THE SOCIAL REALM.

Tuesday evening, February 11, Eugene and Walter Combs entertained at their home, 251 West Fifth street, a number of their young friends.

The fore part of the evening was spent in a geographical game contest, resulting in prizes being awarded to Miss Leila Horn and Carl King. The young people then enjoyed a game of progressive crokinole, after which dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, presided over by Mrs C D Combs, Miss Margaret and Mrs P B Kinsey.

The latter part of the evening was spent in music and dancing. The parlors were prettily decorated with different colored hearts, cupids and arrows, heralding the approach of St Valentine's Day. Those present were: Misses Ada and Eva Allen, Virginia Hawthorne, Clara Cleaver, Myra Lovendige, Lucia Wilkins, Helene Robinson, Hazel Humphrey, Leila Horn, Fay Jennings, Ollie Burton; Eugene and Walter Combs, Wister Johnson, Elmer Paine, Will Clark, Paul Willoughby, Ralph Robinson, Carl King, Charley Jennings.

The regular meeting of the Pastime Whist club was held last night in the armory club rooms. In whist games Mrs J S Luckey won the ladies' first prize, the lesser token falling to Mrs Bert Vincent. T B Luckey and W H Alexander tied for the gentlemen's prize. Mr Alexander winning on the draw. The refreshment committee consisted of Mesdames Yoran, Peter, Alexander and Poin-dexter.

The Fidelian society, composed of a number of young men of the M E Sunday school, will give a Valentine party in the armory parlors tomorrow night. A pleasant time is anticipated.

The department of oratory of the Eugene Divinity School will give a recital in the chapel Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Our Army the Best.

Our army is the most effective and efficient organization in the world. The reason for this is that the men are well paid as well as well fed. Good food and good pay however, will not alone make a good soldier. He must have steady nerves, a good digestion and a strong constitution. To fight disease it is also necessary to have the same requirements, but if you are weak and nervous, there is a medicine that will strengthen your system. We refer to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. For fifty years it has been making weak people strong and sickly people well. We therefore urge you to try a bottle and satisfy yourself. It is a specific remedy for indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, flatulency, nervousness, and malaria, fever and ague.

We desire through the kindness of the GUARD to express our grateful appreciation and thanks to the many friends who have so kindly extended their warmest sympathy to us in our bereavement and who so kindly assisted in the burial of my son and our brother, Daniel T and James T Howe. We especially feel that to Pullman Car Conductor Mr F A Reynolds and his efficient porter, Mr A H Ransom, is due a public acknowledgement from us for their kindness in so assiduously caring for James in his last and almost tragic sickness. MURRAY AND MACK.—The Parker opera house was crowded last night when the famous Murray and Mack, who have delighted thousands of audiences, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, with their farce comedies, appeared in the shrieking farce, "Shooting the Chutes." It was one of the most laughable productions ever seen at the Parker, but several complaints have been heard that the company did not do its best and jollied the audience all the way through.
