A DESPERATE MAN.

Kubli Made a Break for Liberty After Being Sentenced.

Kubli, the man taken to Salem from Corvallis the other day for larceny of a wagon, has been a troublesome man to the Benton county officials. He played a farewell prank before he was taken to Salem, says the Corvallis Times. It was in the nature of an attempt to gain liberty. He had just received sentence, and his guards were taking him back to jail. Knowing the desperate character of the prisoner, Sheriff Burnett had taken the precaution of having Deputy Henderson along. The party was just passing out of the rear entrance to the court house. In order to pass through the open door, Henderson stepped ahead. Next came the prisoner with Sheriff Burnett behind. Just as Kubli reached the door he made a leap. He is active and jumped far past Henderson and ran down the steps. But it so happened that Sheriff Burnett is a pretty good foot racer himself. As a baseball player he used to run bases like a quarter horse. In less time than it takes to tell it, the sheriff was in hot pursuit of the fugitive. Henderson, too, was making fine headway until he fouled his rigging and fell down. Though Kubli had a start of several yards, the sheriff was quickly within a few feet of him. He commanded Kubli to stop, but the latter paid no attention. Then the sheriff fired two shots, at the ground, with his revolver. Kubli neither threw up his hands nor slackened his pace. At the Simpson corner the sheriff overhauled his man. The race had occupied but a minute, and the distance covered had been but little more than half a block. A revolver was shoved into Kubli's face, and he was told to behave or take the consequences. He chose to obey. The ring of the sheriff's voice showed that the time for foolhardiness had expired. Kubli walked peacefully to jail, and in due time was landed behind the bars at Salem.

Gorton's Minstrels Are Coming.

It is a fine performance, clean, new, lively, attractive; without a dummy in it, with all good workers. It is refined, elaborate and clever; they are all good and of splendid reputation. They seem very ambitious and try to outdo each other in their work to please the audience. One of the most pleasing features of the minstrels is the freshness of their jokes. They are musical and good dancers, all of them. Gorton has a quartette that would do any college glee club good to listen to. So too with the specialties, which are apt, not too long, none old, but pleasing. The company this season has been carefully selected and they are all nearly equally deserving and versatile. Don't miss the great band concert and parade at noon. Get your tickets early as there will be a lively demand. The organization is winning unexcelled golden opinions of the press everywhere. At The Parker Nov. 17. Seats now selling.

BAND CONCERT.—The Fourth Regiment band is arranging to give a concert next month at The Parker. Professor Glen will take charge this evening, and the boys will drill steadily for the event. The program to be presented will include the best classical music, from operas, and will be worth while attending. Eugene has in this band, one of the best musical organizations in the state, and is taking pride in its advancement. From time to time further announcement will be made.

BOXING UP HIS GOODS.—Al Auten being unable to procure a suitable building until January 1st for his cigar store, boxed up his stock today and will store them until that time. Workmen will commence putting the room into readiness for Somerville & Berger's saloon at once. They expect to have the finest saloon in the state when they move into their new building, in January or sooner.

TO RAISE FUNDS.

Red Cross Will Hold a Market.

The Red Cross Society of this city, must raise funds immediately and the ladies have decided to hold a market on Saturday, Nov. 17th, the place to be announced later. The following letter from the San Francisco Red Cross is self-explanatory and shows that the return of volunteers brings much Red Cross work. This work seems to be the lot of the women of the Pacific Coast, and the Eugene Red Cross will continue to do her share as long as there is work to be done:

MISS T. FRIENDLY, Cor. Sec'y., Eugene, Oregon.
MY DEAR MISS FRIENDLY:—The R. B. company will bring your reading material to us free of charge and we will be very happy to receive it at the Mantle Library Rooms, Phelan Building. Thank you greatly for your kind offer of any hospital supplies. We have had an earnest request for comfort bags for troops sailing in February, and would be so glad to receive them. Our immediate and greatest need is for increase of funds to carry on the relief work we are doing every day here in helping the sick and disabled men and the ragged and idle and destitute ones who are stranded here—soldiers, of course, I mean. Between now and next June the twenty-five thousand volunteers will pass through our city en route home, and there will be many sick and wounded and disabled who must have much of our care and money. Can't you arrange for an entertainment or dinner and help us with the proceeds? The need is large. Thanking you for your ever willing help and courage. GRACE STRANETT, Sec'y.

Last Night's Play.

A good audience was at the Parker last night to witness a production of "A Stranger in New York," one of Hoyt's best successes. The company was large and evidenced considerable appreciation by continued applause during various portions of the play. Some of the singing was good and the McCoy sisters received favorable attention. The next event at The Parker will be Gorton's Minstrels Saturday, November 17.

MARRIED.—Jacob Strausmaier and Miss Mary Schmidt were united in marriage at 10 o'clock this morning at the Catholic church by Rev. L. Przybylski, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The groom is one of the prominent young men of Lane county, and has a host of friends who will unite in extending best wishes to him and his fair young bride. They will reside at the Nels hop yard near Springfield, which Mr Strausmaier has leased for a term of years.

"Necessity Knows No Law."

But a law of Nature bows to the necessity of keeping the blood pure so that the entire system shall be strong, healthy and vigorous.

To take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is therefore a law of health and it is a necessity in nearly every household. It never disappoints.

Blood Disorders.—"My step-daughter and I have both been troubled greatly with blood disorders and stomach troubles, and several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla have been of great benefit." James F. Thompson, Wilmington, Ohio.
