WAYS OF THE GYPSY.
Methods of Communication Used by the Romany Tribes.
The ancient road signs of the Romany, the "patteran," takes the place of landmarks or maps. The "patteran" is a little, carefully arranged pile of sticks, grass or stones placed at crossroads, where none but a gypsy would notice it any more than any one but a Romany could read it, but to him it is as plain as the noonday sun, and by it a succession of such wayside tokens—one family or company can follow others who may be days ahead of them for hundreds of miles.
Though the gypsy has uses for other methods of communication besides the mysterious "patteran," he is not a letter writer. He rightly cares first for his own immediate family circle. The closest "in-laws" do not travel together unless perfectly congenial or unless it is convenient for them to do so, and as the roving life is not conducive to letter writing even the nearest relatives do not usually hear from each other directly more than once or twice a year at most.
In the city livery stables and pawnbrokers' shops opportunities are afforded for the exchange of news, but for those who roam in small groups and rarely strike a large city or the great bureau of information, summer camping grounds, where all the gossip of the year is retailed, communication of personal family news is uncertain—Leslie's Monthly.
Physical Courage in Battle.
"Physical courage in battle," said an old veteran, "is simply this: Your sense of duty or your sense of shame is so strong that you can't run away. All this talk about men liking the roar of battle is nine-tenths rubbish. Nobody likes to be killed or wounded, and nothing is more natural than for a man to get out of the way of a bullet if he can do so without too serious a loss of his own self respect or of that of his neighbors."
"I never knew but one man who seemed as if he really relished fighting, and that was General Reynolds, who precipitated the battle of Gettysburg and lost his life in so doing. It was just like him to bring on an engagement. Reynolds was always keyed up very high in action. He would shout and encourage his men and plunge recklessly forward in a high state of exaltation, as if he were engaged with some very exciting game which he enjoyed playing. Other generals I have observed were cool, collected and impassive in action, but somehow none of them impressed me as having the same stomach for fighting as Reynolds."—Philadelphia Ledger.
Curiosities in Bookbinding.
Extravagance in binding has frequently furnished an opening for the display of fantastic tricks and fads. In an old bookseller's catalogue was seen an advertisement of a Latin copy of Apuleius' "Golden Ass," bound in the skin of a Jerusalem ass, the leather being still unaltered. A book by Jeffery Hudson, the noted dwarf, was bound in the silk waistcoat of Charles I., the dwarf's patron saint.
A deluxe edition of Fox's historical works, specially fitted up for Edwards, the philosopher, was bound throughout in foxskin, forty-seven pelts of these little animals being required to complete the job. O'Connell, who so delighted in the possession of a first edition of Bacon's works, had the entire set rebound again in pigskin and always lovingly referred to them as his "Baconind" books.
The Dog's Right Place in the Home.
A dog has its place in the home, but that place is not to terrify our friends and visitors when they try to approach our house or to make them uncomfortable after they enter it. We are unfair to a dog when we allow it to make a nuisance of itself to those who have no special interest in its welfare. The best place for a dog is generally where there are no people other than the family. There is something wrong about a dog or the license it is allowed in a home when it arouses in a guest or friend those feelings which our instincts permit us to suffer, but not express.—Edward Bok in Ladies' Home Journal.
Japanese Cats and Dogs.
Japanese cats have the shortest kinds of tails or else none at all. One of these cats, on being taken to a European town, refused companionship with the long tailed cat there; but, finding a cat whose tail had been cut off by accident, the two became friendly at once.
Japanese dogs are almost destitute of noses, having the nostrils set directly in the head. The smaller the nose the more valuable the breed.

