No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, skin eruptions, blotches and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

STICK TO SIMPLE FOOD.

The American Business Man's Pace Demands Easily Digested Dishes.

"There is in the old days far less wear and tear upon the nerves, and, under such conditions, digestion was more completely performed," writes Mrs. S. T. Rover of "Why I Am Opposed to Pies," in "The Ladies' Home Journal." "The mothers of today must look more carefully to the building of their bodies and brains than their mothers and grandmothers did. Indeed at the pace at which we Americans are going we use our brains at full speed nearly all the time. What man can build brain and brawn on pies, layer cakes or preserves or any other mass of material which from its very complexity requires labor and time for digestion, drawing the blood from the brain to the stomach during his working hours? Observe those who eat their complex foods carelessly and hastily and you will see at a glance the conditions that necessitate a complete rest every now and then, or an early nervous breakdown.

"In my close observation in the last 20 years I find very few people in our common struggle for existence who can for any length of time eat carelessly of complex foods. At 40 or 50 a man may perhaps have accumulated wealth, but not health, and of what earthly use is the first without the second? Many persons in the generation gone before have eaten pies at least once a day, but they have not had them three times a day, nor have they rushed at our pace. They gave more time to the digestion of the pie. People who recommend these rich foods rarely know anything of their complex conditions and still less of the complexity of digestion."

HAM SMELLING A BUSINESS.

Peculiar Occupation For Which Only Few Are Qualified.

The ham-smeller's only tools are a long steel trier and his nose. He stands in a barrel to keep his clothes from being soiled by the dripping brine, and the hams are brought to him, and he plunges his sharp pointed trier into them. Withdrawing it and passes it swiftly beneath his nose. The trier always goes down to the knuckle joint.

In testing meat in that manner the man with the trier judges by the slightest shade of difference between the smell of one piece of meat and another. The smell of the meat is almost universally sweet, and that is what he smells. The slightest taint or deviation from the sweet smell is therefore appreciable. It is not the degree of taint that he expects to find, but the slightest odor that is not sweet.

When he detects an odor, he throws the meat aside, and if it is not unwholesome it is sold as "rejected" meat, but if it is tainted it goes to the rendering tank. The ham taster smells meat from 7 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock at night, and his sense must never become jaded or inexact or his usefulness would be at an end.

Ham testing is not a pursuit dangerous to the health, as tea testing is supposed to be, but the ham-smeller with a cold in his head is like a piano player who loses his arm in a railroad wreck.

—Kansas City Star.

A Test of Accuracy.

Drawing from memory is one of the most difficult things in the world to do. Even professional artists find that they must rely largely upon heavy jottings made upon the spot as suggestions for their pictures. Those who are not artists need to look keenly and closely at what they wish to recollect, for they must depend upon their memory to bring details back to them. It is an excellent corrective of superficial observation to sketch a scene as we think we saw it and afterward return to the scene and take another view. It is a training both in accuracy and humility, for we learn how easy it is to deceive ourselves as to what we have remarked.—Florence Hull Winterburn in Woman's Home Companion.

She Got a New Pair.

Sarcasms and his wife were going to the theater.

"Will you please go in and get my goats off the dressing table?" said Mrs. S.

"Your goats?" queried the puzzled Sarcasms. "What fangle have you women got now?"

"I'll show you!" snapped the wife, and she sallied away and soon returned putting on her gloves.

"Are those what you mean? Why, I call those kids."

"I need to," replied Mrs. Sarcasms, "but they are getting so old I am ashamed to any longer."

He took the hint.—Pearson's Weekly.

Economy.

"What's this?" exclaimed the young husband, referring to the memorandum she had given him. "One dozen eggs, one pound of raisins, a bottle of lemon extract, a tin of ground cinnamon and half a pound of sugar—what do you want with all these things, Belinda?"

"I've got a stale loaf," replied the young wife. "That I'm going to save by working it up into a bread pudding. I never let anything go to waste, Henry."—London Fun.

Dress Well.

It is not enough that people shall be clad; they must be dressed. "Costly the habit as this purse can buy," was the advice of Polonius to his son; "rich, but not gaudy, for the apparel oft proclaims the man," and the advice is just as good today as it was 300 years ago.

In Luck.

"It's no fun being married. My wife is coming to me all the time and asking for money!"

"You're lucky! I have to ask my wife always for money when I want any!"—Hilbert Well.

PLAYED OUT.

Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidence of impure blood. No matter how it becomes so, it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Ask for Skeel's Elixir has never failed to cure Scrophulous or Syphilitic poisons, or any other blood disease. It is certainly a wonderful remedy, and we sell every bottle with a positive guarantee. For sale by W. L. DeLano.

GUNS THAT KILL.

A Eugene Firm Has Received a Lot from Belgium.

We have just received direct from Belgium a big stock of double-barreled shotguns. These guns were ordered last February. We bought them direct. Knocked all the middle men out. We will sell them cheap. Come and see them; see if they are not the greatest bargains you ever saw, or ever heard of. In fact it is amazing how we can sell these fine guns so cheap.

One man killed 65 dinner squirrels out of 73 shots with one of these guns, another killed a pheasant at 75 yards with number 8 shot. Another killed a big black bear with number 4 shot. We hear good reports from all over the country about our guns. You may just as well as not have one.

Look at these prices and consider that they are double-barreled breech loading guns, the far killing kind: $10.50, $12.50, $13.50, $14.50, $16.00 and $17.00 and on up. Single barrel guns $9.75, $7.50 and $9.00. We have also just received from eastern manufacturers a fine stock of Marlin and Winchester rifles and shotguns.

All our rifles are sighted correct. One man shot at a deer three times in two seconds, three quarters of a mile, and hit it each time. You get good guns of us and you get them cheap. Biggest stock in the Northwest.

The Hessian Fly.

The following is copied from the Epitomist.

It is a well established fact that the Hessian fly is one of the worst, if not the worst pest, with which the wheat producers of this country have to contend. Its very name—or endomyia destructor—is significant of its nature. It is while in the larvae state that it does the great damage. The fly lays its eggs at the bases of the wheat leaves, in early fall, where they hatch and infest the young wheat plants near the surface of the ground.

When full grown each larvae changes to a pupa which resembles a wax in both size and shape. Remaining in this state during the winter, the adult flies emerge in the spring and lay their eggs at the bases of the leaves, that is, between the bases and the main stock, and some distance above the ground, where they hatch and continue the work of destruction.

TREATMENT.

One of the best methods of combating this pest is to sow, quite early in the fall, a narrow strip of wheat around the field, and when the wheat on this strip becomes infested with eggs and larvae plow it under. This destroys nearly all the fly and the wheat can be sown and will suffer but little injury.

Another preventative is to delay the sowing until after the first frost, but this is not quite as effective as the trap crop method.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever, that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now am well and strong. I can't say too much for its praise." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at W. L. DeLano's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

For Malaria, Chills and Fever

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle—hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

A Prominent Virginia Editor Had Almost Given Up, But Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

READ HIS EDITORIAL.
From the Times, Hillsville, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. R. MOORE. Sold by W. L. DeLano.

Pure Home Made Brandy

Pure double distilled brandy contains neither fusil oil or prussic acid, nor any other poison except what is contained in the fruit. Neither is it necessary to rectify the same before it is fit for use, as hundreds of men, and dozens of old distillers who now live in Oregon can testify. Distilled liquors are always clear in color, not red, until age gives them a yellowish cast.

I will sell you pure double-distilled prune, apple or pear brandy made near Eugene Oregon for $2.50 a gallon, or 75 cents a quart.

A Powder Mill Explosion

Removes everything in sight; so do drastic mineral pills, but both are mighty dangerous. Don't dynamite the delicate machinery of your body with calomel, croton oil or aloes pills, when Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are gentle as a summer breeze, do the work perfectly. Cures headache, constipation. Only 25 cents at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

DON'T BE DUPED

There have been placed upon the market several cheap copies of an obsolete edition of "Webster's Dictionary." They are being offered under various names at a low price.

dry goods dealers, grocers, agents, etc., and in a few instances as a premium for subscriptions to papers.

Announcements of these comparatively reprints are very misleading; for instance, they are advertised to be the substantial equivalent of a higher-priced book, when in reality, so far as we know and believe, they are all from A to Z.

Reprint Dictionaries, phototype copies of a book of over fifty years ago, which in today's world is worth about $3.00 and which was much superior in paper, print, and binding to these imitations, being the work of some men instead of one.

Long Since Obsolete.

The supplement of 1901 so-called "new words," which some of these books are advertised to contain, was compiled by a gentleman who died over forty years ago, and was published before his death. Other minor additions are probably of more or less value.

The Webster's Unabridged Dictionary published by our house is the only one of its kind that has been familiar to the people of this country for over 40 years, and is as accurate as any dictionary published in this country. It contains over 200,000 words, with definitions on nearly every page, and is our standard on the title page. It is protected by copyright from cheap imitations.
