THE SINFUL BROTHER.

He Was a Good Man, but Didn't Hold Family Prayers.

It was at a certain church meeting, and the good bishop was calling for reports. He had a rather stern, sharp manner which sometimes jarred a little on the nerves of the more timid. By and by he came to Brother B., a lay delegate.

"Brother B., what is the spiritual condition of your church?" demanded the bishop briskly.

"I consider it good," said the brother. "What makes you think it is good?" went on the bishop.

"Well, the people are religious. That's what makes me think so."

"What do you call religious? Do they have family prayer?"

"Some of them do, and some do not."

"Do you mean to say that a man may be a Christian and not hold family prayer?"

"Yes, sir, I think so."

"Do you hold family prayer?"

"Yes, sir," returned the brother quietly.

"And yet you think a man may be a Christian and not hold family prayer?"

"I have a brother who is a better man than I am who does not hold family prayer."

"What makes you think he is a better man than you are?"

"Everybody says so, and I know he is."

"Why does not your brother, if he is such a good man, hold family prayer?" thundered the bishop.

"He has no family," meekly answered the brother—Harper's.

How to Make Yourself Invincible.

Purchase a new pot, dish, mirror, agate, steel and tinder. "Convey" a black cat—a dead one will do. At the stroke of midnight fill your pot at the fountain, light a fire and put the pot on it. Place the cat in the pot and hold the lid on with your left hand. Remain for twenty-four hours in this position without moving, speaking, eating or drinking and be especially careful not to look behind you whatever noises you may hear.

At the end of this time take off the pot and place the contents on the new dish. Separate the flesh of the cat from the bones and throw the former over your left shoulder, saying, "Ac-cipe quod tibi do, et nihil amplius." Then place each bone in succession between your teeth on the left hand side. Those which produce no effect must be thrown over the left shoulder with the scarcely civil but very necessary remark given above.

Retain that bone which when placed between the teeth makes your image disappear from the mirror and, having secured this, the object of your experiment, retire from the room backward.

A Revival.

Revivalism in Jamaica has its tragedies and its comedies, but under no circumstances its advantages. The excitement of the black man is animal; it leads him backward toward the jungle, toward Obeahism. The noisy revivalistic meeting is a more serious scandal than a tea party. A doctor told us that not long since he was called in to a meeting, where he saw a woman lying on the ground, while her coreligionists danced a ketch dance in frantic circle around her, proclaiming her to be "in de spirit." He found she was dead from a fit caused by excitement. But the consequences of these "pious orgies" may be merely inconvenient, as in the case of the black lady who when "in de spirit" climbed upon her neighbor's roof and sat there for two days. The neighbor found this inconvenient.

The Kid Glove Kid.

The average kid glove, according to those who should know, is not made of kid at all, but of goat or lamb skin. The kids from which the real kid glove is made are nurtured and cared for almost as carefully as are race horses. Most of them are reared in a mountainous district of France. The kids are nourished on milk alone and are never allowed to eat grass, as that would coarsen the skin. The kid is kept in a pen, where he can receive no scratch or bruise. They are thus kept, as it were, in cotton wool until the age when the skin is of most value. They are then carefully killed and the skin dressed with the utmost skill. Sheep, deer and goats are also pressed into service for so called kid and dogskin gloves.

The Potato.

Humboldt says that at the time of the discovery of America the potato was cultivated in all the temperate parts of South America from Chile up to the coast. The Spaniards first noticed it in Peru. The variety of potato cultivated in Europe and North America grows wild in Chile. Different species of the plant are found growing wild in most parts of South America and it is claimed by many botanists, in Mexico and Arizona.

Every Animal Is Fond of Bananas.

The leaves of the banana, often six feet long and two feet wide, are tender, and the strong winds of the tropics soon tear them in strips, thereby adding to their grace and beauty. The banana is a fruit that beast and bird, as well as man, are fond of, and the owner, when he lives in a sparsely settled country, must protect his plantation by a fence of some thorny plant.

The Main Point.

Mrs. Gatterson—You will come to dinner anyway, Mr. Tuttle, will you not, though I am afraid there will not be many interesting people present?

Tuttle (gallantly)—What difference does that make? One is always sure of a good square meal at your house.—Harlem Life.

A Dangerous Tree.

Brown—Are you interested in genealogy? Ever looked up your ancestral tree?

Black—Never did. Fact is I'd be afraid there might be a man hanging from one of its branches.—Boston Transcript.

Working 24 Hours a Day.

There's no rest for those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always busy, caring for liver, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague. They banish sick headache, drive out malaria. Never gripe or wake. Small, taste nice, work wonders. Try them. 25c at W. L. DeLano's.

TWO STORIES.

The Second One Evened Up Accounts With the First.

A young man was telling anecdotes to a circle, and one of his listeners was his mother-in-law. He related one about a funeral. A woman had died. The undertaker at the close of the services at the house said to the bereaved husband:

"You will ride in the first carriage with your mother-in-law."

"I decline to ride with that woman," said the widower. "She has made my life miserable. To ride with her would spoil all the pleasure of the occasion."

All laughingly appreciated the humor of the story except the young man's mother-in-law.

"Why don't you laugh?" he asked.

"It was a good story."

"Oh," she replied, "I was thinking of another story about a colored minister who prayed one day for rain like this: 'Oh, Lord, send us a rain. Thou knowest dat de craps is a-spillin'. Thou knowest dat de cattle on a 'tousand hills am a-perishin' fo' water. Send us a rain. O Lord. Not one ob yer drizzles. Send us a downpour, a gully washin', a trash liftin' rain.'"

"An old mammy in the back part of the church called out: 'Look hyar, parson, whuffo' yo' pray dat a-way? Why yo' pray for a trash liftin' rain? Doan' yo' 'member dat I done bury dat triflin' son-in-law ob' mine last week?'—Chicago Chronicle.

Told by Pain

If you have pains you should look after them quickly. Pain about something is wrong. The sharper the pain the more danger there is in delay. There are thousands of women to-day who are bearing awful pain almost continually, rather than tell a physician about the shooting pains in their lower abdomen, about the agony of falling of the womb and the distress of leucorrhoea. They let the months pass and their trouble becomes harder to cure and more distressing. But modest women can secure exemption from the embarrassment of a private examination. When pain tells them of danger they can cure themselves by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

In the privacy of their homes. You can be cured without distressing publicity. With these facts before you there is no reason for the delay which is increasing your misery and wasting the days of your life. Why not stop the pain today?

I have used one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Dr. Thayer's Black-Draught. Before I began to take your medicine I had pains in my back, hips, lower bowels and my arms. Sometimes I thought I would go floor. Now I can only feel a little of the pain in my side and I am going to use your medicines until I get cured. I believe they will certainly cure me. I have been married twelve years and am the mother of seven children. I thank you for your wonderful medicine and what it has done for me.
