F L CHAMBERS & BRO.

Ten years ago before Eugene had grown to be city a directory was issued with a stated price of $3 each. Mr Tott's publication, which is now on sale at the bookstores, contains vastly more useful matter and is selling for the low price of 75 cents. Every citizen should have a copy.

Albany Democrat: A man at Lebanon yesterday says there was a small crowd and no enthusiasm at the Furnish speaking. That Furnish read his speech, said to have been written by a Pendleton man, like a schoolboy and nearly broke down at that. He is making votes right along for Mr Chamberlain.

Oren Moore, an old-time Eugene truckman, now of Portland, was here today. Mr Moore's most sensational experience in trucking took place at the depot one day when he dropped the ends of some iron bars he was taking from a freight car on a twenty-five pound can of powder. In the mixup that took place immediately thereafter Oren's clothing was set on fire, his eyebrows burnt off, while his face was filled with powder.

Prohibition Speaking.

There are many who believe that the South is going to lead in the prohibition reform. The North took the lead in abolition; the South may regain it at ground by taking the lead in a second great reform. Already the prohibition reform has given the country some great leaders and one of them is James A Tate, of Nashville, Tenn. He is secretary of the National Prohibition Committee and has been engaged to speak in the Courthouse on May 19, at 8 p m.

MOORE WOOLEN MILL MACHINERY.

—Another carload of looms for the new woolen mill arrived here from Philadelphia last Friday and are now being put in position. Still another carload started at the same time but has been delayed for some reason and has not yet reached here. One set of cards is now running steadily at the mill and the work of getting the other machinery in working order is progressing rapidly.

BORN.—At Fir Butte, May 9, 1902, to Mr and Mrs H W Hall, a son.

CITY COUNCIL.

The City Gets Road Tax Money From the County.

A NEW LIGHT ORDERED.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held last night. Mayor Christian and Councilmen Green, Henderson, Barker, Dorris and White were present. After the minutes were disposed of and the usual number of bills allowed, the council proceeded on the regular order of business as follows:

Councilman Dorris reported that himself and City Attorney Williams had presented arguments before the county court asking that the mill and a half tax levied by the county on Eugene property be refunded and that the court agreed to issue a warrant covering the amount of taxes collected by the county, amounting to $1,691.86.

City Attorney Williams was allowed $50 for his services in securing to the city from the county the 1/2 mill tax collected by the county from the city for road purposes.

The opening of the extension of North Mill street was indefinitely postponed.

Councilman Green reported 2,658 feet of lumber used in sidewalk building.

Councilman Barker reported a survey of the sewer in the alley between Willamette and Oak streets.

Also presented a petition signed by the school board and 94 others asking that a light be put up at Geary school. The light was ordered.

All monies collected by the street commissioner were ordered turned into the treasury.

The street committee was authorized to open East Twelfth street from Pearl to Oak.

A petition to vacate an alley between West Seventh and West Eighth streets from Monroe to Blair streets. Referred to street committee.

A sidewalk was ordered built on east side of Patterson street from East Eleventh to East Fifteenth street.

A sidewalk was ordered built on the north side of East Thirteenth street from Willamette to Hilyard street.

High street from East Fifteenth to East Sixteenth was ordered surveyed and graveled.

Petition to extend sewer between Pearl and High streets from East Twelfth to Fourteenth streets was referred to fire and water committee.

An ordinance amending the bicycle ordinance to allow bicyclists to ride on the sidewalks on Willamette street between Tenth and Eleventh streets was read and went over until the next meeting.

Two ordinances as follows were passed:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance to locate and establish lines of certain streets and portions of certain streets from Fifth street north and from Lawrence street west according to survey of the city surveyor on June 8, 1891.

An ordinance to levy assessments for costs of construction of sewer in alley running north and south through block 3 skinner's donation to Eugene. The cost is $416 and is divided among the owners of property abutting the new sewer.

TO CORVALLIS.—Quite a number of Eugene people left on the 1:42 train this afternoon for Corvallis to take part in and attend the May Festival of music. Among those who went this afternoon were: Prof I M Glen, who will be one of the soloists; Mr and Mrs G N Frazer, Sr, Mrs W L DeLano, Miss Rita Hansen, Mrs C B Willoughby, Miss Louise Moran, Mrs Minnie Buckman, Miss Lulu Holmes, Miss Bertha Tompkins, Miss Theresa Friendly, Warner Brown, Geo B Dorris, Prof Rick Dearborn. A number went yesterday and on this morning's early train.

RECEPTION TO PASTOR.

Rev Mr Woodward, the New Presbyterian Minister, Formally Received.

Rev Chas F Woodward, the new pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was given a reception by members and friends of the church at the Sunday school room last night.

The affair was quite well attended and was highly enjoyable. Decorations were of lilacs, ivy and bunting, and refreshments were served to those present. A short program, consisting of instrumental and vocal music and mandolin and guitar duets by Le Roy Kerns and Lloyd Bellman, was rendered.

Rev Mr Woodward has just been graduated from the theological seminary in San Francisco, and thus his first regular charge. He is a bright young man, and no doubt will give entire satisfaction in Eugene.

The Poite Comedy.

The polite comedy, "Too Rich to Marry," which will be presented at the Parker Opera House Thursday, May 15, is the humorous and pathetic story of a young lover who is infatuated with a sweet and simple little Dunkardess, and whose affections are requited, but who is the heir to a large fortune, and for that reason is not acceptable to the Dunkard parents. The stern and simple old parents of the charming little Dunkardess think as is part of their belief, that riches are a curse, and they do not propose to allow their daughter, who "loves not wisely but too well" to marry a man with such a loadstone on his shoulders as the inheritance of a fortune. On account of the love of the young couple and the opposition of the parents of the girl, complications arise which afford a wealth of humorous situations, and gives the author a chance to show how a true American can surmount everything, even millions, for the girl he loves. The working out of the difficulty is more than pleasing, and holds the attention of all to first a laugh and then a bit of pathos so well blended that the story seems to be that of every day life instead of a stage production.

MARRIED.—At the hotel Welsler, Welsler, Idaho, Wednesday, May 7, A V Cleaver and Ada F Vaughan, the latter formerly of Eugene. Mr Cleaver is a nephew of the Cleaver brothers, so well known here. The happy couple will make their home at Baker City.

House Cleaning Time is now Here

And above all things do not forget the clock. A good clock should be thoroughly cleaned and re-wound every year. If your clock has been neglected, if it has stopped, if it does not keep the correct time let us know. We will go any where in the city and get your clock, put it in thorough order and return it to you.

And our prices are the most reasonable considering the work we do. Let us know any way you can. We are at your service.
