"UNCLE SAM."

This is applied to America just as John Bull is to England, and came about in this way: During the last war between England and America, a man named Elbert Anderson contracted for provisions for the army, while an inspector named Samuel Wilson, who was always called Uncle Sam, examined the provisions. Each box or cask, when passed, was marked E. A.—U. S., the initials of the contractor and the United States.

The man who marked the casks was asked at one time, what the letters meant, and being a funny fellow, he said they stood for Elbert Anderson and Uncle Sam. The joke soon became known, and the name still clings to our government.

SHE STUCK TO THE FAMILY.

One of the stories that the late Senator Palmer of Illinois was the fondest of telling had to do with an aged gentleman bearing the same name as himself, who lived somewhere down on the eastern shore of Virginia, in the county where Senator Palmer's grandfather was born. One of the senator's Washington friends happened to meet the old lady down there, and asked her if she were not a kinswoman of his. She did not know, but thought perhaps she might be. The gentleman was of Virginia descent, was he not? And in the United States senate? Yes, she was quite sure he was a kinsman.

"Was he in the army?" she asked.

"Yes," answered the senator's friend, "he was in the army, and a general."

The old lady was positive he was a relative.

"But," went on the friend, "he was a general in the Union army."

The old lady's face fell, but she rallied bravely.

"Well," she said, "you know there's a black sheep in every family."

NO SUBSIDY FOR FOREIGN SAILORS.

No Senator will be justified in voting for a measure the necessity of which is urged on the ground that owners of American vessels cannot compete with foreigners in the carrying trade because the latter hire sailors and officers more cheaply than they can, if it is so framed that the crews of cheap Chinese and Japanese can be shipped. The people of the United States are willing to be taxed for the purpose of promoting the opportunities of Americans to earn a living, but they will rebel against any attempt to legislate purely in the interest of the investing class.

The extraordinary spectacle of a snowball fight on the water front of Honolulu was witnessed recently. It was when the coldest storage steamer Albion, from San Francisco, with meat and other market goods, had finished discharging. The men amused themselves gathering "snow" from the pipes of her refrigerating machinery, and for a time there was lively throwing of snowballs, something never before seen there.

Talk about gambler's "honor!" The Italians have a murderer's "honor." An Italian lying at death's door in Chicago, pretty well carved into ribbons by murderous countrymen, refuses to divulge their identity, though known to him. It is probable he desires to take the chances of recovery with the sweet revenge that might be made possible by restoration of bodily vigor.

Prime Minister Chamberlain has virtually been forced to promise kindly treatment if not actual justice to the Boers, while President McKinley does not tire of telling about the blessings he intends to confer upon the Filipinos.

Flirtation is to love what cant is to piety.—Puck.

Christmas at Coon Range.

A very pleasing and interesting entertainment and Christmas tree was given at Coon Range school house on Christmas eve, to quite a large and appreciative audience. The entertainment consisted of songs, recitations, tableaux and dialogues. The presents were numerous and of great variety. The program was well rendered and creditable to all taking part. The committee on general arrangements was Mrs. M. M. Gillespie, Mrs. Wm. Goodpasture and Mrs. R. Foonhe. They deserve a great deal of praise for energy and perseverance displayed in almost a continual practice and rehearsal with those assisting. In the short time they had to prepare for the entertainment. Mr. Chas. Swagart deserves special thanks for assisting in instrumental music at intervals during the evening. While there were some very nice presents, there was none more unique than one we wish to speak of, which was a small frog presented to a young lady. It was made fast with a short string and concealed in a fancy box. When the lid was raised Master Frog came forth with a leap, at the same instant a sharp report of a lady's voice was heard and the frog sat sprawling on the floor. If the donor wished to see if the lady was as spry as a frog we would say his frogship was decidedly outdone.

Cold Steal Or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. L. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

Piano Tuning.

As there are many tuners going through the country claiming to be authorized by different houses, we wish to state that M. O. Warner, of Eugene, and no one else, is our authorized tuner and we recommend him to the public.
