F. E. DUNN.

Calls Teddy a Tin Soldier.

DETROIT, Mich., March 20.—Judge James Travis, of Covington, Ky., in a speech before the Jefferson Club, at Pontiac last night, made a bitter attack on President Roosevelt. He characterized him as a "tin soldier," and whose war achievements he derided as boys' play.

TO SEE OURSELVES AS OTHERS SEE US

We are not always anxious, for that is not always flattering. To be seen as we desire others to see us, is not vanity, but a moral ambition, for that means our best. This is the way we have ever endeavored to portray our subjects.

TERRIBLE MAINE CASUALTY

Two Bridges Covered With Flood Spectators Washed Out

THE NORTHWEST SNOW BLOCKADE

Special to the Guard

ST. PAUL, March 21.—Three hundred of the passengers who had been snow-bound in the Dakotas arrived here by a Great Northern train last night.

They report that the fall and drifting of the snow are inconceivable by anyone who had not passed through such an experience.

In not a few instances great drifts of snow covered the railroad track to a depth of thirty-five feet.

THE MILES RESIGNATION THREAT.

Special to the Guard.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The threat of General Miles to resign command of the army if the administration plan of virtually retiring him by placing control in the war department is carried out, is causing no end of speculation and comment.

General Miles has played a strong card. President Roosevelt now realizes that the retirement by such means could not but create great popular sympathy for Miles and, perhaps, make him a formidable candidate for the presidency in 1904.

It is suggested that President Roosevelt may retire him on account of the age-limit regulation, but that, also, would smack of a political favor. The administration desires to unload Miles but without causing a political disturbance.

CAPE TOWN, South Africa, March 21.—Cecil Rhodes is much better. He is now taking nourishment.

HITCHCOCK HOLDS ON.

Special to the Guard.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—An evidently inspired announcement is made that Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock has no idea of resigning his cabinet portfolio.

LORD HOPE AND MAY YOHE AT QUITS.

Special to the Guard.

LONDON, March 21.—The court has granted Lord Francis Hope a divorce from the actress May Yohe.

The divorce was granted on evidence that she had been guilty of adultery, Captain Strong, son of ex-Mayor Strong of New York, being named as the co-respondent.

A MAINE DISASTER.

Special to the GUARD.

BANGOR, Maine, March 21.—The floods in the Penobscot river incident to the warm rains and thaw attracted hundreds of spectators to the river banks and bridges today. Shortly before noon two of the bridges that were covered with people gave way before the pressure of the flood and went down with their loads of people.

There is no way of ascertaining the news of the victims and excited people are making almost frantic inquiries to locate missing friends and relatives.

MARSHAL ARRESTED

Bert Nunn of Cottage Grove in the Toils.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Special to the GUARD.

COTTAGE GROVE, March 21.—City Marshal Bert Nunn was placed under arrest this morning about 10 o'clock on the charge of the larceny of about $12.50 from Dr E F Anderson.

The theft is alleged to have taken place last Saturday morning. Dr Anderson has been very ill, and the K of P lodge, of which the doctor is a member, decided to move him from his room in Wilson's lodging house to his office, when it was discovered that his trousers had been rifled and that a purse containing about $12.50 had been taken. Suspicion pointed to Nunn and accordingly he was arrested.

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney L T Harris arrived up from Eugene on the afternoon train and Nunn was given an examination.

[The result of the examination was not obtainable at press time.]

We have the best assortment of fishing tackle ever brought to Eugene. Palue & Kay.

STORE SOLD.

J. W. Stewart, of Springfield, Disposes of His Store.

Joseph W Stewart, the well known Springfield merchant, has sold his general merchandise store to a Mr Chandler, of Albany, formerly of Aissa. He will take possession next Monday or Tuesday.

Mr Stewart is one of the pioneer merchants of the county, having been in business at Springfield for 37 years. He will continue to reside there and will devote his time to his other property interests.

LIVE DIPLOMA.—G W Millam, principal of the Geary school, is the proud possessor of a life diploma just received from the state board of education. The professor has been teaching in Lane county since 1882, having attended the state university in 1891-2. A teacher's merit may well be measured by the length of his services in his respective schoolroom. Prof Millam taught two years continuously in the Thurston district, three years at Walterville, and four years at Pleasant Hill. He took charge of the Geary school with the beginning of the 1901 school year.

SOLD OUT.—Andy Titus has sold his interest in the Ninth street barber shop to Otto Brown, just out from Nebraska. He and Henry Schewering will conduct the shop hereafter. Messrs Brown and Schewering are brothers-in-law.

The approach on the north end of the Eugene bridge across the Willamette river has had short planks put on the middle track, over the old planking.

A CHILD KIDNAPPED.

W. B. Rohrer is Wanted By the Officers.

A BRUTAL ASSAULT.

Walter B Rohrer, formerly in the butcher business in Eugene with his father-in-law, Shelton Jenkins, is wanted by the local officers, a warrant having been issued by Justice Wintermeyer for his arrest.

Rohrer has been separated from his wife some three or four years, and has been in southern Oregon since that time. Recently he returned here and yesterday afternoon proceeded to the residence of his former partner in business, Mr Jenkins, out west of town, where his wife is living, for the purpose of taking away their little daughter, aged five years. Mrs Jenkins and Mrs Rohrer expostulated with him and tried to prevent him from taking away the child, whereupon he brutally knocked Mrs Jenkins and his wife both down and succeeded in getting the child away.

Before Rohrer proceeded to the house he took the precaution to decoy Mr Jenkins away by sending him word that a certain party wanted to see him about some land matters.

It is supposed the man has taken or will take the little girl with him back to Southern Oregon. The officers are on the sharp lookout for them and have notified all officers up and down the line of the occurrence.

Sheriff Withers will leave for Roseburg on tonight's train to look for Rohrer.

BROKE HIS LEG.

Emory Gossler Met With an Accident Near Cottage Grove.

W H Gossler, who resides several miles northeast of Eugene on the Woodburn-Natron branch railroad, today received a message from Cottage Grove that his son Emory, who is on his homestead about seven miles northeast of the Grove, had broken one of his legs below the knee. No further particulars were sent.

Mr Gossler, accompanied by Dr L W Brown, left for Cottage Grove on the 2.08 train this afternoon to attend the injured man, who is well known here.

A Democratic Daily.

SALEM, March 20.—There is a rumor current that a democratic daily newspaper may be established in Salem before the present campaign has progressed much farther. For the first time in several years the democratic party in Marion county finds itself without a party paper, and the need and value of such an organ is realized. As yet the scheme is in an incipient state, but definite developments may be expected in the near future.

NO LONGER MAD.—Actor James Neill and Grand Exalted Ruler Pickett of the Order of Elks, have reached an understanding. The troupan has concluded that he was in error in resenting what he thought were personal indignities at Spokane, recently, in the initiatory exercises of the order. If the Spokane Elks will reconsider his application for membership, Neill is willing to be forgiven. He is ready to disentangle his entanglers from the underbrush of misunderstanding.

CHANGE IN OPERATORS.—Cole Stanton, the well known U. O. graduate, arrived here today to act as operator in the Western Union telegraph office, for a week or two, taking the place of Geo Taylor, who will leave for Grants Pass in a few days. He expects to be gone only a few weeks when he will return and resume his position here.
