Child Drowned at Wendling.

Two accidents at Wendling, one of them fatal, was the record of yesterday. Following upon the injury to Glen Anderson by the falling of a tree, mention of which was made in the GUARD yesterday, came a report last evening of the accidental drowning of a little child.

Roy Keeter, aged four years, fell into Wolf creek from the bridge where he had been playing, and was drowned, although strenuous effort was made to save him.

The parents of the little fellow came from Canada a short time since with others to work for the mill company. The funeral was held today at the Baxter cemetery.

SUBSTANTIAL WORK

McKenzie Road Work Will Prove Effective.

Messrs G W Griffin and F L Chambers, of the committee in charge of the McKenzie road work arrived home last night from a tour of inspection.

The gentlemen express themselves as well pleased with the work done so far. Messrs Carroll and Simon the foremen in charge of the two crews are practical road builders and the work done is of the best.

It is safe to say that this will prove to be one of the best investments ever made by the business men and county court. The volume of travel over this road is enormous.

BLUE RIVER.

Interest in the District Continues to Grow.

ATTRACTING MUCH ATTENTION.

The wide publicity given the Blue River mining district during the present season shows that it is now going through the process of being "discovered," although having been prospected for many years.

Papers all over the state tell of its richness, and miners from every camp in the West are there.

The Salem Statesman of yesterday has the following:

"The Blue River mining district is exciting a good deal of attention in mining circles and many are watching the development of prospects in that section with the keenest interest, entertaining the highest hopes that some time better than has ever yet been realized from mines in the Cascade range will come from this section.

Miners have been at work in this district for at least fifteen years, but no very rich strikes have been made, yet there have always been very promising ones brought out by every prospector.

The long delay in developing these mines has been caused by a failure of prospectors to interest capital in constructing roads and doing development work. This district begins in the southeastern part of Linn county, near the head of the Callapaia, and extends southward into Lane county, where the best paying mines have so far been discovered.

"Recently a Salem man returned from this part of the state and he confirmed the newspaper reports of rich strikes and great activity among the miners, and the very substantial character of the development work as well as the work on the roads leading into the Blue River district. Miners from every camp in the West are found here and they are very enthusiastic over the very promising future of this mining district.

"Just south of this is what is known as the Black Butte district. There is some activity in this region as will be seen by the following: from the Brownsville Times:

"A large number of quartz claims are just at present being located in what is called the Black Butte district. This new mining district, as near as we have been able to ascertain, lies on the north side of the old military road in Lane county and about midway between the Bohemia and Blue River districts. It is reported that some fine bodies of ore have been struck. The discovery of this new district indicates that eventually the Bohemia and Blue River districts will be virtually one immense mining camp. It will be a mammoth one."

FAREWELL RECEPTION.—Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock a farewell reception to Mr and Mrs D R Murray and family will be given at the home of Professor and Mrs John Straub, on East Eleventh street. The reception will be under the auspices of the First Presbyterian church, and all friends are invited.

News About Stamps.

An innovation in the postal service which is sure to be of great convenience is the plan lately adopted of furnishing stamps in little books, with wax sheets between them. The government is to charge one cent additional to the amount of stamps contained therein, and it is now estimated that the profit on these books will amount to $200,000 per annum. It is also estimated that the sum paid for the private revenue stamps placed over the top of the bottles containing Hostetter's Stomach Bitters very nearly equals this. The Bitters is a reliable remedy for constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver and kidney troubles. It may be depended upon to cure stomach disorders, having done so for the past fifty years.

LARGE LAND DEAL.

Looks as if the Military Road Lands Would Change Hands.

MEANS MUCH TO EUGENE.

Henry Swart and F K Baker, of Marinette, Wisconsin, arrived here on this afternoon's train. In the morning at an early hour they leave up the Military road for the neighborhood of Lowell. These men, with other wealthy associates, have under consideration the purchasing of the Military road lands lying west of the Cascade mountains, amounting to a large number of acres. For several months they have had a party of expert timber cruisers from the East estimating the amount of saw timber standing on these lands, and Messrs Swart and Baker now go to consult said parties as to the result of their work up to this time.

If the lands are transferred, it will mean a great deal to Eugene and Lane county and the timber will probably be logged and milled in the immediate future.

It is hinted that the lands are held at about $1,000,000.
