LOSS OF LOGS.

Over a Million Feet Were Carried to Sea.

NOT PREPARED FOR ACCIDENTS.

Florence West, Jan 18: A great number of logs have been swept to sea during the past week, owing to the carelessness of the booming companies in not being prepared for accidents. Several millions of feet of timber had come down in the previous freshet and filled the upper boom, and the logs were being assorted and taken to the south boom, but the work was not yet completed when the last flood came and filled the remaining space in the upper boom.

Then the mischief was to pay. The sheer to the lower boom was thrown out and placed in readiness to send the logs into south slough, where there is a storage capacity for a great many millions of feet of timber. Logs were soon striking it rapidly, when in some manner they became jammed, the boom was broken, and they were hurrying toward the sea.

There is no knowledge of the number of logs which came down, but it is variously estimated that from 1,000,000 to 3,000,000 feet of timber have been carried to sea, entailing a loss of thousands of dollars to loggers and sawmill men. This is a most deplorable state of affairs, as many of those who had logs in the river, upon which they depended largely for their maintenance and the continuation of work during the coming season, will be seriously handicapped by lack of means next summer.

For forty-eight hours, beginning Saturday morning and lasting until Monday noon, there was a continuous procession of the best of timber passing out of the river. While several hundreds of thousands of feet of logs were saved by lodging against the fish trap piling, and a great many others were towed ashore and tied up along the banks of the river at various places, only a small per cent were saved. Loggers are beginning to show up in Florence and are busy investigating the extent of their losses. It is found to be a difficult matter to tell just what they are owing to the logs being badly scattered.

Those who have visited the ocean beach report that thousands of logs may be seen scattered along the sea wall north of the river. An enterprising man with a portable sawmill will have a good job there some day manufacturing lumber from these logs. Several millions of feet may be saved in this way.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that the next regular Teachers' examination, for state certificates and state diplomas, will be held at the courthouse, Eugene, Oregon, commencing at 9 o'clock a m Wednesday, February 13th, 1901, and continuing until 4 o'clock p m, Saturday, February 16th, 1901.

This examination is for state papers only, the county examination being in April. This 18th day of January, 1901.
