A CRUSADE.

The Junction City Saloons Visited by a Committee of Ladies.

TROUBLE AHEAD.

Junction City Times.

The ladies of the WCTU and the recently organized temperance union under Col. Holt, visited the saloons Sunday night at about 9:30. They were marshaled in three sections and their visit was simultaneous. One section went to the Red Front saloon and as the door was locked went around to the "Sunday route" and soon gained entrance. Quite a number were present and the ghost of Gambrinus himself would not have caused greater consternation. It is reported that one of the number fell over the bar and hid himself with his head in a bucket. One of the ladies asked for one of "those little round things," (chips), as a souvenir. She was told to help herself, which she did and passed a number to her companions, much to the chagrin of the one who had to "put up" for them.

The Monogram was also visited by the back door route. Only three persons were found within. They were engaged in a quiet game of "solo" and when the ladies appeared, had the proverbial pin dropped it would have sounded like a joint of stovepipe. Keene's cigar store on the hotel corner was also visited and a number found therein that under the circumstances would have much preferred to have been somewhere else.

The object of these visits was to gather evidence looking to the enforcement of the Sunday closing law.

A committee of the ladies, ten in number, appeared before the city council Monday evening, praying that body to draft an ordinance covering the Sunday closing question. This request was granted and the judiciary committee instructed to draft such an ordinance and report at next regular meeting.

Their protests against the granting of a drama shop license to Wm. Keene Wis, by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles, and never disappoints. Price 50c, at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect met before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge Wis, by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles, and never disappoints. Price 50c, at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

Good Samaritan Hospital Donations.

The following letter has been received by Mrs. D. E. Loveridge in acknowledgment of the receipt of the Thanksgiving donations made to the Good Samaritan Hospital at Portland by the good people of Eugene:

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL,
PORTLAND, Dec. 3, 1900.

DEAR MRS. LOVERIDGE: The Thanksgiving donation from Eugene for the Good Samaritan Hospital has arrived, been unpacked and placed upon the shelves of our store-room. It is certainly one of the very best offerings we have ever had—everything is so good and so useful, and shows so much care and thoughtfulness on the part of all those engaged in its preparation. The fact too, that it represents the gifts and good will of the general public, rather than of a few, makes it doubly acceptable to us. Please give our warm thanks to all concerned in sending it, with the hope that we may ever continue to be worthy of their esteem and good gifts.

Very gratefully yours,
E. J. WAREMAN,
Supt. G. S. Hospital.

BABY PULL-BACKS

It is strange that babies get on so well as they do; there are so many pull-backs! But Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil is a wonderful help.

Begin with a little. Too much will upset the stomach. Increase, but keep under the limit. The limit is upsetting the stomach.

It rests a tired digestion; it does not tax the stomach at all; it lets it play—little stomachs like to play.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 429 Pearl street, New York.

For Malaria, Chills and Fever

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle—hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.
