There was a fair attendance at the C P church last evening. The Rev Mr Hudson, late of Osaka, Japan, is expected to arrive tomorrow and will conduct the services in the evening. We cordially invite the Christian people of Eugene to come and assist us in these services. G N Wall, pastor.

CLEAVERS SELL OUT.

J. V. Wilson, Formerly of Eugene, One of the Purchasers.

Pendleton E O, Jan 15.

Cleaver Brothers have sold their stock of shoes, and good will, which they have run in this city for the past nine years to W H Dindinger and J V Wilson and the business will be continued at the same place under the firm name of Dindinger, Wilson & Co, but who compose the "Co" will be kept in the background for the present.

Mr Dindinger is the clerk of the Boston Store, where he has been for the past eight months, and in that time has made many friends in Pendleton. He has had many years experience in the merchandise business in Seattle and other places. Mr Wilson recently came here from Eugene, where he was for years connected with the First National bank of that place.

The new firm have completed the invoice of goods and took possession this morning.

THE SOCIAL REALM.

The members of the B & L club last evening entertained their husbands and gentlemen friends in the armory reception rooms, the event proving to be a delightful one. The ladies all appeared in early century costumes and presented an unique appearance. High five was the prevailing amusement, Mrs Geo H Smith making the most points in the game. Mrs C W Lowe served supper in Co A's room. Those present were: Mr and Mrs W C Yoran, Mr and Mrs F R Wetherbee, Mr and Mrs J W Kays, Mr and Mrs Jerry Horn, Mr and Mrs J M Abrams, Dr and Mrs L L Whitson, Mr and Mrs B H Miller, Mr and Mrs David Link, Mr and Mrs J Goldsmith, Dr and Mrs C B Willoughby, Mr and Mrs Geo H Smith, Mr and Mrs A T Cokerline, Mrs R McMurphy, Mrs C W Lowe, Mrs C M Young, Mrs Minnie Buckman, Miss Carrie Hall; Messrs P E Snodgrass and R M Day.

Baby birthday parties were held this afternoon at the residences of Mr and Mrs I L Campbell and Prof and Mrs F S Dunn.

Tomorrow Night.

The many lights and shades that are constantly occurring in human life will be truthfully reproduced in the production of "The Village Parson," which comes to the Parker Wednesday, Jan 23. This play has been meeting with great success in all cities where presented and the numerous favorable comments that have been heaped upon it have been most flattering to say the least. With a decidedly brilliant cast and new and complete mounting, "The Village Parson" compares with any of the better class of melodramatic presentations of the current season.

Seattle's Finest Church.

SEATTLE, Jan 20.—Trinity Episcopal, the finest church in Seattle, was totally destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock this (Monday) morning. Property loss about $50,000.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—Chas McGee, whose father is a highly respected citizen of Salem, was arrested this morning about 4 o'clock by Policemen Croner and Pratt for being drunk and disorderly. This afternoon he was arraigned before Recorder Davis and fined $25, the large fine being on account of relating the officers at the time of his arrest.

SUDDENLY ILL.

Hon. S. M. Yoran Attacked by Heart Failure.

About 2:30 o'clock this afternoon Hon S M Yoran was attacked by heart failure at his shoe store, and it was feared for a time that he was dying.

He began to feel very ill and asked his son Darwin to telephone for a physician. Dr J W Harris was sent for and he arrived soon to find Mr Yoran in a very serious condition. The doctor announced that he was dying as his pulse indicated no action of the heart at all. Stimulants were applied, however, causing him to revive, and he was taken in a carriage to his home, corner West Tenth and Olive streets, where he was placed in bed. At 4 o'clock this afternoon he was resting easily and it is thought he will recover.
