Albany Democrat: The contract has been let for the new quarter-mile track for the Albany college track team and work will be begun at once. Arrangements have been made for a meet at this city on Decoration day, May 30th, with Forest Grove and an earlier meet may be had with the O A O, negotiations for which are pending.
Florence West: We are informed that several head of cattle have recently been lost in this vicinity by dogs driving them into marshes and mud-holes, where they mired and could not get out. Al Ready has lost four or five, while G C Cumpston and L Christensen have each lost one or two from the same cause. The dogs are said to belong to Indian dogs.
Married.
The marriage of Miss Nina Orrell to Horace Burnett took place yesterday afternoon (Sunday April 20) at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mr and Mrs John Orrell, the bride's parents, on Pearl street, Rev E C Sanderson performing the ceremony. It was a quiet wedding, only a few intimate friends and the relatives of the bride being present.
The bride is a very popular young lady, while Mr Burnett is well known from his connection with the city press, first with the State Journal, and latterly as city editor of the DAILY GUARD. Both the young people have many friends in Eugene who wish them much happiness in their new relations.
A BAND AT FLORENCE.—West: Steps are being taken to organize a band from the musicians of Florence and Acme. A band was organized here eight or ten years ago which added a great deal to the success of many celebrations by furnishing music for the occasion, but some of the members left town and Florence has been without an organized band for some time.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

Passed on the Death of J. P. Ramsey by Fairmont Literary Society.
Whereas, The Great Ruler of the universe has, in his infinite wisdom, removed from our midst our worthy and much esteemed neighbor, kind friend and literary associate, Mr Jas P Ramsey.
Whereas, The intimate relation held during our long and pleasant acquaintance with him makes it fitting that we record our appreciation for him; therefore,
Resolved, That by his death, his estimable wife has lost a loving companion, his daughter a kind father, and the community a good neighbor; therefore be it
Resolved, That the officers and members of the "Fairmont Literary Society" do hereby extend in this sad hour of their great bereavement, our most heartfelt sympathy and condolence, commending them to "Him whose will must be done," "One who doeth all things well," with the express and earnest hope that even so great a bereavement may be overuled for the highest good.
Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our society, a copy be handed to our worthy and bereaved friend, Mrs Jas P Ramsey; also a copy be sent to the DAILY GUARD and Morning Register for publication.

THE SOCIAL REALM.

Mrs C L Pickard's Sunday school class tendered her a surprise party Saturday afternoon in honor of her 43rd birthday. A very pleasant afternoon was spent at her residence on West Fifth street. A luncheon was enjoyed by all and was served by Beula Kinsey, Ida Hendershot and Mary Roche. Those present at this enjoyable occasion were: Mrs Pickard, Ella Hendershot, Lena Day, Myrtle White, Mamie Pollock, L uisa Wengor, Pearl Martin, Elsie Gosset, Grace Baker Sadle Wartook, Leona Darling, Beula Kinsey, Ida Hendershot, Mary Roche, Eldon Pickard.
At the regular meeting of the Native Daughters in Elks' hall Tuesday evening at 7:30 sharp members are all requested to be present. Each member has the privilege of asking one friend, either gentleman or lady, to enjoy the social and banquet, after the business meeting, which will be opened for guests at 8 o'clock.

Too Rich to Marry.

One of the most pleasing features of "Too Rich to Marry" which will be at the Park opera house Thursday, May 15 is the specialties.

During the intermission between the acts, several first-class specialties are introduced, and during the intermissions of the play songs and dances are appropriately interwoven with the plot. In fact "Too Rich to Marry," besides carrying a most capable company of actors and actresses, has a corps of specialty artists equal to the demands of the large Eastern vaudeville theaters.

Esther Jenkins-Rohrer.

EUGENE, April 21.
Many friends have inquired about little Esther who was so ruthlessly torn from her mother a few weeks ago and taken to Roseburg, from which point she was brought back by Sheriff Withers and given to her mother. She is now very ill from a cold that settled on her lungs.
