Unity News.

Special to Guard.

UNITY, May 28.—R C Edwards will resume his logging operations in a few days for the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co. He will probably put in from two to four million feet.

Several candidates will be baptized under the services by Rev Glittins Sunday. A basket dinner will be served.

A H E has bought a moving picture outfit and will soon start out to give exhibitions.

The candidates were here Monday. Those for the legislature pledged themselves to vote for a bill to authorize the county court to fix rates on logging streams where improvements are required. We think some responsible party should have the privilege for Fall Creek, as it will take several thousand dollars to put it in proper shape.

HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL.—A splendid book is the Eugene High School Annual just published. It consists of 160 pages full of bright and interesting reading matter and splendid illustrations. Besides original poems, sketches and "joshes" there are quite a number of articles of much literary merit written by the students. The illustrations are much better than have appeared in any book of its kind here yet. The annual is published by the High School News staff and is a great credit to them.
