Dorothea's Stolen Cheese.

Little Dorothea is one of those children whose silence when awake is regarded as a certain sign that she is in mischief. One day when she was about two and a half years old her mother gradually became aware of a silence which boded trouble. She was about to look for the baby when Dorothea came in, her lips still bearing the traces of a feast.

"Where have you been, Dorothea? What are you eating?"

"Cheese," said Miss Dorothea.

"Where did you get it, dear?" asked her mother.

"In the mousetrap," answered the delinquent.

"In the mousetrap?" exclaimed the horrified mother.

"Yes."

Then the mother laughed. "But what will the poor mouse do? You will frighten them all away."

"They wasn't all frightened, mamma. Dey was two mousses in de trap when I vated the cheese."—Brooklyn Life.

The Fishes of Japan.

The islands of Japan are remarkable for their richness of animal life. The variety in climate and other conditions, the nearness to the great continent of Asia and to the chief center of marine life, the East Indian Islands; its relation to the warm black current of Kuro Shivo (the gulf stream of the ocean) and to the cold current from Bering sea, all tend to give variety to the fauna of its seas. Especially numerous and varied are the fishes of Japan. It has been noted that the fish fauna of Japan bears a striking resemblance to that of the Mediterranean, and Dr. Gunther has suggested that this can be accounted for by supposing that in recent times a continuous coast line and sea passage extended from one region to the other, the Isthmus of Suez not existing.—Popular Science Monthly.

Haix and Grass.

There is a major in a certain English regiment who has a great contempt for incapacity of any kind and is somewhat impatient in the bargain. Some time ago he was in charge of a detachment of men, and a sergeant complained that he could get no man to undertake the duty of barber to the company.

"Is there no gardener in the company?" asked the major testily. "I seem to remember one. Send him to me."

The man was duly sent, but on receiving orders to act as barber returned to exasperation.

"Great heavens!" yelled the major. "If you can cut grass, you can cut hair! Go and do it."

The man went, but what the others said is unprintable.

Unlabeled For Country.

The vicomte Tossaint was formerly a colonel in the French army and mayor of Toulouse. He was a brave man and a dashing officer. During one of the hottest engagements of the terrible year, noticing that his troops were bending forward under a galling fire to escape the bullets of the enemy while he alone maintained an erect position, he exclaimed, "Since when, I should like to know, has so much politeness been shown to the Prussians?"

The sarcasm took instantaneous effect, for the soldiers rushed forward and carried everything before them.

Cats in Ancient Wales.

An ancient statute ascribed to Howell the Good, a Welsh prince, who ruled in 1284, regulated the price of cats. A penny was the price of a kitten before its eyes were open, twopence until it had caught its first mouse, fourpence when it was old enough for combat. He who stole a cat from the royal granaries forfeited either a milk ewe, with its fleece and lamb, or as much wheat as would cover the body of the cat suspended by its tail, with its nose touching the ground. A penny was a coin of great purchasing power in the tenth century.

An Innocent Query.

At a dinner party in England the host introduced to the favorable notice of the company, amid murmurs of admiration, a splendid truffled pheasant.

"Isn't it a beauty?" he says. "Dr. So-and-so gave it to me; killed it himself."

"Ah! What was he treating it for?" says one of the guests.

Life's Disappointments.

"There's a fire!" shouted the boy from the country. "Here come the engines! Let's follow them!"

"'Twon't do no good," said the city cousin disconsolately. "The blamed firemen'll put it out before we can get there."—Chicago Tribune.

Rebuffed.

"You have so much address I can hardly be expected to compete with you," said the letter to the envelope.

"Now, don't get excited," replied the envelope, "because you know you can't contain yourself."

Jury Duty as He Found It.

"I hear you were on jury duty all last week."

"Yes."

"Tedium, wasn't it?"

"It certainly was trying."—Philadelphia Record.

Stingular.

"My entire clerical force went out on strike yesterday," said Bluffman.

"That so?" replied the caustic man.

"What was his grievance?"—Philadelphia Press.

Water thrown upon ice in the arctic regions will shiver it just as boiling water breaks glass. This is because the ice is so much colder than the water.

Saved From Awful Fate.

"Everybody said I had consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chambersburg, Pa. "I was so low after six months of severe sickness caused by hay fever and asthma that few thought I could get well, but I heard of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, used it and was completely cured."

For desperate throat and lung diseases it is the safest cure in the world and is infallible for coughs, colds and bronchial affections. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at W. L. DeLano's.

Happy Time in Old Town.

"We felt very happy," writes R. N. Bevil, Old Town, Va., "when Buckle's Arnica Salve which cured our daughter of a bad case of scald head."

Delights all who use it for cuts, corns, burns, bruises, boils, ulcers, eruptions—Infallible for piles. Only 5c at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

Tennison and Barnum.

Tennison was extremely eager at one time to visit America, and touching this point a story is related to the effect that Barnum offered him an enormous sum to make the trip, though probably not as one of the attractions of the "greatest show on earth."

"All you have to do," said Barnum, "is to stand on a platform and have your hands well shaken." The poet, however, declined the tempting offer.

Courtship Too Expensive.

Tess—You don't mean to say they have broken off their engagement?

Jess—Yes.

Tess—Why, I thought they were perfectly devoted to each other.

Jess—So they are. You see, they have broken off the engagement, so that he may have enough money to enable them to get married.—Philadelphia Press.

Taking It Coolly.

The ship of an admiral who was the Duke of Wellington's near connection was wrecked. He was placed in command of a second ship, which was also lost, and he himself was drowned. Lord Charles communicated the disaster to his father, who merely exclaimed, with Spartan coldness and brevity, "That's the second ship he has lost."

The Way It Was.

Mrs. Grump—I understand you had some trouble with Mrs. Kiek, where you last worked?

Hired Girl—O didn't have no trouble with her, mum. Sure it was her that had the trouble with me.—Ohio State Journal.
