THE INSPECTION.

Col. Jackson Found The Militia Boys in Good Trim.

A large crowd witnessed the annual inspection and muster of Co's A and C and the Fourth Regiment band by Col James A Jackson, inspector-general of of the Oregon National Guard, at the armory last night.

At 8.20 o'clock, to the strains of music by the band the two companies marched into the big drill hall clad in their new khaki uniforms and in heavy marching order. Inspection of arms was first had, followed by inspection of knapsacks, after which each company was put through a severe drill. They made a very good appearance, considering the cumbersome loads they had to carry, and the Colonel seemed to be well pleased with the maneuvers.

Inspection of quarters was had after the exercises in the drill hall, and dancing followed until a late hour.

KILLED AT PORTLAND.

Dr. McDaniel, a Graduate of the U. O, Ran Over By An Electric Car.

Mrs Helen Johnson, of this city, received a telegram this morning informing her that her brother-in law, Dr Wm McDaniel, had been killed by a street car running over him at Portland.

No particulars were sent. The unfortunate man was not deaf or blind and it is not known how the accident could have happened Mrs Johnson went to Portland on this afternoon's train to attend the funeral

Dr McDaniel is well known to many Eugene people having graduated from the University of Oregon in 1889

THE "LOCO" AT HARRISBURG.—Bulletin: An incident that excited general interest here Sunday was the appearance of Mr Ingham, of Eugene, on our streets with his locomobile. The writer, for reasons not necessary to mention here, had the pleasure of a spin aboard this miraculous machine, and can truly say after an experience of 70 years' travel, that for sport and pleasure the "loco" furnishes the climax. Mr Ingham is noted for his enterprise and ability as a business man, the evidence of which is prominently displayed in his management of the large department store known as the 'Ax Billy" store, in Eugene. Long may he live and prosper.

Percy Patterson returned last night from a visit in Portland He says his brother, Lonnie, is now cashier for the Sweet Candy Co, owned by the Pacific Bisquit Co, the cracker trust.

BUILDING NOTES.

S. B. Eakin Will Erect a Handsome Residence--New Bricks Progressing.

Hon S B Eakin will let the contract in a day or two for a fine new residence to be erected where his present dwelling stands, at the corner of East Eighth and High streets. The old house will be moved to another lot. The bids for the erection of the house are all in, and Mr. Eakin is considering them before letting the contract. It will be one of the finest residences in the city.

There are a large number of other residences in course of erection in the city, most of them being in the east end and the extreme west end. Last year about this time we gave a list of those who were building but if we were to attempt to do it this year it would take up nearly all the paper.

W. M Preston today took out the old front of his brick building and is placing it in the Park street end of the building. A fine plate glass front will be placed at the Willamette street end. A stairway leading from Park street has been constructed and one from Willamette street will be put in soon. When finished the building, with its new second story, will be strictly up-to-date. Mr. Preston has sold to T. G. Hendricks who owns the building occupied by Hall & Son's grocery store next door the use of the stairway that he is going to build, and the one in the Hendricks building will be taken out, giving much more room for Hall & Son, who will have a small room constructed in the front part of the building for a rest room, fitted up with sofas, chairs, mirrors, etc, which will be a great convenience to their lady customers.

The brick work on Mike Schneider's new two-story building at West Eighth and Olive streets is progressing rapidly. It is now up 15 or 20 feet.

The foundation for the new McClung brick is well under way. It is being built from the rock from the first story of the old building.

IMPROVEMENTS AT U. O.

Basement at Deady Hall Being Remodeled.

Wm H Alexander, the contractor and builder, who secured the contract for some extensive improvements in Deady Hall at the University of Ore-Oregon, this morning started a force of men at the work.

The men are now tearing out the partitions in the basement of the building which has for many years been used for the janitor's residence, and will be divided off into four good-sized class rooms.

The work will cost over $3000 aside from the plumbing which will amount to considerable more.

Brick! Brick!!

Plenty of brick now at J M Martin's brickyard, two miles west of Eugene. New kiln just burned.
