FRIDAY - JUNE 13

THE SALEM STATESMAN'S DILEMMA.

It must hurt bad but the Salem Statesman has to do it—oppose a special session of the legislature that could not but save the taxpayers many thousands of dollars in taxes. And why? Simply because that special session will be called to place state officials on flat salaries, according to the promises and platforms of both Republican and Democratic state conventions.

The "hurt" comes from another point of view, one very dear to capital city hearts. A session of the legislature distributes no small sum among the people of Salem. There you have it. The "stand-in" with excessive official salaries, on whatever pretense they may be abstracted from the treasury, and on the other hand the good dollars that would be distributed among the Salem public.

Pulling teeth is nowhere compared with the poignant regrets the Statesman editor must endure when contemplating the double-headed proposition, each end antagonizing the other.

EASY, FOR SENATOR CLARK.

The first of every month Senator Clark of Montana draws a check for $900,000 and sends it to the contractors who are building his railway from Salt Lake City to Los Angeles. He will continue to do so until the railroad is completed.

The interesting thing about these checks isn't that he has $900,000 on the first of every month, or any month, but that the checks do not decrease his capital. He draws them on his income account. When the railroad is done it will have been completed without costing Clark a cent of his capital. The income from his mines and other enterprises will have paid for it.

A London dispatch says Queen Alexandra likes pretty girls. And it is a weakness of her royal husband, King Edward.

The voluminous accounts of how the hundred and more men are pursuing the two escaped penitentiary convicts—at least think they are—is another reminder that "the pen is mightier than the sword," or Winchester rifle, either.

Butcher, of Baker City, could not beat Williamson for congress in the Portland-Eastern Oregon district, but he was successful yesterday in being elected the head of the Masonic organization of the state.

It is reported that General Kitchener's free and easy manner was in no small degree responsible for the Boer surrender. For instance it is said he eloped Dewet on the back in a very familiar way as they were conferring about the terms and exclaimed, "Now, Dewet, don't be sulky!" Dewet could not help being sulky, nor could he help surrendering, for that matter, either.

"Young men for war, old men for counsel." General Dewet says the youngster Boers were his fighters. And it is a motley group that has surrendered, boys eleven years old and upwards, while there are a few septuagenarians. The majority of the eleven thousand surrendered up till Wednesday are under thirty. The Boer general says the boys frequently held their positions after it had got too hot for the older burghers and they had cleared out.

By order of the court. May 14, 1902.

E. U. LEE, County Clerk.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist W. Roberts of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there has long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitter and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and morbid poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood disease, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50c, Salve 25c at W. L. DeLano's.

Teachers Institute.

The annual county teachers institute will be held in Eugene June 23, 26, 27 and 28, 1902. All teachers are requested by law to attend at least 16 hours. Boards of directors are required to attend county institutes.

Programs will be sent teachers later. W. M. MILLER, County Supt.

MISS ROSE OWENS, No. 720 Seventeenth St., WASHINGTON, D. C. "If every suffering woman has the same experience with Wine of Cardui that I had, your medicine will be most popular. About a year ago I began to have a worn out tired feeling with lassitude, pains in the back and head which kept increasing every month. I felt that I needed something, but to get the right medicine was the trouble. I finally decided on your Wine of Cardui and only needed to take three bottles when I was fully recovered." W. H. Kinsey, M.D., writes: "I suffered terribly at monthly periods for three years. I would sometimes go for seven months with no flow at all. Now I have my health back again and am expecting to be confined in January. I cannot praise your medicine enough."
