A CORVALLIS FIRE.

Warehouse With 12,000 Bushels of Wheat Burned.

CORVALLIS, June 26.—A fire in this city yesterday morning at 3 o'clock destroyed the Dinges warehouse located near the Southern Pacific depot, with all its machinery and contents. The warehouse was owned and operated by C. F. Dinges. It is supposed that about 12,000 bushels of wheat were stored in the building; most of this was owned by Mr. Dinges; 1000 bushels were owned by the Corvallis Flouring Mills and 8000 bushels by Thomas H. Cooper. The building was insured for $1000 in the Oregon Fire Relief Association. There was $500 insurance on the same company, and $1000 additional insurance on contents in the Northern Insurance Company.

Palmistry. Clairvoyance.

Prof. Harrison, the world's most celebrated palmist and clairvoyant, has arrived in Eugene, and is now located at 642 Willamette street, over the Bonboniere restaurant, parlors 1 and 2 where he can be consulted on all the affairs of life. Prof. Harrison guarantees to reveal every incident of your life, tells you who, where and when you will marry; just what you are best fitted for and how to obtain the money you are in need of, etc. The happiness of your future life may depend upon the right solution and proper advice. The professor makes no mistake and all his predictions are true and may be relied upon. You may wish to know if it is advisable to make a change in business, in love or in marriage. Shall I succeed in my undertaking? When shall I obtain my hopes, my wishes? Shall I ever become wealthy? Can I trust my friends? Have I enemies? When shall I marry? How often shall I marry? Shall I ever be divorced? Does another share the love that rightfully belongs to me? If so, what? Should I invest my money? In what should I invest? Is my disease curable? Prof. Harrison tells you all these things and a great many more. He is ever ready to assist those with small capital to find a quick and sure investment. He is a professional medium of many years standing, and is recognized the world over as the greatest seer and prophet the world has ever produced. He does not claim to do impossible things such as locating lost treasures, gold mines, etc., but he does claim to be able through his wonderful gift of clairvoyance and his knowledge of palmistry to read your life and give you such advice as will put you on the road to success.

No matter what your trouble is, he can and will help you, and if you are not helped after a visit he will positively refuse to accept a fee. Everyone is invited to call on this gifted medium and test for themselves. His fee is reasonable and within reach of all. All business strictly confidential and parli are so arranged that you meet no strangers. Lady in attendance. Office hours from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Sunday 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Palmistry and Hypnotism taught. Mediumistic persons developed. As a test in the reading he will tell your full name. Parlor 1 and 2 642 Willamette St., over Bonboniere Restaurant.

Fourth of July Picnic.

As Eugene has decided not to celebrate the Fourth of July this year Robert Newmiller has decided to give such of our people who feel so inclined entertainment on the old Wallis home place two miles west of town.

A shooting match for a fine fat beef will take place at 10 o'clock. There will be a bicycle race for boys, also one for girls, and a fat men's footrace. A prize with each race. Suitable music for the occasion, also stands with soda water, ice cream and knickknacks for the convenience of the public. A good old style country dinner will be served on the premises for 25 cents. Just a nice convenient drive from Eugene, while the old orchard and shade trees about will furnish splendid shade for parties who desire to bring their lunch. A splendid well of water convenient.

Creswell News.

Special to the Guard. CRESWELL, June 26.—Hay making time is here again and the farmers are busy making hay.

Mrs. Martha Stanton, who has been visiting at Cottage Grove for the last month, has returned to Creswell.

The Creswell Sunday school gave a picnic last Saturday in Morse's grove one mile east of Creswell. A good program was rendered and a large crowd was present. The most of the afternoon was spent playing baseball.

The Creswell public school closed last Friday. Mr. A. T. Gruett was principal; Mrs. Brady was intermediate and Anna D. Howe was primary teacher.