Gets the Benefit.
"Day ain't no two ways about it, Mistah Jackson," said Charcoal Eph as he passed the shop, "we'n a woman makes er man fo' bettah or fo' worse she mouty soon fin' out she gettin' de benefit of de alternative."—Baltimore News.
Sleep.
According to a somewhat cynical old proverb, the need of nightly sleep justly due to average human beings should be thus distributed: "Six hours to a man, seven to a woman and eight to a fool."
Newly Furnished Lodging House.
New beds in newly painted and papered rooms at the Courthouse Lodging House. Only one block from the main business street, and but a little more than two blocks from the postoffice. A very quiet locality.
Outside rooms at rear corners away from hall, splendid for day sleeping. Windows of these rooms under projecting roof, cutting off much of the light.
Come and see the rooms and I will guarantee that you will be satisfied.

ODDITIES IN MAILBOXES.
Any Old Thing, From Money to a String of Sausages.
"People put queer things in letter boxes," said a mail carrier the other day. "They seem to have an idea that they are doing brilliant things when they drop any old thing into a mailbox to annoy the collectors. I have found a little of everything in my boxes, including money. Yes, money; but, you see, there are some of these newspaper men on my route who know me, and sometimes they have a batch of letters to mail and no stamps on hand. They drop the letters in and along with them the necessary amount of money to pay postage. Of course they know I will do the rest. This is the only way I have ever found money in a mailbox."
"I have been hunting two years or more for the duck who put about three feet of sausage in one of the boxes one night. I was hanging along on my last round about 11 o'clock and opened the box. When I ran my hand in, I grabbed the string of 'dog,' and I was about the worst frightened fellow in the District, for I was sure I had hold of a snake, and I didn't know whether I had hold of it or not. I turned it loose, and, striking a match, I soon saw that I had had a joke played on me. Before that night I was a great lover of sausage, but I have not been able to tackle any since."—Washington Post.
John Ruskin and Newman Hall.
While his church was building Mr. Newman Hall had an amusing bout with Mr. John Ruskin. He went and asked the seer's advice as to how to erect a church which should not only be commodious, but beautiful; not only sheltering from rain and sun, but inspiring happy thoughts and holy emotions.
He replied—as he had already written—"That we should not build up stones, but gather together a few people who would not steal or tell lies."
"I said," writes the pastor, "that we had many hundreds of such and needed a building where under shelter they might worship and be taught. He repeated his opinion, and I said I had made a mistake in troubling him, as I thought I was speaking to the author of 'Stones of Venice.' Whereupon Mr. Ruskin made the singular reply:
"No, you are not. Every one who does something in teaching men passes through three stages of life. At first he teaches what is inaccurate, then he unlearns it, and lastly he teaches the truth—which stage I have now reached."
That was in 1872.—London Chronicle.
Wanted a Nerve Soother.
A middle aged woman called at a chemist's in Camden town one evening and asked for morphine, and the shopman replied to her request with:
"Is it for your husband?"
"Oh, no, sir; I have not got any."
"You don't think of suicide?"
"Far from it."
"What do you take it for?"
"Must I tell you, sir?"
"You must, or otherwise I can't supply you."
"Well, then, don't you think that a woman forty years old who has had her first offer of marriage less than an hour ago naturally wants something to quiet her nerves and give her a good night's sleep?"
The druggist thought so, and she went away contented with the nerve soother.—Spare Moments.
Why Meerschaum Colors.
Meerschaum would not color at all but for the fact that it is boiled in wax. If used in its natural state, it would quickly become soiled, the material being so porous that it absorbs the slightest moisture from the hand or anything it comes in contact with. But the wax fills up the pores and gives the meerschaum a sort of enamel. A pipe that has been spoiled by overheating so that it will not color can be reborn in wax and restored to some extent. This kind of work is done in the trade by experts, for it requires great skill.
The Spaniard at Home.
The Spaniard at home is not understandable. He loves flowers and carries a pistol; he is passionately fond of the theater, but does not keep quiet; he is charmingly courteous and inexpressibly cruel; he shares his bread and wine with every stranger and stabs a friend over a trifle. Such are the traits of some. The bullfight is the favorite amusement of this class, and the bullfight, though declining somewhat in popularity, is yet the national diversion.
A Mistaken Engineer.
When it was proposed to build the Central Pacific railroad, a civil engineer of twenty-five years' experience reported that the road could not be completed in twenty years with all the money of the Bank of England to back the enterprise. But it was built and completed seven years before the expiration of the time fixed by congress.
His Fallings.

