday attending to business. Yesterday morning at 5 o'clock he was taken sick and the family physician was immediately called. He was found to be suffering with neuralgia of the heart and at 11 o'clock had hemorrhage of the lungs. He grew worse continually until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when he passed away, from heart failure, at the age of 73 years.

He was born in Cohocton county, Ohio, December 4, 1826, and was the son of Jesse and Eliza Bailey Sovarna.
When he was five years old he was taken by his parents to Wabash county, Indiana, and five years later, he accompanied them to Tazewell county, Illinois, where he remained until 1852.
In the month of February of that year, with his father, mother, two brothers and two sisters, our subject and his wife and child set out from their home with ox-teams to cross the plains to Oregon. And now commenced a series of disasters under which the stoutest heart might have quailed. When a short distance to the west of Fort Hall Mr. Sovarna lost his child, and two weeks later, when fifteen miles west of Fort Boise, the mother followed the infant son; they both found lonely graves amid a deep solitude, far from kindly attention and with no one near to drop a loving tear upon the new-made mounds. But these misfortunes ended not here. On their journey down the Blue mountains Mr. Sovarna's mother, in jumping from her wagon, suffered the fracture of a limb, which, two weeks after arrival in Portland, caused her death. Thus in the journey to Oregon did this one family lose their loving relatives, and one, a wife, son and mother. On arrival in the state Mr. Sovarna, senior, took up a donation claim, situated three miles north from where Junction City now stands, at present the property of Mr. Orton, and there settled; while, in 1857, our subject purchased a homestead, near Junction City, and comprising four hundred and twelve acres. He is also owner of four hundred and eighty acres situated on the Coast Fork of the Willamette river. In 1879 Mr. Sovarna practically abandoned agricultural pursuits and leasing his two estates took up his residence in Eugene when he purchased the dwelling situated at the corner of Fifth and Olive streets. He married, firstly, in Taze-well county, Illinois, February 20, 1850, Miss Fannie Holton, whose death and that of her infant boy we have already noticed; and secondly, in Lane county, Oregon, May 26, 1866, Mrs.
Elizabeth Tyler, a native of Ohio, who, with her husband started for Oregon in the spring of 1864, but for some reason changed their minds and went to California. But she too, was doomed to misfortune, disease and death. Her husband, Hiram Tyler, after a brief sickness of only three days, died on Truckee river, Nevada.
She reached the Sacramento valley in October of that year, and as soon as circumstances would permit, made her way from San Francisco by water, to Oregon, where she married as above stated, and has three children, viz: Jesse Hulda (later Mrs. Thomas Cheesbrough, who died July 20, 1883), Fannie E. (now Mrs. A. L. Jackson), and a step-daughter, Adella J. Tyler, (now Mrs. B. E. Hyland).

Funeral services will be held at his late residence, corner of Fifth and Olive streets, Eugene, Wednesday afternoon, July 4th, at 2:30 o'clock.
Interment in I. O. O. F. cemetery.
Friends of the family respectfully invited to attend.

ANOTHER CLEAN UP.—F. C. Sharkey and wife arrived here from the Blue River mines this forenoon. Mr.
Sharkey brought down one of the regular fifteen days' clean-up of the Lucky Boy mine. The amount is not stated but it was a good sized one and perfectly satisfactory to the owners of the mine.

NEW PEACHES.—Col. S. P. Shadden brought in from his ranch today several boxes of this year's peaches. They were large and delicious. Col. Shadden says his peach crop is not a large one this year.

It Will Be a Grand Affair.

People Already Coming.

MANY ATTRACTIONS.
Hundreds of people are already gathering in Eugene to attend the races tomorrow and the Fourth of July celebration. It will be the best one that Lane county has had for years.
Remember the literary exercises will be held in the park, the dancing park north of the Day block, and the bicycle and horse races on Willamette street.
Eugene will give all visitors a grand welcome.
