SOME ADVERTISING ADVICE.

Some men make a mistake by discontinuing their advertising when business is dull, says the National Advertiser. Others make a mistake by neglecting to change what is in their space because business is dull. It would be just as reasonable for a newspaper to republish the same items day after day because there was not anything happening to take the place of that which was published yesterday. Such a newspaper would lose many of its subscribers because the average person does not care to read a second time the trivial items which are given in the papers from day to day.

The GUARD advises advertisers to change their advertisements frequently. We gladly make the change without cost to the business man, as it not only keeps a newspaper clean and bright but accomplishes what we and they most desire, the calling of general attention to their announcement. New advertisements catch the public eye, but if allowed to run too long become stale.

Arthur Egan a seventeen-year old boy who saved twenty-seven lives on Lake Michigan some months since got an unusual distinction. The Royal Humane Society of Great Britain bestows two medals a year for exceptional acts of bravery. Young Egan gets one of the 1901 medals. Besides he is the first American to receive the Humane Society medal.

Canning machines and Chinese have had a sharp, short struggle for supremacy in British Columbia, and the canning machines won. The machine requires only two men to run it, and it takes the place of forty Chinamen. Indian women are still needed to clean the fish and Chinamen to solder tins, but Chinamen will not work where a machine is set up.

People about and above Pittsburg who have interests on the Alleghany River, naturally are not resting easy these days. There is an ice gorge along the river for seventy miles varying in thickness from five to sixteen feet. If it goes out with a heavy rain there will be trouble. Boat and barge men are hoping for a gradual thaw.

Poor old Spain National decadence and bankruptcy, manufacturing and business depression with the concomitant riot. And only a few hundred years ago she was the first power of the world—first not only in war but in art, literature, commerce, all that goes to make a great country with a happy and contented people!

An alleged lot of Ireland heirs to the A. J. Stewart estate, New York, have been disposed of by the supreme court of that state. "There should come a time," said the court, "when merely vexatious and harassing litigation will not be ordered by the court. It would seem, therefore, as to the estate of A. J. Stewart, that the time has come."

That it is easier to spend money than to make it is again illustrated in the case of "Plunger" Andrews of Detroit. He did very well in making a million dollars in six years, but made a swift, if not brilliant descent in losing three million in six months. And he lost a lot that was not his own.

The broom trust has raised the price of brooms twenty-five cents a dozen. And, though hitherto accumulating examples in evidence, trust promoters seek to delude the people with the statement that manufacturing combinations bring lower prices. They may when the cat loses her appetite for the mouse.

Iverson Items.

Feb 17, 1902.

There was a wood cutting bee at J. S. Day's last Thursday.

Services were held at the school house yesterday, Mr. Smith conducting the services.

Jesse Cornelius, who has been visiting with friends and relatives here has returned to his home at Pleasant Hill.

Some time ago a petition was sent to the postoffice department to have the service between Iverson and Hale changed from a bi-weekly to a tri-weekly. Nothing has been heard concerning it so far, but it is to be hoped that the change will be granted.

W. T. Cornelius, who has been under the weather for a few days, we are glad to state is able to be around again.

Walter Chastalo, one of our popular young men, is reported to be sick at his home here. How dangerous the case is we cannot tell, but we hope for a speedy recovery.

Charles Cornelius of this place, took in the Valentine social at O. W. Lyons' at Walton, and reports the crowd as not large but very jolly and everyone seemed to enjoy it well.

Retrospect.

It is an evil day for the wife and mother when she scans her worn face in the mirror. Does it pay the question, "Does it pay?" But there is another question which rightly takes precedence of Does it pay? It is this: "Is it necessary to sacrifice health and happiness to wedded love?" Half a million women answer, No! They have been weak and have been made strong by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They were sick and "Favorite Prescription" made them well. It will do the same for almost every woman who gives it a fair and faithful trial. It stops weakness, curing drains, builds up the system, and cures female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves and encourages the appetite.

It is not to become a mother, and a true mother, that a woman needs Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is to be a mother, and a true mother, that a woman needs Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is to be a mother, and a true mother, that a woman needs Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

As for me, I feel as young now as I did at twenty years of age, and I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to all suffering women.

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

Do not be deceived by cheap imitations. The name "Dr. Pierce's" is prominent on the wrapper.

Notice to Tax Payers—New Tax Law.

At the last session of the legislature a new law was passed in regard to the collection of taxes, which law took effect on December 1st, 1901, and in substance is as follows:

1. If you pay your taxes on or before March 15th you will be allowed a rebate of three per cent.

2. If you pay your taxes between March 15th and up to and including the first Monday in April there will not be any rebate and neither will there be any penalty or interest added.

3. If your taxes are not paid on or before the first Monday of April, they will become delinquent, when there will be added a penalty of 10 per cent, and the tax will also draw interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum in addition to the penalty.

4. If you pay one-half of your taxes on or before the first Monday in April then the remaining half may run up to and including the first Monday in October following; but if the last half of tax due is not paid by the first Monday of October, it becomes delinquent, and there will be added to such balance, a penalty of 10 per cent, and in addition, such balance will bear interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from the first Monday in April until paid.

5. On all personal property taxes if one-half is not paid on or before the first Monday in April, the law compels the sheriff to levy upon and collect the same after May 1st, hence to prevent a levy upon personal property after May 1st it will be necessary for one-half to be paid as above stated.

6. The law compels the sheriff to sell all lands on which taxes have not been paid, and that such sales shall not be held later than March 1st of the year succeeding the year in which the tax levy is made.

7. The property will be sold to the person bidding the lowest rate of interest, and certificates will be issued therefor, and deeds given to such property sold, unless redeemed within three years from the date of such sale.

The 1901 assessment rolls will be received at the sheriff's office March 1st, 1902. Any written enquiries regarding 1901 taxes received prior to that date will be filed and promptly attended to as soon as the books are open for payments. In making enquiries as to amount of taxes, if possible, give to whom the property is assessed and a description of the same.

Dated this 25th day of January, 1902.

The Shasta Route.

In going over the famous "Shasta Route" of the Southern Pacific Co. the traveler ever finds something new to excite his admiration and interest.

Starting at Portland, one travels the whole length of the Willamette valley, the gem of the Northwest. Mr. Hood, Mt. Jefferson, and the Three Sisters and other snow-capped peaks are kept in sight for hours. The beautiful valleys of the Umpqua and Rogue rivers, with their orchards of peaches, pears, apples and other fruits are a delight to themselves. The crossing of the great mountain barrier between Oregon and California reveals the grandest mountain scenery in the United States.

The wonderful turnings, twistings and doublings of the railroad bring into view a grand array of towering mountains and profound gorges into which we gaze from dizzy heights, forest clad mountain slopes stretching up to the line of perpetual snow, and the foaming mountain streams dashing fiercely down deep canyons, now and then stopping for a short rest in some quiet pool. After a day's enjoyment of old Mt. Shasta, the finest peak on the continent, we drop rapidly down the canyon of the Sacramento to the broad plains of the Sacramento valley in California, and thence through vineyards and orchards to San Francisco.