“Everybody said I had consumption,” writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chambersburg, Pa. “I was so low after six months of severe illness caused by lung fever, and asthma that few thought I could get well, but I learned of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, used it and was completely cured.” For desperate throat and lung diseases it is the safest cure in the world and is infallible for coughs, colds and bronchitis. Guaranteed to cure. Price 50¢ and $1. Trial bottles free at W. L. DeLoe and Low.—Small gold anchor pin with a bracelet and Greek letters inscription. Return to GUARD office and get reward.

Fielding and "Tom Jones."

Notwithstanding the good prices he received for his books, Fielding was always more or less in difficulties from his reckless mode of living. "Tom Jones," however, was nearly being sacrificed in one of his impetuous fits for the sum of $25. The publisher fortunately asked for a day to consider if he could risk such a sum, and Fielding in the meantime met Thomson, the poet, to whom he told the transaction. Thomson scorned the idea of Fielding parting with his brains for such a sum and offered to get him better terms, but Fielding felt himself partly pledged. Never did author wait more anxiously on a publisher hoping to be accepted than did Fielding hoping to be refused. He was refused!

Joyfully he carried his manuscript to Thomson to fulfill his promise. The poet introduced Fielding to Andrew Miller, who handed the book over to his wife to read. She discerned its merits and advised her husband to keep it. Over a pleasant dinner given by Miller to Fielding and Thomson the bargain was made which secured Fielding to Miller for the sum of $2000 for the story. Miller is said to have cleared $18,000 by "Tom Jones," out of which he paid Fielding from time to time various sums to the amount of $2,000, bequeathing him also a handsome legacy.

The Structure of Ferns. When flowering plants usually make seed, that is generally the last effort for plant life. The seed is the beginning of the life of the new plant. Ferns, however, only produce spores for reproductive purposes. These spores germinate and go through the same process subsequently that flowers go through in the production of seeds. The spores expand when the germinating time comes and form a flat, green membrane. What are then really the flowers appear on this membrane. As a general rule after these fern flowers have matured the membrane dries up and disappears. In one family of ferns, however, natives of New Holland, named plantigrass, this green blade is permanent and continues to enlarge, becoming really a portion of the plant. Every year a new blade is formed which spreads over the old ones. The large plant is of a totally different character, having the fronds of ordinary ferns.

Habits of the Wildcat. To say that a dog can "whip his weight in wildcats" is to pay about the highest tribute to his strength, courage and activity, and there are very few dogs that would care to earn such a tribute if they understood all it implied. Not that a wildcat is of a specially aggressive disposition. On the contrary, he would sooner mind his own business any time than fight. So anxious is he as a rule to keep out of trouble that he has often been accused of cowardice, but he has on so many occasions given evidence of the most desperate courage that it is doubtful if the accusation is a fair one. When wounded or at bay, he is perhaps as dangerous as any creature of his size.

A Fillet of Beef. For a fillet of beef, cut two pounds into round slices half an inch thick and sprinkle with pepper and salt. Fry in two ounces of butter seven minutes at the most and brush over each piece with glaze. Place a border of mashed potatoes on a dish, lay the fillets on it with alternate slices of baked tomato and the fried beef. Also have a piece of maitre d'hotel butter on each fillet. Fill the center with nicely cooking vegetables and pour around a little good beef gravy.

Cures For Sleeplessness. Horace in his satires recommended swimming the Tiber three times! Sir Thomas Browne was accustomed to repeat some verses of a certain hymn. Franklin took an air bath, Sir John Sinclair counted, while Sir John Rennie when engaged upon any public works never went to sleep until his head had been combed and gently rubbed by a soft hand.

A Hard Domestic Knot. "I'm in a dudge of a fix. My wife's got the telephone craze."

"Well?"

"If I put one in, she'll swear I'm sweet on the telephone girl."

"Certainly."

"And if I don't, she'll say it's because I'm afraid the thing'll expose my duplicity."—Baltimore News.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G. W. Roberts of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, when treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50c, Salve 25c at W. L. DeLoe's.
