Miners' Protective Association.

GRANTS PASS, July 9.—An organization known as the Miners' Protective Association was perfected in this city last night. The organization of this association is the final outcome of the bitter fight between the miners and Eastern timbermen or "land grabbers" as they are called. The purpose of the Miners' Protective Association is to protect the interests of the miners and of mining in Southern Oregon and Josephine county more especially.

TESTIMONY COMPLETED.—The testimony in the Gilstrap homestead contest case was finished last night at 12 o'clock. U. S. Commissioner Ware has forwarded the testimony to the land office at Roseburg and from there it will be sent to the department at Washington where the case will be decided.

MORE RUNAWAYS.

Mrs. Graham and Little Barrett Girl Injured—Al Gordon's Runaway.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Barrett and little daughter and Mrs. H. W. Graham while riding in a buggy near Bange's Park had a runaway in which Mrs. Graham and one of the little girls were pretty badly bruised up.

Mrs. Graham and the little girl had just got into the buggy when the seat tipped over, throwing Mrs. Graham out. The horse became frightened at this and started to run. The little girl jumped out, and in doing so was severely injured and unconscious for awhile. Mrs. Graham's injuries were also severe.

The horse ran on into Eugene and was caught, but little damage being done to the buggy.

AL GORDON'S RUNAWAY.

Just before noon today Al Gordon was unloading some lumber in front of S. B. Eakin's residence lot on East Eighth and High streets, when the team, a couple of frisky colts, became frightened and started to run. They dashed the wagon up against a tree, badly damaging the vehicle, and then ran on but were caught before going far.

ACCIDENT AT GATE CREEK.
