Albany Democrat: "Bringing about the price of wheat when it is below 50 cents in Oregon, is certainly a crazy thing. That is what the Eugene Register did. It certainly put its foot in its mouth."

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. Lynch, Dorris, W. Va. This remedy is sold by W. L. DeLano.

Monday's Albany Democrat: Ex-State Superintendent E. B. McElroy returned this noon from the national convention of teachers at Charleston, S. C., and reported a splendid time and royal treatment at the hands of the Southern people. He returns more impressed than ever with the oneness of this country. He was on the spot where the first shot was fired on Sumpter, and had many experience of a character that will long be remembered with pleasure. The gathering of the teachers was a marked success.

Medals Arrived.—The medals for the Second Oregon boys, made out of a captured Spanish cannon, are completed and some of them have been received by Eugene boys. The medals are unique and interesting. Maudie Muller, on a summer day. Raked the meadow, sweet with hay.

The sun beat down, as was his biz, In that familiar style of his.

Until she got the prickly heat, Then Maudie's language shocked the wheat.

Cut worms everywhere.

The band will give a concert Friday evening.

A new wash house is being built in the rear of the Hoffman House.

Walter Hodes is now learning the moulde trade at Los Angeles, Cal.

Rev. J. G. Knott, pastor of the Florence Presbyterian church, has been called to the pastorate of the Grant's Pass church.

Monday's Albany Democrat: J. R. and John Whitney have returned from a trip to the Siletz. Mr. Carey Martin, a prominent lawyer of Salem was in the city yesterday.

Heppner Times: Mrs. Vawter Crawford is spending the hot season with her parents at Eugene, and the genial county clerk can be placed on the bachelor list for the remainder of the summer.

Ashland Tidings: Bernard E. Spencer, of this city, a student of the State University, and an assistant in the department of chemistry of that institution, is now employed in the analytical office of the school at Eugene, in assay work.

Albany Democrat: While going to the Bay Saturday, E. L. King, of the Postal, got off the cars at one of the stops to get some apples from a tree. The train started, King's chain got caught on the fence and his watch remained. It has not been recovered.

John Kelly, the old pioneer, fell in the Hoffman House office, this afternoon, from a faint and over exertion in walking, bruising his face some. Dr. Kuykendall was called and soon restored the old gentleman, so he could be taken home in a hack.

In the general reorganization of the railway mail service of the country, in accordance with the act of congress approved June 2, 1900, railway postal clerks in charge of cars, between Ashland and Portland and Ashland and San Francisco, had their salaries raised from $1800 to $1400 per year. Class 4 (second men) are raised from $1150 to $1200. The new salaries went into effect July 1.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

MORE FAKES.—Ashland Tidings: The "bargain column" advertising fakir, who made a good thing out of the newspapers along the line a few months ago, has been followed by another fakir who publishes a "romance" in the local paper and works in local advertiser's names in it for so much a "work." Numerous papers will come out this week with a deceiving headline reading something like this: "The Story of Uncle Gosh," which is a better story for the fakir who passes on with the proceeds, than it is for the newspaper man, the advertiser or the reader.
