ELKS' STAG SOCIAL

An Evening of Pleasure Spent by Them and Their Guests.

OTHER SOCIAL EVENTS.

Last evening the Eugene lodge of Elks, at their elegant hall on West Eighth street, gave their first stag social of the year, and the attendance numbered about 120, including visitors.
No happier or jollier set of gentlemen ever met. While it was cold and cheerless on the outside it was hot enough on the inside for all. The chairman of the evening, Past Exalted Ruler A C Woodcock, was at his best and he spared none, while his assistant, G W Griffin, fully performed his duties. The marshals and waiters also did their work in a prompt manner and the reception committee made all guests feel as if they had known Elkdom for years. The music furnished by Svavard's orchestra was most excellent, the best ever heard at such a gathering in Eugene. The Cottage Grove contingent was a lively one.
Stories, songs and addresses were heard fast and furious. Laughter and good feeling abounded. Business care were laid aside. Such gatherings are a great benefit to people generally. An excellent luncheon was served during the rendering of the program. The gathering was dismissed at midnight, all arising and singing Auld Lang Syne. The committee in charge of the affair were Past Exalted Ruler L T Harris and Brothers Helms W Thompson and Walter Rose, and all voted them "the people" to prepare a program.

The Women's Patriotic League met in regular session this afternoon at the home of Mrs J M Shelley at West Eighth and Charleston streets. After the regular business, Mrs W K Sorbrough read an original paper on "Parentalhood," which was followed by a magazine article by Mrs E Schwarzschild, press comments on President Roosevelt's promising reign.
A delightful luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by the Misses Applegate, McElroy and Agnes Harris.
Miss Alicia McElroy rendered a few pretty selections on the piano during the afternoon. The league meets next with Mrs J W Kays.

The joint installation of officers of Woodmen of the World and the Women of Woodcraft held last night in the O O F hall was a very pleasant affair.
A program as follows was rendered during the evening:
Solo..... Arvilla Zimmer
Recitation..... Lois McMurphy
Solo..... Elmer Paine
Recitation..... Miss Constance Handaker Vocal duet..... Misses Mabel Crow and
..... Nina Ostrander EO Potter was installing officer for the Woodmen and Mrs A T Cook line for the Women of Woodcraft.
After the ceremonies a banquet was served by the Woodmen and a social hour or so was enjoyed.

A farewell reception to Rev M L Rose and family will be given at the Christian church Monday evening. A program is being prepared for the occasion. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to attend.

easy for awhile. He was one of the original prospectors at Blue River ing the club.
