AN IDAHO CASE.

Paul Corcoran, the Most Notorious Penitentiary Inmate in That State, Wants a Pardon.

MAY TAKE POLITICAL TURN.

Special to the Guard.

Boise, Idaho, June 6.—Paul Corcoran, the most noted inmate of the Idaho penitentiary, has given notice in accordance with the state law governing pardons, that he will on July 3, apply to the state board of pardons, which consists of Governor Hunt, Secretary of State Bassett and Attorney-General Martin, for a full pardon. He is serving a sentence of 17 years for murder in the second degree.

Corcoran's trial and conviction grew out of the riots in the Coeur d'Alenes, which were the precursors of the establishment of martial law in that section of Idaho. Briefly the facts are: On the 29th of April, 1899, 800 or 1000 armed men from the towns of Burke, Gem, Mullan and Wallace proceeded to Warden, destroyed the mill of the Bunker Hill & Sullivan mining company and killed James Cheyne, a mill man. Some friction existed between the mining company and the miners' union since 1892, but the immediate cause of the difficulty was the demand that the employees of the Bunker Hill & Sullivan Company should join the union and the refusal of the company to employ union men.

Paul Corcoran, financial secretary of the Burke union, was arrested together with three or four hundred others engaged in the riot. Evidence was shortly produced showing that Corcoran was one of the firing party that killed Cheyne, he being identified by Mrs. Ida Sinclair as the person who refused to help her carry the murdered man, Cheyne, to her home. Corcoran was indicted and tried in July, 1899, for murder. He was found guilty of murder in the second degree and sentenced to 17 years in the state penitentiary.

His counsel asked the state for a writ of habeas corpus but their request was denied. An appeal was then taken, various errors of law being alleged, but the judgment of the lower court was again affirmed. An attempt was made which was unsuccessful to obtain a writ of error from the supreme court of the United States.

Owing to the great expense of a trial and the difficulty of obtaining a jury none of the other men arrested for complicity in the crime were ever tried.

Since his incarceration, Corcoran has been a model prisoner, obeying all the rules and regulations of the prison and conducting himself in a very creditable manner. The question of his pardon may take a political or partisan turn as the present state administration has abolished martial law in the Coeur d'Alenes and was supported at the polls by the miners' union which is preparing an immense petition asking for Corcoran's release.

Would-Be Suicide Will Recover.

Special to the Guard.

Roseburg, June 6.—Chas. Holbs, who attempted suicide above Glendale a few days ago, is recovering. He was partially paralyzed and dependent and attempted to kill himself with a rifle. The gun was pointed toward his heart, but moved just when discharged and the ball followed around a rib. He declares he will repeat the attempt at the first opportunity. He is about 30 years of age.

"The best doctors couldn't heal the running sore that followed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Junction City Notes.

JUNCTION CITY, June 4.—Children's Day was observed Sunday night in the Christian church in a very pretty and instructive manner. After devotional exercises there was spirited patriotic and other appropriate singing, with fine instrumental accompaniment, recitations, class exercises and an address on "What Children's Day is Doing," by Miss Bert Nichols.

Miss Anna Oglesby left yesterday en route to the meeting of the National Editorial Association in Buffalo, N. Y. Her position as manager of the Postal Telegraph office here is being filled pro tem by C. P. Houston, who is a good operator and prominent business man.

Didn't Marry for Money.

The Boston man, who lately married a sickly rich young woman, is happy now, for he got Dr. King's New Life Pills which restored her to perfect health. Infallible for jaundice, biliousness, malaria, fever and ague and all liver and stomach troubles. Gentle but effective. Only 25 cents at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

A BARGAIN.—64½ acres of land; 100 acres in cultivation; rest in open prairie, well seeded down; plenty of running water year around; timber abundant; 9-room house, and barn that holds 100 tons of hay; place 2 miles from depot; postoffice and good public school; $12.50 per acre; for further particulars inquire of I. L. Campbell, GUARD.

A buggy built for three is a good thing when it is comfortable. See it at F. L. Chambers.

Our Keen Kutter carpenter's tools are the best in the market. See them at Griffin Hardware Co.

Portland Telegram, June 4: An East Side man who returned from Shaniko last night says that the Deschutes country, through which he was driving Saturday and Sunday was visited by a terrific storm Sunday. A waterpout burst on the range, and the Deschutes river rose 12 feet in 20 minutes. A log was carried through a house, but fortunately no one in the structure was hurt. The country was swept by torrents of water, and there were bad washouts at several places.

For Malaria, Chills and Fever

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle—hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.
