PROF. RESSLER MENTIONED.

As a Candidate for President of Monmouth Normal School.

Portland Journal: Among those mentioned for the place of president of the Monmouth State Normal school are Professor E D Ressler of the University of Oregon; the president of the Tacoma High School; J M Martindale, city superintendent of Albany public schools and several educators of Portland.

J B Butler, of Monmouth, has been suggested for the place, but refuses to consider the matter at all. He is now secretary of the board of regents and of the faculty and librarian of the school. The position is considered as one of the best in the state as Monmouth takes the lead in rank among the normal schools of the state.

An Appeal to the Citizens of Eugene.

June 5th, 1902.

At the last meeting of the State Teachers' Association a warm invitation was extended to the teachers of the state to hold their next meeting in this city, and was by them accepted. This meeting was to have been held last December but was postponed. The association will meet here the 25th, 26th and 27th of this month. The hotel conveniences are at present too scant for the number of teachers expected. Four hundred or more teachers are confidently looked for.

It touches our honor to provide for the lodging and care of these visitors. Will all citizens who are willing to come to the help of the community in this matter, please drop a line to the undersigned, stating how many teachers they can accommodate with beds or board or both and at what price? But little time is left for canvassing, therefore it is hoped that you will be able to send in your reply by June 10th.

Very Respectfully,
A F BEHRDOLT,
City Supt. of Schools.

The "Purity Books."

Or "Self and Sex Series," recently recommended by Mrs Teate in her purity lectures in Eugene, are now being circulated by Lewis C Dick, a personal worker in the great purity crusade now being pushed in every community. These books deserve your investigation.

A BUSINESS CHANGE.

Wm. M. Renshaw Sells His Liquor House to E. C. Hughes.

Wm M Renshaw, who has conducted a wholesale and retail liquor house in Eugene for many years, today sold his place of business to E C Hughes, of Astoria, who will take possession as soon as an inventory of stock is completed.

Mr Renshaw has not yet fully decided what business he will follow, but it is to be hoped he will conclude to remain in Eugene. He is one of our most highly honored citizens and has hosts of friends. He has been in the liquor business here for over 15 years, at first being in partnership with J M Abrams. Several years ago he bought out Mr Abrams' interest and has been conducting the business alone since.

Mr Hughes, the purchaser, is an experienced man in the business and owns a similar place in Astoria.

Illustrated Concert.

The Eugene Camp Woodmen of the World are preparing to entertain themselves and the general public on the evenings of Friday and Saturday, June 6 and 7, at the opera house.

The entertainment will consist of Edison's moving pictures depicting on a canvas 15 feet square with a 100 candle power ox-hydro light, historic battle scenes, and reproductions of the world's masterpieces of art, interspersed with beautifully illustrated songs. In closing, Dore's famous "Christian Martyrs in the Coliseum of Rome," and the wonderful dissolving effect in Bonaguan's masterpiece "The Flight of the Soul," will be rendered.

Dissolution of Partnership.

To whom it may concern: The partnership heretofore existing under the firm name of Ray & Munroe is this day dissolved by mutual consent, Mr Munroe retiring. Mr Ray continues the business, assuming all bills and collecting all accounts.

Geo. K. MUNROE,
J. B. RAY.
