THURSDAY - - JUNE 12

HUMORS OF THE TRACEY-MERRILL CONVICT HUNT.

Talk about hunting ducks with a brass band! The official genius that called out two military companies to join in chase of the escaped convicts Tracey and Merrill, is far ahead of the brass band duck-hunter in point of absurdity.

Then the imaginative reporter who supplies the public with something to read about the man-hunt cannot be forgotten. He has them seen openly on the streets and back yards of the little town of Gervais, in a private house therein demanding food, holding up a doorman and "borrowing" his coat, horse and buggy together with a gun that he had put in the buggy when he felt a little bloodthirsty a few hours before, and like capturing some convicts—and the reward. Then he has them surrounded in a wood of several hundred acres near Gervais with the intention of starving them out, while the sheriff telegraphs for reinforcements. He naively adds "The object of the posse is to completely surround the belt of timber and wait for them to 'emerge.'" He does not state how long it will be before they "emerge," a day, week or month. The militia are the there, though.

And Governor Geer could not keep out of the fray. He ordered Company F of the National Guards out, and the reporter informs us under date of yesterday forenoon that "Captain Kurts is gathering up his men and will lead in a carryall as many as it will hold, and drive down as fast as possible. The remainder of the company will go down by the afternoon train."

And all this to capture men who from the start evidently acted on prearranged plans, and whose lives are at stake! Hunting ducks with a brass band is serene wisdom in comparison.

THE SMALLEST KNOWN MICROBE.

The smallest microbe has just been discovered. Microbes, which play so great a part in the lives of men and animals, are, as we all know, microscopic creatures. But in that world of infinitely small beings there are considerable differences in size.

By comparison some microbes are giants, others are dwarfs. Among the latter the record for smallness was possessed by the influenza bacillus. But that record is now beaten by a still smaller microbe just discovered by M. Voges, of Buenos Ayres.

This microbe is called the man-que, and can only be seen by a microscope increasing its size 1,500 times, and it is found in South America, and produces an illness in cattle characterized by ulcers that can only be healed with the greatest difficulty. This nasty little animal has this in common with the marmot, that it sleeps during the whole winter and is only active during the hot season. Then its action is terrible, and invariably causes the death of the animals which are attacked unless they have been inoculated.

A bad bridge defeated the Republican county judge of Crook county for reelection. The Prineville Review has this to say about the new court:

The county affairs will be in good hands for the ensuing four years. Judge Booth with Meers Healey and Powell will see that the county does not go to the devil entirely, and when they have a bridge built they will see that it does not have to be propped up in six months.

The St. Louis exposition management had to sign an obligation pledging itself not to allow the fair kept open on Sunday. Of course they did not like to sign, but the $5,000,000 government appropriation! They had to have it.

COULDN'T REMEMBER.

"Who was that you just spoke to?" asked the first Chicago woman; "his face was rather familiar to me."

"I believe," said the other, "his name is Jenkins."

"Oh! to be sure. How stupid of me! He was my first husband."

A CLOSED INCIDENT.

"Young man," said the solemn-looking stranger, "do you drink intoxicating beverages?"

"Not with strangers," said the young man, as he moved away.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by Dr. J. W. Roberts of Elizabeth, Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless but he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood cleanser, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. MISS ROSE OWENS,

No. 720 Seventeenth St., WASHINGTON, D. C.

"If every suffering woman has the same experience with Wine of Cardui that I had, your medicine will be most popular. About a year ago I began to have a worn out tired feeling with lassitude, pains in the back and head which kept increasing every month. I felt that I needed something, but to get the right medicine was the trouble. I finally decided to try your Wine of Cardui and only needed to take three bottles when I was fully recovered."

WHEN Miss Rose Owens, who has a responsible position in the Government service at Washington, D. C., decided to try Wine of Cardui, she made a wise choice. Over a million women have been relieved of female weakness by this same Wine of Cardui. It is not a strong medicine but may be taken every day in the year by any woman with benefit. It does not force results, but corrects derangements of the menstrual system, gives tone to the bodily functions, acts directly on the genital organs, and is the finest tonic for women known to the science of medicine.
