FROM MCKINLEY TO BRYAN.

Here is a list of newspapers that supported McKinley, or the Palmer and Buckner ticket, in 1896, who are now using their best energies to accomplish the election of Bryan. Note their spheres of influence, and more particularly the fact that the leading German newspapers of the country are included in the list:

- Louisville, Courier-Journal.
- Baltimore American.
- Boston Globe.
- New England Staaten Zeitung.
- Chicago, Abend-Post.
- Chicago, Freie Presse.
- Illinois Staats Zeitung.
- Indianapolis News.
- Indiana Volksblatt and Telegraph.
- Detroit Abend-Post.
- Detroit News.
- Detroit Tribune.
- Washington Times.
- St Paul Volkszeitung.
- Minneapolis Daglig Tidende.
- Minneapolis Journal.
- Irish World.
- New York Life.
- New York Verdict.
- New York Evening Post.
- New York Staats Zeitung.
- New York Zeitung.
- Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.
- Pittsburg Press.
- Buffalo Freie Presse.
- Milwaukee Germania - Abend Post.
- St Louis Tribune.

SOME JOURNALISTIC COURTESIES.

Salem Journal: If you once get in the habit of telling the truth you will find it much easier than lying.

Eugene Register: The Journal ought to try the experiment once. That is the only way to test the truthfulness of its assertion.

Salem Journal: This pertinent suggestion is from the paper that recently published that "wheat is rapidly advancing to a dollar a bushel." It hasn't revised that market report either, notwithstanding wheat is below 50 cents.

Elliot Danforth, one of the democratic leaders of New York, discussing the outlook, says: "A remarkable change in the sentiment of the voters of this state is taking place. Nearly all the democrats who bolted the ticket four years ago have returned, or are returning to the fold, McKinley will get very few democratic votes this time. The stay-at-home democrats of 1896 will come out to vote the straight ticket. The Germans, who voted nearly solidly against Bryan, are going to support him this year. McKinley and Roosevelt will be two very much surprised gentlemen the day after election."

The modesty of Register "Impressions" has been unduly shocked by the publication in the GUARD of "Wondered how he knew." The young man probably has not looked within the lids of several well known books, such as Burns and Shakespeare, not excepting the Bible, and is not aware that the condemnation of literature as prurient and unfit for publication rests not with mere words, but with the effect experienced by the reader. "Impressions" may belong to the over-nice class that can get shocked at the merest suggestion. "The evil be to him who evil thinks."

Russell Sage, the New York millionaire, sees danger in the present situation in commercial centers where banks are accepting doubtful collateral securities. Sage is the man who pulled a bystander between himself and the muzzle of a pistol and saved himself from injury, or death, then refused to pay the man who got the bullet in his body. It took a court and jury to compel the penurious millionaire to do justice to his human shield.

A curious fact, suggestive of the youth of our country, is that our sixth president, John Quincy Adams, who died in 1848, personally knew every president who preceded him as well as two who followed him, and might have seen, if he had been gifted with foreknowledge, and had cared to take the journey, all the presidents who have succeeded him to the present time, including Mr McKinley.

New York World editorial: Mark Hanna is going to Boston, not for beans, but for "dough."

BURDENED WOMEN.

We look in amazement at the burdens some women carry upon their heads. Yet how light they are compared with the burdens some women carry upon their hearts. There are childless women whose hearts ache ceaselessly because of the childless home. That burden of childlessness has been lifted from the heart of many a woman by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Many of the obstacles to maternity are removable. Such obstacles are entirely removed by "Favorite Prescription." It contains no alcohol nor narcotic.

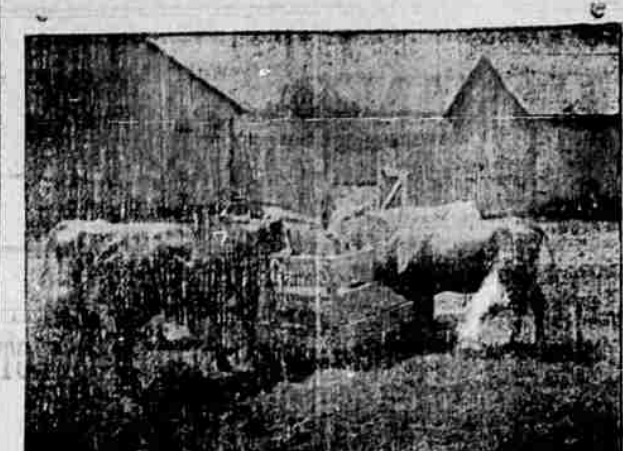

Married Six Years and Childless.
 "I have never written you how grateful I am to you for your tip in securing good health and the use of the sweetest, dearest, thirteen pound girls that ever came into a home," writes Mrs. M. Venable, of San Jose, Liberty Street, Chicago, Ill. "I took six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and four of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' Before I had taken four bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' I was a new woman. I cannot make too definite a statement in regard to the value of Dr. Pierce's medicine. I will be pleased to confirm the truth of all I say if they will enclose stamped envelope for reply."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a ladies' laxative. No medicine equals them for gentleness and thoroughness.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo F. BURDICK, Liberty, R.I. For sale by W. L. DeLano.

During the civil war as well as in our late war with Spain diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greece Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he has never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by W. L. DeLano.

Everyone who has Stock or keeps a Cow, needs

Galloway's Waste-Proof Feed Boxes

FOR FEEDING STOCK
 HAY OR GRAIN.

Because IT IS A FOOD SAVER. As the food is all consumed within the box there is practically NO WASTE. Each box used will SAVE FOUR TIMES ITS COST in one season. Count your cattle and see how much you could save by using these boxes. Each box will feed four head of cattle at one time, and costs about one cent for each cubic foot of space contained within it. The boxes are strong, durable, self supporting and easily moved. The stock run to them at will. A section of the box should be in front of every cow when stabled. It is BETTER, CHEAPER and MORE CONVENIENT to use than any other feeding device. If there is no agent in your locality, send Two Dollars to the patentee and get a RIGHT to make and use, good for a life time. A cut with full directions for making, accompanies each Right. Requires no special skill—anyone can make them. FRANK GALLOWAY, Patentee, Central Point, Oregon, U. S. A.

L. E. HOOVER, Medford, Or.

Agent for Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

Infringers will be prosecuted.

Wants Prunes and Pears.
 T. N. Segar will buy a few cars of green Italian prunes and Bartlett pears for his Eastern home at from $12 to $15 per ton. It is safe to say it is better than to dry.
