CONCERNING FRANK WHITE.

Baker City Herald Tells of the Young Man's Death.The Baker City Herald, in speaking of Frank White's death, says:Mr White came to Durkee yesterday to secure a position in the public school at that place as teacher, vice Miss Case-beer, who contemplates removing to Baker to accept a position in the school here. Yesterday evening Mr White walked about town, apparently in the best of health. He visited the O R & N pump house late in the evening and sat chatting with the engineer. The odor of oil and escaping steam seemed to overcome him and he started for the open air. With one foot across the threshold of the door he fell dead. The body was removed to a hotel and the coroner notified. Death has evidently resulted from heart failure.Prof J P Holland, of Sumpter, formerly principal of the Sumpter public schools, has known Mr White for the past ten years. Over the 'phone this afternoon Professor Holland gave the Herald the following facts concerning the unfortunate young man:"Mr White came to Sumpter last year, and was employed in the store of Mr Hawley. Later, while I was principal of the public schools, he was employed as teacher. Upon my resignation as principal Mr White severed his connection with the schools and came to work in my warehouse. He was about 25 years old, and was universally loved and respected. He left Sumpter for Durkee on Monday morning. He was apparently in the best of health when he left. Mr Hawley and I will confer today and make arrangements for the burial of the body." to have been spread an impression that the workers for the 7 o'clock closing movement among the grocers have met with a failure. One who is foremost in promoting this movement stated to a reporter today that such is not the case. He said that 12 out of 16 fall in line soon. The GUARD yester-

Died.

Eather Eaton, wife of W H Eaton, died of cancer at Jasper, Thursday, January 9, 1932 at 6 p m, after a long illness, aged 55 years, 10 months and 7 days.Eather Walker was born in Monroe county, Iowa, March 2, 1846. She crossed the plains to Oregon with her parents, A M and Mary Walker in 1852 and lived with them until August 4, 1882, at which time she was married to W H Eaton, now justice of the peace and ferryman at Jasper.
Had Mrs Eaton lived until the 14th of next month, she would have been married 49 years. For the past 25 years Mrs Eaton has been a resident of Lane county and was highly respected by all who knew her. Deceased was the mother of twelve children, seven of whom are still living and were all at her bedside except one daughter who was sick. She left twelve grandchildren. For a period of 42 years she had been a faithful member of the U P and Christian churches. She was a kind mother and a loving wife.The funeral took place today at 11 o'clock at Pleasant Hill, conducted by Rev R O Callison, with interment in the Pleasant Hill cemetery.

New Road Law.

Hereafter all road taxes must be paid in cash, while the road supervisor will hire men and teams, their wages being paid from the county treasury.
A county roadmaster will be appointed to have general supervision of the work, thereby giving road work and improvement a more connected system. The roadmaster will visit all portions of the county and confer with the supervisors as to the needs of the roads before making an apportionment.The commissioners' court will appoint the roadmaster, probably at the March term of court. It has been imagined that the court would like to hear from the taxpayers in regard to the appointment either by petition or otherwise. It is an important position and a careful selection should be made.The Imperial.

Inspector J H Ball, of Portland, is in Eugene making his annual inspection of the local postoffice. He finds everything runs in a systematic manner and our free delivery of mail cannot be established soon. Of course there is always a certain amount of red tape to be gone through with in such cases, but the delivery system will be established in due time.Died.—At the Harlow residence northwest of Eugene, Wednesday, January 8, 1932, of cancer, Joseph A Bond,
