Mrs George Weber Wants a Divorce.

Corvallis Times.

A suit filed Wednesday in the Benton county circuit court is entitled Lydia G Weber versus George Weber.

It is for divorce, and plaintiff asks for a decree of the court "dissolving and annulling the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and decreasing the name of plaintiff to Lydia G Kisor and for costs and disbursements of this action." The papers were sent to Salem Thursday, where it is supposed the sheriff of Marion county served them upon Weber in the state penitentiary yesterday.

As grounds for the suit, Mrs Weber sets forth in her complaint that on the 12th day of December, 1897, the plaintiff and defendant were married at Corvallis, and that they are now and at all times since have been husband and wife; that on or about March 12, 1899, George Weber was duly indicted by the grand jury of Lane county, Oregon, for the commission of a felony, and that on March 14, 1899, said defendant was duly convicted by the circuit court of Lane county of said felony, viz, for the crime of forgery; that said defendant is now serving a term in the Oregon penitentiary for said felony—all of which facts, under the state law, are sufficient grounds for dissolution of the marriage contract.

Letter From China.

A letter received by Frank J Miller, of Albany, from his brother, Hon H B Miller, consul to China, dated Shanghai, September 15, says he is still at that city and hopes to remain, but cannot tell what day he may be ordered to go to Chung King. The consulate is removed to Shanghai for the present. He says he has seen many of the people from Chung King, and has made up his mind not to take his family there. If he cannot get a transfer, he expects to return to Oregon soon. The Chinese in the interior believe that the foreigners have been defeated, and are thoroughly under the control of the empress dowager.

"The Mill Cannot Grind with Water That's Past."

A fagged out, tearful little woman said this in telling her cares and weaknesses. Her friend encouraged by telling of a relative who was cured of just such troubles by Hood's Sarsaparilla. The little woman now has tears of joy, for she took Hood's, which put her blood in prime order, and she lives on the strength of the present instead of worrying about that of the past.

Told Her Friend.—"After having gone on my neck 42 years Hood's Sarsaparilla completely cured me. I was so glad I told friends about it and a lady in Wisconsin who read of my cure told me she also took Hood's for the same trouble and was cured. She thanked me." Mrs. Anna Sutherland, Kalamazoo, Mich.

The Twentieth Century.

When a few months more shall have passed we will then stand at the very threshold of the twentieth century, and the nineteenth will be a thing of the past. It will, however, be known as the century of invention and discovery, and among some of the greatest of these we can truthfully mention Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the celebrated remedy for all ailments arising from a disordered stomach, such as dyspepsia, indigestion, flatulency, constipation and biliousness. It has been one of the greatest blessings to mankind during the past fifty years as a health builder. Many physicians recommend it. Take their advice, try a bottle and be convinced, but be sure to get the genuine with a private revenue stamp over the neck of the bottle.

Weather

SPECIAL TO THE GUARD.

PORTLAND, Oct. 13.—Tonight, and Sunday; probably showers.

WOLLAHEE.

A GOOD IDEA.—Eugene people should think hard, and act on this suggestion of the Junction City Times: "The northbound daylight overland is no longer reliable. It is seldom on time and occasionally as much as three hours late and no reason given for the delay. An organized effort should be made to have the Albany local extended to Eugene or Roseburg. A through train cannot make time and do the local work."

STILL THRESHING.—Cendon, Gilliam county, Globe, Oct 11: A heavy shower of rain fell Tuesday night. While these frequent showers are a drawback to those who have not yet finished threshing, they help to keep the road in good condition for wheat hauliers between here and Arlington.

SOCIAL.

MRS WM PRESTON ENTERTAINS.

Mrs Wm Preston entertained some of her friends in a most delightful manner Friday afternoon. She was assisted by Misses Bonetta Dorris and Carrie Hall. In the voting contest, Mrs F L Washburn received the highest number of votes for the one the most capable of making the best political speech; Mrs H B Miller the highest number for having the sweetest disposition and Mrs Preston for being the handsomest woman present. Mrs Preston deserves especial mention for the artistic and elaborate decorations of her rooms. The ceiling of each room was festooned with smilax and out flowers.

The following ladies were her guests: Mesdames Rev Smoot, Boardman (McMinnville), Vezie (Portland), Prof Glen, Prof Lilly, Buckman, Hows, Adams, Prof Strong, Strong Sr, F W Osburn, T G Hendricks, Chas Williams, E O Potter, F L Gibbs, Prof McAllister, S M Yoran, Prof Straub, Prof Bailey, Geo Hall, A Yerington, F L Washburn, Laura A Harris, F W Prentice, Harry Miller, Prof F W.

A SEWING PARTY.

Mrs E C Smith this afternoon entertained about a dozen of her lady friends at a sewing party in honor of her friend, Mrs Vezie, of Portland. A very pleasant time was had by all present.

FRIGHTENED COLLEGIANS.

The members of the Laurens and Philologist literary societies are devoutly engaged today thanking their lucky stars that what might have proved a very serious affair turned out harmlessly. It happened thusly: As the societies were preparing to close in their usual dignified manner, they were interrupted by a series of ghostly whistlings coming from nowhere. Soon sheeted forms were seen gliding through the halls. Unearthly, and this does not mean heavenly, sounds were now heard and vivid blue flames might have been seen playing about the heads of the ghostly visitors. Some of the collegians began thinking of the evil things they had done and others were glad that they had never participated in college yells at the depot. Soon the apparition faded from sight going through the ceiling, the floor or the east entrance. Reports on this point are conflicting. The boys got themselves together and with chattering teeth attempted to yell "Oskey Yow Yow." Some of the more foolhardy went out doors and reported finding an immense amount of hair pins and false switches on the walks. This morning the Gym floor is wet, not shells and apple peels abound. The spooks! Where are they?

LAUREAN SOCIETY.

The Laureans held their regular meeting last evening in the new hall. The extemporaneous address of the evening was given by Mr B C Jakway, who handled his subject, "The College Man's Duty," in a manner worthy of note. P I Wold gave the "Current Events" of the week. Dr Sheldon kindly favored the society with an address on "The Intercollegiate Debate." Dr Sheldon's address was highly received and greatly appreciated by all present. The question, "Resolved, that imperialism is the paramount issue of the campaign of 1900," was debated. The speakers on the affirmative were Hooker and Van Dyke. The negative, which won the debate, was supported by Jakway and Redmond. Several names were voted on for membership in the society. The meeting of the evening was of unusual snap and vigor. Officers were nominated and election will be held next Friday evening. The society hall has been provided with electric lights, etc, which makes it very inviting for the coming year's work. The society is in a flourishing condition and a year of good hard honest work is assured.