"Not by a good deal."
"What does he do worse than that?"
"He talks about how smart his baby is."—San Francisco Bulletin.

City Property for Sale.
HENDRICKS' ADDITION TO EUGENE.
To those desiring to purchase city lots, I have laid out an addition on the south side of the city and north of College Hill Park. I have 120 lots in this addition, and am selling them very low so as to enable every one to have a home of their own. The price of these lots is from $50 up.
ELIAS STEWART ADDITION TO EUGENE.
I have some very desirable lots in this addition, in the very heart of the city and within a few blocks of Willamette street.
WHITFARREN'S ADDITION TO EUGENE.
I have a few lots in this addition within two blocks of the First National Bank.
COLLEGE HILL PARK.
I have 100 lots in this addition. The price now is $50 each. We will advance the price soon. We expect College Hill Park to become the most desirable residence property in or near the city.
HENDRICKS' ADDITION TO COLLEGE HILL PARK.
We have 70 lots for sale cheap in this addition; also 40 or 50 acres of very choice fruit land. I have on this place 1300 young prune trees, about 400 Bartlett pear trees, and 200 black walnut trees, also apples, plums and small fruits. This place has a good farm house, barn and out-houses, and is a most beautiful suburban piece of property. It is known as the Locust Hill farm, and there is no place in the state more beautifully and pleasantly situated.
I am not in real estate business as a business—we sell our own lands only. I employ no agents. Any one desiring to purchase any of this property will find me at the First National Bank. I will be pleased to show property and give prices. I might exchange some of this property for good timber land. Come and see me.
T. G. HENDRICKS.
Mrs. Geer Selected.
PORTLAND, Or., April 25.—Mrs. A. S. Dunaway and Mrs. A. Dalton, of Portland; Mrs. Guernsey and Mrs. Wade, of Penikese, and Mrs. Geer, of Salem, were yesterday elected delegates by the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs to attend the biennial session of the National Federation, which meets at Los Angeles May 1st.
Working 24 Hours a Day.
There's no rest for those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always busy, curing torpid liver, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague. They banish sick headache, drive out malaria. Never gripe or weaken. Small, taste nice, work wonders. Try them. 25c at W. L. DeLano's.

A Strong Woman
Iowa City, Iowa, Aug. 15, 1900
My wife was sick for three years. We tried everything without relief and spent much money. My wife tried Wine of Cardui and four bottles cured her. She took two more bottles, knowing she would have to work hard during the hay harvest. She attended to all her household duties and looked and looked all the while. This medicine gave her strength. Formerly she was weak and tired and could hardly get about, but since she has been taking Wine of Cardui she feels better and stronger than when 20 years of age. JOSE A. EISENHAFER.
Mrs. Eisenhafer had tried everything during her three years sickness and had spent considerable money. She was weak and could hardly get about for three years before she took WINE OF CARDUI
Now, after taking the Wine of Cardui, she can work with her husband in the hay field. That is hard work, but it is not as injurious to a woman's health as labor in stores, factories and offices where thousands of girls are closely confined year after year. With the aid of Wine of Cardui a woman can do any reasonable work and enjoy good health. The health that Wine of Cardui brings makes a woman vigorous in body and mind. Freed from those terrible devastating pains a woman grows well and strong naturally. Wine of Cardui regulates the disordered menstruation and cures leucorrhoea, falling of the womb and periodical pains in the head and back caused by standing or sitting a long time in the same position. The Wine of Cardui puts the bowels, stomach, liver, kidneys and blood in proper shape. Greatly increased strength and endurance is the natural result. Most cases are cured quickly. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui and 25 cent packages of Theodor's Black-Draught.
