FRIDAY - - DECEMBER 21

PORTLAND POLICE PARTNERSHIP WITH CRIME.

The other day a Portland minister called public attention to the partnership existing between the gamblers and the Portland police in such a manner that the police commission could not remain silent, at least personally. D Solis Cohen, chairman of the Board of Police Commissioners, makes the following astounding statement, coming as it does from an official sworn to execute city and state laws that absolutely prohibit gambling:

"Mr Hill is, in part, mistaken. There is not an increase in the gambling-houses, but a noticeable decrease, Since the houses are open and fiend there are less minors, less clerks and less laborers frequenting these places. The very publicity checks them from gambling, for the information would soon reach the ears of their employers. Ever man visiting gambling houses in Portland is known, and a list of these people could readily be made."

The preacher is right. The Portland judiciary and police departments should be castigated on the rack of public opinion and forced to dissolve the wicked partnership with vice. For unblushing effrontery the confession of the police board chairman has few parallels in the long record of official delinquencies.

AN HISTORICAL NUMBER.

McMinnville Telephone-Register.

"It may not be generally known that the original copy of the first number of the Oregonian, a fac-simile of which was printed in the semi-centennial number of that paper on the 4th inst. was found in Yamhill county. For a number of years the editor of the Oregonian had offered $100 for a copy of the first issue, but none was found.

"During the last sickness of the late Wm Buffum, of Amity, he gave to Geo Himes, secretary of the Pioneer association, and assistant secretary of the Historical society, authority to take charge of all papers, and preserve whatever of value might be found among them. In this collection the long sought for paper was found, and is now one of the relics on exhibition at the Historical society's rooms in the Portland city hall. When Editor Scott was shown this first paper he is said to have shed tears of joy. The fac-simile formed a conspicuous part of a very interesting centennial number."

The English court of chancery makes an official statement that the value of estates in its hands awaiting heirs and claimants is but twenty million dollars. And a large part of this sum is already in process of adjustment by the court. The statement was made in answer to a request from United States Minister Choate to protect the American public from the fraud and false claims of a coterie of estate claim agents who have been living off contributions of gullible so-called American heirs for years.

The Portland Telegram says "Minister Wu, representative of China to Washington, asked a prominent man who was trying to impress the beauties of Christian doctrine upon the Chinese diplomat why his instructor, who is a very rich man, did not, if he was a Christian, sell all he had and give the proceeds to the poor. But Wu, being a 'heathen,' may not understand that in religion, as in other things, theory is one thing and practice another."

The population of certain incorporated places in Montana, having a population of more than 2000, but less than 25,000, is as follows: Anaconda, 9350; Billings, 3221; Bozeman, 3215; Great Falls, 14,350; Helena, 10,330; Kalispel, 2526; Livingston, 2778; Missoula, 4366; Red Lodge, 2520; Walkerville, 2621

Abductors found a very valuable boy in the person of the fifteen year-old son of pork-packer Cudahy of Chicago. The father paid $25,000 for the return of his son, and no questions asked. But he could pay that amount easier than many a poor man could pay one dollar.

Sometime Wednesday night burglars pried open an old fashioned safe in Portland within a block of the police headquarters and got two hundred dollars for their trouble. The report that the police headquarters had been robbed is not true.

MY SISTER'S BABY

My baby is full of abounding life and joy; my sister's boy is a puny thing.

The difference is: my baby is healthy. He takes his fill and sleeps; and he grows. My sister's boy gets fully as hungry, he cries with hunger; then cries, I think it must be, from weakness; his food is a burden to him.

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil will set that poor little boy in the way of being as good as his cousin.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

I O O F Grand Master's Visit.

Members of Spencer Butte Lodge No 9, I O O F, also the brethren of Coburg, Springfield and Irving, are notified that Grand Master Welch, of Astoria, will pay the Eugene lodge an official visit Friday evening, December 21, at 8:30 o'clock. (The lateness of the hour is on account of use of the hall by another odge.)

All Odd Fellows, their wives, and Rebekah members are invited to be present at this special meeting. Refreshments will be served in the banquet room.

Prices Talk

It a is saying easily demonstrated by examining the display of holiday goods at Yerington's Ninth Street Drug Store.

An elegant assortment of Toilet Sets, Dressing Cases, Manicure Sets, Smoking Sets, Brush and Comb Cases, Cuff and Collar Boxes, Purses, Mirrors, Perfumes and Atomizers and a large variety of other holiday goods which are being offered at prices that talk. These goods must be sold, therefore I have made prices on them that do not admit of argument. Come and see.

FOURTEEN MILLION BALLOTS.

McKinley's Popular Plurality 468,824; Majority 468,056—Official Count of Plebiscite Completed in All the States.

NEW YORK, Dec 20.—The Times this morning publishes a table showing the popular vote for presidential electors in the recent election. Minnesota was the last state to declare its vote, this not having been done until yesterday. In some states, as in Louisiana and South Carolina, there were the nominations of but two parties, republican and democrat, upon the ballots, in other states there were three and four, and in some eight.

The total vote, including 6211 scattering was 13,967,299. Of this, McKinley received 7,217,677 and Bryan 6,357,353. Wooley, prohibitionist, received so far as reported 207,368; Baker, middle-of-the-road populist, 50,188; social democrat, 94,552, and Malony, social labor, 33,450.

McKinley's plurality, according to the figures of the Times, was 859,824; McKinley's majority was 468,055.

In addition there were votes returned in five states for the candidates of the national union reform party, Seth H Ellis, of Ohio, for president, and Samuel T Nicholson, of Pennsylvania, for vice-president, and in two states for the candidates of the united Christian party, J F R Leonard, of Iowa, for president and John G Woolley of Illinois, for vice-president, these votes being as follows:

National union reform, Arkansas, 841; Illinois, 672; Indiana, 254; Maryland, 147, and Ohio, 4284.

United Christian, Illinois, 352; Iowa, 166.

GOV PINGREE MAD.

He Announces His Withdrawal from the Republican Party.

Detroit, Dec 20.—Governor Pingree today announced his formal withdrawal from the republican party on account of the defeat of his tax bill by the Michigan state senate yesterday.

The governor declares he will hereafter vote with, work for and contribute money to the democratic party. He says the bill's defeat was due to the influence of Senator McMillan and the railroads, whose bank rolls "touched" the tax bill. The governor is also angry because the senate refused him the use of the senate chamber for a banquet he was to give here tonight.

The Sells Divorce Case.

Columbus, O, Dec 20.—The Sells divorce case came to a sudden end this afternoon, when it was announced in court that a compromise had been effected and that no further evidence against Sells would be heard. Previous to this Sells had asked that the court grant a decree on the ground of neglect, ignoring the adultery charge against his wife. This the judge will undoubtedly do. Sells has agreed to give his wife $20,000 alimony.
