ONE CADET WAS NOT HAZED.

The congressional inquiry into the hazing of Cadet Booze, at West Point, evolved a bit of humor out of the mass of dry evidence that is being given as to the manner in which the national military academy makes commanders out of the raw material sent it by congressional favor. Here is the gem that repays one for reading the dreary columns of stuff:

Cadet Louis Brinton, Jr, of Pennsylvania, was asked: "Did you ever know a man to go through this academy without being hazed?"

"I heard of one; I cannot remember his name, but I think he was a 'plebe' in 1888."

"Why did he escape all hazing?"

"He whipped every man who was pitted against him, sir. He fought five men in one day, and in all he licked about 30," said Brinton.

"Is there a monument erected at the post to his memory?" asked Mr Wagner.

"No, sir."

"Well, then, there should be."

NATIONAL ROBBERY.

History may repeat itself. The unhappy partition of Poland between Russia, Austria and Prussia in the early part of the eighteenth century may find a paralled in the Western continent in the partition of Bolivia between Chili, Brazil Argentina and Paraguay. Such a proposition was made to Peru by Chili, but indignantly rejected. Bolivia was an ally of Peru in her last war with Chili. The country, which is a republic, has no seacoast, the narrow strip of Chili and Peru shutting her in from the Pacific Ocean, while Brazil on the north and east, and Argentina and Paraguay on the south bound her domain.

Individuals are imprisoned for grand larceny, but no punishment can be provided for national robbery. Force is the only law nations know when dealing with each other. So-called international law is good only so far as a nation may be willing to accept its obligations, or may be compelled to by superior force.

PERTINENT.

Sunday Oregonian.

The barbers who want to close shop Sunday want the legislature to do it for them. But why not do it themselves? And if other barbers choose to work on that day, why begrudge them the privilege? Is it feared they will make a few dimes?

Weaverville, county seat of Trinity county, California, is snowed in eight feet deep, and has been snowbound since the latter part of December. The town lies in the Siskiyou mountain range. Provisions are reported scarce.

Notice.

The Eugene Oratorio Society will meet in the League Room of the Methodist church on Wednesday evening, January 23, at 7:30.

There will be election of officers and the formulation of plans for the musical festival. "Elijah" will be the new oratorio. The choruses are much more beautiful and not so difficult or trying as those of "St Paul." If the chorus numbers 40, it is the intention to produce the "Elijah" here before the Albany festival. By order of the president.

RESIGNED HIS PASTORATE.—Yesterday Rev J A Cleland resigned the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of this city, the resignation to take effect the first Sunday in February. Rev Cleland will leave shortly after that to accept a pastorate in the neighborhood of Victoria, B C. The members of the Presbyterian church and the people of Eugene generally are loth to see Rev Cleland and his estimable family leave. They have been here for over a year and have won hosts of friends. The GUARD wishes the reverend gentleman and family much success in their future field of labor.

STOLE AN UMBRELLA.—Policeman Croner arrested one Wm Parker, Saturday night on the charge of stealing an umbrella from L P Snapp. His trial is being held before Justice Wintermeier at the time of going to press.

The doctor sometimes passes a harder sentence than the judge. But the sentence of the doctor is more often set aside or overruled than is that of the judge. In the case of Mrs. Reycraft given below, the doctor sentenced her to about eighteen years of physical punishment and misery. But she rebelled against the sentence, and commenced the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. In a few weeks she was a well woman.

It's a peculiarity of the cures effected by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that they are generally cures of chronic diseases. A woman suffers with diseases peculiar to her sex, she takes medical treatment, gets no better, and has no hope held out to her of improvement. Then in her discouragement she turns to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and finds a prompt and lasting cure. "Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Four years ago my health began to fail," [illegible] Mrs. Nellie M. Reycraft, of Glenwood, [illegible] "I had [illegible] in the region of the uterus, pain in back and loins, could not lift anything heavy, [illegible] stomach deranged. One physician said I was overworked, another said I had congestion and falling of uterus. He treated me nine months and said I would not be well until I had passed the change of life. I was only twenty-seven years old then. I became discouraged, and began using Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Took a teaspoonful three times a day; began feeling better right away. Am using my third bottle now, and feel I am in good health. I believe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has restored me to health. If suffering women would give it a fair trial they would give it praise."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

MRS. BROOKS TO SING.

She Will Appear in a Concert in Eugene Feb. 22.

Word was received from Mrs R C Brooks on Saturday stating that she would arrive in Eugene on Wednesday, Feb. 20, to take part in a concert to be given in this city on the evening of February 22, Washington's birthday, for the benefit of the M E pipe organ fund. The committee experienced a sense of relief upon the receipt of her letter, for owing to the recent irregularity of trains her letter was delayed for several days.

It is a source of great satisfaction to the committee that Mrs Brooks was available for this concert, and even at this early day it seems as if her coming will be marked by an ovation. Already plans have been suggested for most elaborate floral offerings and decorations in her honor, her friends apparently stopping at nothing in their enthusiasm and pleasure at her personal presence among us.

A strong chorus has volunteered to support Mrs Brooks in "Fair Ellen."

Mary Miller Dead.

Mary Miller, only child of George M and Lischen M Miller, died at Portland Sunday morning, January 20, of typhoid fever, after an illness of ten weeks, aged 13 years and 27 days.

Mary Miller was born in Lane county and passed her life here, principally in Eugene, until the past two years when she accompanied her mother to Portland. She was precocious as a child, even at the age of eight or nine years intelligently criticizing literary productions, while she composed stories worthy of a maturer age. A peculiarity of her literary work was the absolute refusal to listen to any suggestion as to style, arrangement and composition. Whatever she wrote was her own. For the past year Mary was a contributor to the Children's department of the Sunday Oregonian, the managers of that paper allowing her $100 yearly salary.

The heart-broken mother is with the dead, while the father is on the ocean, bound for the northern gold mines, having left his child but a short time since when the attending physician assured him of the certain recovery of his daughter. The sympathy of many friends go out to the bereaved parents in the loss of this bud of fairest promise, the child of their heart.

The funeral and interment took place at Portland this afternoon.

SMALL LOSS.—Geo N Frazer, Jr, is in from the Siuslaw. He says he does not know how many logs he and Chas Griffin lost in the recent freshet. However, it is only a few, as they did not have many in the river at the time. He says it will be two months before their contract is finished.

FROM THE SEA.—On July 12, 1900, Mrs Bertha Emmons, formerly Matlock, while on the steamer, No Yo, threw a sealed bottle overboard containing the names of passengers with the request that anyone finding the bottle inform her of the date and locality. A letter received from Westport, Wash, this morning, says the bottle was picked up on the beach at that place on January 13. The inclosed writing, which was forwarded, had escaped defacement from salt water. The bottle was thrown overboard at a point in the ocean about two hundred miles northwesterly from where found.
